WILL DISARM SHIPS.

LONDON, Nov. 25.
A flotilla of mine sweepers left the Firth of Forth this morning to clear a passage to Kiel for the British squadron which, it is understood, will disarm and intern the remnants of the German navy. Wilhelmshaven will also be visited by the squadron, which it is reported, will comprise one battle-ship and a flotilla of destroyers.

KEEPING ARMISTICE.

ROME, Nov. 24.
Italian troops occupied Innsbruck, the capital of the Austrian Tyrol, on Friday, in accordance with the terms of the Austrian armistice. They also took possession of Landeck, west of Innsbruck, on the In River.

ALLIED TROOPS MEET OPPO-SITION.

ARCHANGEL, Nov. 24.
(By the A.P.)—The Entente and American troops have encountered strong opposition both on the Volog-da-Archangel railway and on the Drina River. Owing to the swampy condition of the country it has been necessary to confine operations to the waterway and the railway. As the upper part of the river is deeper than at its mouth, the Bolshevik craft, equipped with large guns, have been better able to manoeuvre than the Entente ships and have prevented the occupation of Kotlas by the Entente.
A plan is under discussion in military circles for the creation of a voluntary army of Russian relief, should the Allies agree upon the policy of freeing Russia.

NEW CONSTITUTION.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 25.
An agreement has been reached between the German Soldiers' and Workmen's Council and the Government, it is officially announced in Berlin. The agreement provides: 1, all political power is to be in the hands of the German Socialist Republic and the Soldiers' and Workmen's Council; 2, their aim is to defend and develop what has been achieved by the revolution and to suppress all counter-revolutions; 3, pending the election of representatives of the Soldiers' and Workmen's Councils to an Executive Council of the German Republic, the Executive Council in Berlin is to exercise its functions; 4, the appointment and dismissal of all members of the various legislative bodies of the Republic, and until the final constitution is established, appointments are to be made by the Central Executive Council; 5, before the cabinet appoints assistant ministers the Executive Council must be consulted; 6, a convention of deputies drawn from the Soldiers' and Workmen's Councils is to be summoned as soon as possible.

BELIEVED A BLUFF.

LONDON, Nov. 25.
This morning's newspapers display prominently the German advances regarding the agreement between the Soldiers' and Workmen's Councils and the Government, which is regarded as a development of the greatest importance and tantamount to the overthrow of the Ebert-Haase combination and the adoption, at least theoretically, of the existing Russian system. The Daily Mail while pointing out this significance to the developments in Russia, suggests that the new step is a part of a "big bluff" aimed at persuading the Allies that the old Germany is defunct.

CUTTING DOWN WAR EXPEN-DITURE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.
Naval estimates for 1920 have been reduced $1,150,215,000 as the result of the signing of the armistice. Secretary McAdoo was informed to-day by Secretary Daniels. The original estimate on a war basis was $2,644,307,000, and this has been reduced to $1,494,092,000.

LIMITING REVENUE BILL.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.
By a strict party vote the Senate Financial Committee to-night decided to recommend that the yield from the 1920 Revenue Bill be limited to $4, 000,000,000.

THE GERMAN SITUATION.

LONDON, Nov. 25.
(British Wireless Service).—The latest reports received in London from Germany indicate that the internal situation there has reached a critical stage. Although a proclamation has been issued declaring that all political power is in the hands of the German Socialist Republic and the Soldiers' and Workmen's Council, opposition to such a Government is growing outside Berlin.

OUTBREAKS EXPECTED IN PERU.

LIMA, Peru, Nov. 25.
Peruvian newspapers call upon the Government to request a cessation of anti-Peruvian demonstrations in Chile.
They declare that if the demonstrations continue, anti-Chilean outbreaks may be expected in Peru. The demonstrations grew out of the differences between Chile on the one side and Peru and Bolivia on the other concerning the border provinces of Tacna and Arica.

BOLSHEVIK PRISONERS DIE.

VLADIVOSTOK, Nov. 22.
Half dead from starvation and disease, many beyond help, 1,321 survivers out of the original total of 2,100 Bolshevik prisoners and refugees in a train sent across Siberia by the Czech-Slovak troops fighting in Sa-mara, European Russia, have arrived at Nikolai, near Vladivostok. The journey from the Ural Mountains to the Pacific Coast occupied six weeks.
The survivors reached Nikolai in forty cars. The train carried no provisions and was without sanitary equipment of any kind. Of the eight hundred persons missing from the original total, some were shot while trying to escape from the train, others lost their lives by throwing themselves from the car windows. They loaded the inmates of the jails into trains indiscriminately along with the Bolshevik prisoners of war. The Red Cross at Vladivostok has rushed doctors to Nikolai to aid the arrivals who are in a terrible condition. Some persons died on the ground after being removed from the cars. Other train loads of human freight in similar straits are now on their way eastward over the trans-Siberian railroad.

AUSTRIA BREAKS UP.

VIENNA, Nov. 25.
The biggest fact apparent in Austria's breaking up of house keeping is that there is no poignant regret among the common people. The sentiment generally found was expressed by a soldier the correspondent met among the rivers of men retreating from the Italian front. He said now the war is over and we are brothers, whether French, British or Americans, any kind of a brother is a good one. Along the line coming up from Trieste to Vienna, the correspondent talked with dozens of officers who were disappointed greatly because their defeat had been at the hands of the Italians, whose military qualities they had always scorned. "If anybody else had done it we would not mind," said one general, who said that the defeat might be attributed to three reasons: Hungary's withdrawal of support on troops, the war tiredness of Austrians and President Wilson's notes culminating in his refusal to treat with Emperor Charles. These reasons he said brought about the final smash with the soldiers refusing to fight when attacked by the Italians.

TO DISCUSS ARMISTICE NAVAL CONDITIONS.

ROME, Nov. 25.
An inter-Allied Naval Committee may meet soon in Rome to discuss the naval conditions of the armistice with Austria, according to a despatch from Corfu, to the Corriere D'Italia. The message, which states that the information is from reliable sources, says the discussion will not be with a view to changing the conditions, but to decide upon the best way to carry them out.

LITTLE WILLIE'S LONELY HOME.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 21.
Mosterland, a hamlet consisting of a score of small farmsteads and discussion's huts on the bleak, lonely island of Wieringen, which is situated some distance from the Dutch naval station at Helder, is the home assigned to the entertained former German Crown Prince. The local pastor's humble two storied residence has been leased furnished for six months, and here the former Crown Prince will live. The house, which is without the slightest attraction, is off the beaten track, and is hardly ever visited by strangers. The hamlet itself is inhabited for the most part by muses!

fishers, who, after their experiences with U-boats during the war, view the guest's advent with anything but favor. The sole communication between the island of Wieringen and the mainland is a small steamer which carries mail and makes two trips daily. A lonelier retreat could hardly be imagined. When the former Crown Prince arrived at the Zuydersee, a fishing town of Enkhuizen, to-day, he received a different welcome than he encountered elsewhere in Holland. He descended from the railway carriage with a swaggering gait and wearing a fur coat. Howls of execration arose from the thousands gathered outside the station gates. The outburst of hostility seemed to perturb him somewhat.

IN A HURRY.

BASEL, Nov. 25.
(Havas).—The Hungarian Government has requested the Allies to hold an immediate discussion of peace terms, according to reports reaching Swiss newspapers.

ALLIES IN BLACK SEA.

PARIS, Nov. 25.
The Bosphorus having been cleared of mines, Allied warships have entered the Black Sea and visited various ports from Varna, around the southern coast of Novorossysk.

MINERS DEMANDS.

BERLIN, Nov. 24.
Via Copenhagen (by the A.P.)—The Silesian coal miners are demanding a six hour work day and thirty marks as the daily wage and are threatening strikes which, under the existing transportation difficulties would menace Berlin's coal supply.
The only way to prevent the utter dislocation of Germany declared Otto Wolf in the Tagblatt, is for the Government to abandon its amateur politics and close the peace preliminaries.
This would be terribly costly, Herr Wolf says, but it is the only way to save the State.

FRENCH M. P. RELATES EXPERI-ENCE.

PARIS, Nov. 25.
Deputy Ingels, Socialist, was welcomed to the Chamber of Deputies today after being a prisoner of war for two years in Germany. The wildest enthusiasm marked his entrance to the Chamber. He related instances of his own experiences as a prisoner and also other Frenchmen who were also held prisoners by the Germans. "I have seen soldiers brutally kick women and children, and during the time I was condemned prisoner I heard the most abominable things from the guards where women and young girls, some of whom were less than fifteen years old, were imprisoned."

BIG LINER SAILS.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 25.
The Cunard line steamship Maure-tania sailed from Liverpool this morning bound for New York. The vessel carried a large number of passengers.

PROBABLY PARIS.

PARIS, Nov. 25.
(By the A.P.)—The conferences on the preliminaries of peace probably will be held in Paris instead of at Versailles, owing to the superior accommodations and conveniences in the capital. Only the formal sessions at the concluding stages will be held in Versailles. The only active sitting now going on are those of the Joint Armistice Committee which holds daily sessions at Spa, the former German headquarters. General von Winterfeldt is the German military representative at the Conference.

BRINGING HOME U. S. SHIPS.

PARIS, Nov. 24.
The American naval establishment in European ports and waters is being reduced rapidly since the armistice. It is intended to order home soon all small craft, destroyers and submarines used principally as convoys, except for a limited number for patrol and escort duty.

EX-EMPEROR FEARS BOLSHEVIK-ISM.

VIENNA, Nov. 24.
(By the A.P.)—Declaring that there is pressing need in Austria for assistance from the Allies and the United States, former Emperor Charles of Austria Hungary insisted to-day, that the danger of Bolshevism is very great in his country. It was in conversation with a correspondent of the Associated Press that the former sovereign told of the peril which was impending.

N. F. Excursion
Club.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—Would you kindly give the following space in your paper.
Now that an Armistice has been signed, and the end of the World War is sight, a number of Newfoundlanders, for many years residents of Boston, have got together and formed what is known as the "Newfoundland Excursion Club" for the purpose of visiting the land of their birth sometime during the summer months of 1919, or as soon as possible thereafter.

Owing to the difficulties met with in travelling during the last three or four years, many people who intended visiting Newfoundland had postponed their visit until such a time as peace had been declared, and all the annoyances of travelling during war time had been eliminated.
Therefore, it seemed to originators of the movement a most opportune time for the formation of such a Club for such a purpose.

Following are the names of the officers of the Club:
President: Mr. W. B. Somerville.
Treasurer: Mr. J. J. Condon.
Secretary: Mr. John P. Condon, 424 Ashmont St., Dorchester, Boston.
Trustees: Mr. M. Daly, Mr. E. Duff, Mr. A. Taylor.
Thanking you in advance for your courtesy in this matter, I remain, Yours very truly,
JOHN P. CONDON.

a rash broke out on my hands and the doctor told me it was eczema.
So writes Mrs. McDonald, of Oyster Ponds, N.S. She adds: "In spite of the doctor's treatment had no good, I turned to various so-called remedies, but I met with no relief.
"Knowing how terribly serious eczema is and how it will sometimes defy all treatment for years, I became almost discouraged. This was my state when I read about Zam-Buk and decided to give it a trial. By the time I had used one box the eczema was not so bad.
The inflammation and the irritation were subsiding. Naturally I persevered with Zam-Buk, and as the disease was finally driven out entirely. It seemed almost too good to be true and I feared the eczema might break out again, so I waited several months to make sure that I was permanently cured.
I am; and Zam-Buk deserves all the praise."

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—I beg to enclose herewith list of officers of the Newfoundland Society of Montreal, elected at the Eight Annual Meeting held on Tuesday, Nov. 19th, 1918, also copy of resolution passed at this meeting demanding that at the coming Peace Conference steps be taken by the Allies to bring before an International Court the German criminals who had perpetrated atrocities.
I would thank you to have this published in an early edition of your pa-

Society of Montreal, Held November 19, 1918.

"Moved by A. G. Howell, seconded by Capt. P. J. Jensen that a cable be sent to Rt. Hon. W. F. Lloyd, Premier of Newfoundland, now in London, asking that at the approaching Peace Conference he make request that steps be taken to see that the ex-Emperor of Germany and other heads of the Teutonic naval and military forces with others responsible for the atrocities committed on Newfoundland prisoners of war, be apprehended and brought for trial before such interna-

Girls! Have Wavy,
Thick, Glossy Hair
Free From Dandruff

Save your hair! Double its beauty in a few moments—try this!

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Dandarine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scrub robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fall out, loosen and die; then the hair falls
