

The Abnormal Development of the GIRAFFE is remarkable, but the abnormal development of the demand for SUNLIGHT SOAP is still more remarkable. It is not known how many people have never seen a Giraffe, but it is known that there are millions and millions of careful house-wives all over the world using

SUNLIGHT SOAP.

These housewives no longer dread the advent of wash-day, for, with SUNLIGHT SOAP as their ally, they are assured of a quick despatch of all dirt and uncleanness. SUNLIGHT SOAP saves your clothes.

Change of Pastors in Salmonier.

Rev. William O'Flaherty left Salmonier on the 30th January en route for Trepassay, where he will take up his duties as Parish Priest. Father O'Flaherty was appointed parish priest of Salmonier six years ago. By his gentle, kindly manner he endeared himself to all his parishioners and with them he worked energetically to build up the schools and churches that were not in very good condition when he took charge. It can be safely said that no priest could do more with the means in such a large parish as Father O'Flaherty has done.

The church he saved from ruin at Mount Carmel, the three new schools he repaired and fitted are proofs of his untiring labour. St. Joseph's Church that he would like to have perfected, has received many improvements, a new Sacristy has been attached, new pews were placed in it last year, and this year two new altars that will be lasting remembrances of Father O'Flaherty's love for Salmonier.

Before his departure all his parishioners assembled in the Parish Hall and presented him with a purse of gold and address from the people and addresses and presents from the teachers and school children. The people's address was as follows:

ADDRESS.
Rev. and Dear Father—

It is with feelings of deepest regret that we, the people of Salmonier parish, assemble on this occasion to bid you farewell. We will not attempt to describe the feeling of pain and disappointment the announcement of your departure caused to us all. It might be giving a faint idea to say that if we were one large family and the dearly loved head of the household was taken suddenly away, the sorrow caused by such an occurrence might be something akin to our sorrow now. During your six years in our midst we have on numerous occasions been the cause of much joy to you, and we are glad now of this opportunity to ask your forgiveness for the trouble we have given you in the past, and to assure you that whatever feeling our actions have portrayed, in our hearts was a sincere feeling of esteem and affection for you who have been to us a loving priest and father and a devoted friend.

There is no need for us to publish the success you have achieved during your sojourn here, it is painfully visible in the churches, schools and the marked improvement of the parish in general. We recognize in the change a promotion for you, and we would indeed be lacking in generosity if we would not in spite of our sorrow offer you our most respectful congratulations and promise to Father Rawlins our perpetual loyalty and assistance.

We wish you, dear Father O'Flaherty, from our hearts success in your every undertaking, and hope that God will shower on you his choicest blessings and give you grace sufficient to continue to do His Holy Will. Our proud boast will always be that your first years as a priest were spent with us, we are enjoying the fruits of your first labours and you did not seek to leave us.

We hope you will accept the accompanying gift as a slight token of our appreciation and esteem. We would be very happy to know that the little gift will be remembered at all times of the people of Salmonier.

Signed—
Maurel Daley, Patrick Cormac, Richard Gough, James White, John McDonald.

ADDRESS
From the Teachers.

Reverend and Dear Father—
When it was first announced that a change of pastors was necessary throughout the Archdiocese we were filled with hope that you would be left with us, but too soon we realized the change was inevitable, and now almost on the eve of your departure we cannot find words with which to express the regret, the feeling of loneliness, caused by the loss of you, our six years sojourn here, not only the best of a chairman but a spiritual guide, a loving father and dear friend.

All our actions in the past may not have been manifestations of loyalty to you, but we wish to assure you they were not prompted by lack of appreciation of your gentle spiritual influence, your fatherly advice, and readiness to assist us to overcome every obstacle. Most humbly now do we ask your forgiveness for our many faults and lack of those attributes so necessary to a Priest's co-workers.

We hope you will accept the accompanying gift as a slight token of esteem for and gratitude to you our devoted and energetic Chairman. You, Father, by your cheerful submission to God's Holy Will, have made us feel that it would be selfishness on our part not to be glad of your promotion to the parish of Trepassay, and even if an appeal from us could recall you we could not utter it, knowing we would be depriving you of better advantages than poor Salmonier could offer you.

With this feeling predominating, then, we offer you our hearty and most respectful congratulations on your promotion to Trepassay, one of the oldest parishes in the Archdiocese. We are glad, too, of this opportunity of doing what we feel assured will please you most to offer to Rev. Fr. Rawlins our untiring energy in the spread of education, our assistance where possible in matters relating to church and parish, and submission to his every wish.

We earnestly hope, Father, for an occasional visit from you, and we ask you to remember us in your prayers. It is not necessary for us to repeat the many kind and sincere wishes you have received, it will suffice to say they have found a responding echo in our hearts, and now we fervently pray may God bless you.

Signed,
Clara McDonnell, Mary Leonard, Annie O'Reilly, Sarah McDonnell, Bertha Curjis, Christina Carroll.

To Rev. William O'Flaherty From the Children of St. Joseph's.

Reverend and Dear Father—
It is with feelings of deep regret that we assemble here on this occasion to greet you and speak to you our respectful and affectionate farewell. The unexpected announcement of your removal from our midst saddened our young hearts, for during your short stay with us we have always known you as a loving Pastor and Father and kind friend. You have ever shown the deepest interest in our work and education, and your presence has always seemed to make things brightly ask easier for us, and to produce greater efforts from us. To say that we shall miss you is to give but a faint idea of the emotion of our young hearts.

Although our actions have not at all times been expressive of obedience, yet we have ever observed and appreciated your kind and untiring efforts on our behalf, and now on the eve of our departure we truly realize the strong link of affection which binds us to you, esteemed Father, a link which shall only be strengthened by time; only now do we see the full extent of your fatherly love and care. And now, dear Father, on this occasion we humbly ask you to pardon any annoyances we have caused you, and which we assure you were not prompted by rudeness but were merely the result of childish thoughtlessness. We hope, too, that Rev. Father Rawlins will deal leniently with our many faults. To him we promise the same obedience that we have shown to you, endeavouring in the meantime to prevent a repetition of the thoughtlessness referred to; for we know by doing this we are fulfilling our duty to our pastor and consequently acting as you would wish.

We also ask you, dear Father O'Flaherty, to accept the accompanying gift as a little token of our affection for you. We shall feel happy to think that it may be the means of obtaining for us an occasional remembrance in your prayers.

Respectfully we offer you our best wishes for your success in your new Parish, and at all times our earnest prayer shall be that God may always assist you in your noble work and your gentle submission to His Holy Will.

Signed—
Aggie Daley, May Cormack, Dinah Young, Michael Gough, Jack Ryan.

After the reading of the addresses Father O'Flaherty thanked the people, teachers and children for their presence and addresses, expressed his regret at leaving the parish and spoke many kind words of encouragement to all; he also hoped that the people of Salmonier would always give their assistance to his successor, Rev. J. Rawlins.

Mother! Don't Take Chances If Child's Tongue Is Coated

If cross, feverish, sick, bilious, clean little liver and bowels.

A laxative to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well-playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Fogo Notes.

The Boy Scouts made their first appearance in public on Thursday, Jan. 20th, when they gave a concert in the L.O.A. Hall. Although the weather was none too favorable, the hall was packed to the doors. The entertainment started at eight o'clock with a few remarks from our genial Magistrate Cook. For two hours and a half the audience listened to one of the best affairs of its kind ever put off at Fogo. The boys were at their very best, and did full justice to the training given them by Miss Scott, A.T.C.L., and Mr. Francis. The drills were especially good, and the singing went with a swing, coming as it did, from forty lads who were enjoying the fun quite as much as the audience. Many of the items were original, and the Scouts' Marching Song, composed by one of the Scouts, certainly speaks well for Fogo talent. The duet "What Fairy-like Music," by Miss Scott and Mr. Jack Jones, was received with much applause, and when Mr. Gilbert Sibley appeared in costume and gave "When Reuben Comes to Town," it literally brought down the house. The dialogues were splendidly done, some of the boys showing great promise. Cecil Perry recited "Waterloo" with expression. The last item was an "Injun Drill" and the lads looked very warlike in their Indian dress. At the close they threw their tomahawks among the audience, who gladly accepted them as souvenirs of a most enjoyable evening. During the intervals delicious home-made candy was sold. The proceeds of the concert amounted to fifty-one dollars. Too much praise cannot be given Miss Scott and the energetic schoolmaster, Mr. Francis, for the way in which the boys have

GinPills FOR THE KIDNEYS

What They Have Done

"I suffered a great many years with kidney trouble; tried several remedies, and also doctors' medicines, with no result. Two years ago I read an ad. in a newspaper of 'GIN PILLS FOR THE KIDNEYS,' and sent for two boxes. They did me more good than all the medicine I had ever taken. After I used the first two I sent five more boxes, and I am satisfied, and also know, that Gin Pills are the best kidney remedy made."

I used to have to rise three or four times in the night; now I can sleep and don't have to get up at all, thanks to GIN PILLS. Age seventy-two years old.

been trained. Miss Scott generously gave of her time and talent, and Fogo people know that anything undertaken by her must be a success. Mr. Francis organized the Boy Scouts here in October, and since then much progress has been made, due to his energy and the boys' interest in the movement. We are glad to see a branch in Fogo, and we feel grateful to our popular young schoolmaster for the great good he is doing our boys, who, in return, show their appreciation by their devotion to him.

On Wednesday, 26th, a merry troop of young people "surprised" our young bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. R. Scott, with a linen shower. About two dozen of our lads and lassies, carrying their baskets, and in high spirits, marched down to the home of the newly wedded couple. After introductions, games were begun immediately and kept up until refreshments were served, at 11 o'clock, after which a few solos were given. Then all joined hands and sang "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King" thus ending a very pleasant evening.

Miss Ethel Scott, who was visiting Mrs. Hodge at Twillingate, returned by Prospero last week.

Miss Elsie Hyde, who has been assistant book-keeper at J. W. Hodge's for the past six years, goes to St. John's to take up a similar position with Messrs. Ayre & Sons.

Messrs. J. W. Hodge and Harold J. Earle, who were on a business trip to the city, returned by Prospero.

Miss Lizzie Earle, of Change Island, is spending the winter here studying vocal and instrumental music under Miss Scott, A.C.T.L.

Rev. H. Scott went to Seldom on Tuesday to preach on the occasion of the Orange parade. During the evening he gave a lecture, both instructive and humorous, on "The other half and the better half."

Your Boys and Girls.

The retentive period in a child is usually at the best at about five years of age and after that, unless carefully trained, gradually begins to weaken. It is very easy to teach a little one first a few lines and then several verses of a simple poem by reading them over and over. Numbers of children learn jingles from the first to the last and identify them by pictures in the rhyme books, reciting as if they were actually reading the poem.

It is a good idea to let a child look on while reading to her. The pictures are at first much more interesting to her than the reading matter and they help considerably in the memorizing habit. On the other hand, if the child shows aptitude in learning by heart, the parent should not be too enthusiastic in training his memory and so strain it by stuffing his mind full of long and intricate poems.

Everyday Etiquette.

"When writing a friendly letter should one put the person's name to whom one is writing, at the top of the letter?" was Mary's query.

"It is not the best form to put the name at the top of a personal letter. After the date line you should begin the salutation," replied her aunt.

WATCH SORE THROATS

because swollen glands or inflamed membranes often affect other tissues and lung trouble easily follows. As Nature's corrector of throat troubles the pure cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is speedily converted into germ-resisting tissue; its tested glycerine is curative and healing, while this wholesome emulsion relieves the trouble and rebuilds the forces to resist tubercular germs and avert the weakening influence which usually follows. If any member of your family has a tender throat, get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion to-day. Physicians prescribe it to avert throat troubles, overcome bronchial diseases and strengthen the lungs. No harmful drugs. Always insist on Scott's.
