

The Evening Mercury.

VOL. VI. NO. 150

GUELPH, ONT., CANADA, FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 31, 1873.

PRICE ONE PENNY

Business Cards.

O. LIVER & MACDONALD, Barristers and Attorneys-at-Law, Solicitors, Notaries Public, &c. Office, Corner of Wyndham and Quebec Streets, up stairs, Guelph, Ont.

D. B. BROCK, OFFICE AND RESIDENCE Directly opposite Chalmers' Church, QUEBEC STREET, d

FREDERICK BISCOE, Barrister and Attorney at Law, Solicitor in Chancery, Conveyancer, &c. Guelph. Office, corner of Wyndham and Quebec Streets. dw

STEPHEN BOULT, Architect, Contractor and Builder, Planning Mill, and every kind of Joiner's Work, prepared for the trade and the public. The Factory is on Quebec street, Guelph. dw

CARVER & MATHERLY, Contractors, Well Sinks and General Jobbers. Excavations of all kinds undertaken by the day or job. Residence, Liverpool St., near Ryan's ashery.

WILLIAM J. PATERSON, Official Assignee for the County of Wellington.

Office—Opposite Town Hall, Guelph. dw

THORP'S HOTEL, GUELPH, remodelled and newly furnished. Good accommodation for commercial travellers. Free omnibus to and from all trains. First-class Livery in connection. Proprietor, JAS. A. THORP. dw

IRON CASTINGS
Of all kinds, made to order at

CROWE'S IRON WORKS,
Norfolk Street, Guelph.

315d w JOHN CROWE, Proprietor.

NEW COAL YARD.
The undersigned having opened a Coal Yard in Guelph is prepared to furnish all kinds of

Hard and Soft Coal
At moderate prices. Orders left at the store of John A. Wood, Upper Wyndham Street, will be promptly attended to.
Guelph, Nov. 1, 1872. GEO MURTON, dy

F. STURDY,
House, Sign, & Ornamental Painter
GRAINER AND PAPER-HANGER.

Shop next to the Wellington Hotel, Wyndham Street, Guelph. dw

LEMON & PETERSON, Barristers and Attorneys at Law, Conveyancers and Notaries Public.

Office, over the Bank of Commerce, Guelph.

A. LEMON. H. W. PETERSON.
CHAS. LEMON. County Crown Attorney

GUTHRIE, WATT & CUTTEN,
Solicitors, Attorneys-at-Law,
Solicitors in Chancery.

GUELPH, ONTARIO.

GUTHRIE, WATT, & CUTTEN.
Guelph, March 1, 1871. dw

J. M. MARRIOTT, Veterinary Surgeon,
M. R. C. V. S., L. B. V. S. A. S.

Having lately arrived in Guelph from England, and taken up his residence here, intends continuing the practice of his profession. Orders left at the Wellington Hotel, or at H. Kirkland's, Painsley Street, opposite Howard's new foundry, will be promptly attended to.

Having had great experience in all diseases of Horses and Cattle, all cases placed under his treatment will receive the greatest attention. Charges moderate.

Guelph, Oct. 19, 1872. dw

PARKERS HOTEL,
—DIRECTLY—
OPPOSITE THE MARKET, GUELPH

First-class accommodation for travellers. Commodious stabling and an attentive hostler.

The best Liquors and Cigars at the bar. He has just fitted up a room in the basement which will be carried up at all hours in the favorite styles.

RAGS AND WASTE PAPER.

Wanted, and must be had by the 1st of January, Fifty Tons of Waste Paper, old Newspapers, old Pamphlets, or Waste Paper of any kind, for which the highest price in cash will be given. The paper to be of the quality of King and Queen Street. Address "RAGS OR WASTE PAPER," 215, at 215 King Street West. Will receive from 1 lb. to 10,000 lbs. D. MURPHY, dy
Hamilton Dec. 14, 1872

PRIZE DENTISTRY.
DR. ROBERT CAMPBELL
Licentiate of Dental Surgery. Established 1864. Office next door to the "Advertiser" Office, Wyndham St., Guelph.

Residence opposite Mr. Ford's Factory, 55-57 Street. Teeth extracted without pain. References, Drs. Clarke, Tuck, McGuire, Harrod, McGregor, and Cowan, Guelph; Drs. Buchanan and Phillips, Toronto. Drs. Elmer, & Meyers, Dentists Toronto. dw

W. M. FOSTER, L. D. S.,
SURGEON DENTIST, GUELPH.

Office over E. H. Harvey & Co's Drug Store, Corner of Wyndham and Quebec Streets, Guelph.

Uses Nitrogen Oxide (laughing gas) administered for the extraction of teeth without pain, which is perfectly safe and reliable.

References, Drs. Clarke, Tuck, McGuire, Harrod, McGregor, and Cowan, Guelph; Drs. Buchanan and Phillips, Toronto. Drs. Elmer, & Meyers, Dentists Toronto. dw

O'CONNOR'S BILLIARD HALL,
IN THE
QUEEN'S HOTEL, GUELPH, OPPOSITE THE MARKET.

Refitted in the latest fashion. Five latest style Phelan Tables. dw

NEW BUTCHER SHOP.

The public are respectfully informed that the undersigned has opened a Butchery, in Hatch's Block, and will supply customers with meat of the best quality, at the lowest rates. Meat delivered in any part of the Town.
CHAS. FENNELL.
Guelph, Dec. 20, 1872.

New Advertisements.

TWO GENTLEMEN WANTED—As Boarders in a private family. Apply at this office. 1201f

SERVANT WANTED—Wanted immediately, a Good Servant Girl. Protestant preferred. Apply at this office. 120-11f

LOST—A gold watch and chain, on Wednesday night, between the London Road, and Mr. Hefferman's house, Arthur St. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving it at this office. 120-13

SALESMAN WANTED—Wanted, a first-class Salesman. One accustomed to the Fancy Trade preferred. Apply personally to Geo. Jeffrey, Bradford Road, Guelph, Jan. 29, 1873. dtf

FOR SALE—Lot 71, on Wyndham Street, known as the Blacksmith Shop Lot. Clear title and immediately ready for occupation. Apply to Denis Coffey, Guelph, December 27th, 1872. dtf

NOTICE—All parties indebted to the undersigned by Note or Book Account are respectfully requested, to make settlement of the same before the 15th of February. Any remaining unsettled after that date will be handed into Court for collection. GEO. SLEEMAN. Guelph, Jan. 17, 1873. dw

PRESSED BALD HAY.

The undersigned has for sale a large quantity of Pressed Bald Hay at his Storehouse, Macdonell street. Will be delivered in any part of the town in quantities to suit customers. GEO. HEWER, Jr. Guelph, Jan. 31, 1873. dot

TENDERS will be received up to SATURDAY, the 15th FEBRUARY, for the Mason and Carpenter Work, including, &c. of a new Stone School House, in the Village of Rockwood. Plans and specifications can be seen at the Woolen Factory, Rockwood, on and after the 4th February. The Trustees reserve the right to let the work in one or separate contracts. The lowest tender not necessarily accepted. Tenders to be left with Thos. Harris, Size of building 31x72, with wing 31 x 12. THOS. HARRIS, RICHARD HARRIS, HUGH McDUGALL, Rockwood, Jan. 27, 1873. 92369 Trustees.

PLASTER, PLASTER.
JUST RECEIVED,
500 tons Paris and Caledonia Plaster.

Also, a large quantity of Land Salt, Water Lime, and Steel Grain, at the Montreal Warehouse, below the Railway Crossing, Guelph.
GEO. BALKWILL, Guelph, Jan. 29, 1873. dw

TAKE NOTICE.—The accounts of the late firm of WALKER & Co., of the Guelph "Advertiser" are placed in my hands for collection. All parties indebted to the same are requested to call and settle forthwith, and save costs. RICHARD AINLEY, Nelson Crescent.

AS the above notice has created some misunderstanding, I wish to add that the accounts due the late firm of Walker & Co. are for Job Printing and Advertising only, up to the 1st of July, 1872. All subscriptions due for the "Advertiser" are payable to me.
JOS. H. HACKING, Proprietor "Advertiser", Guelph, Jan. 29, 1873. dw

NOTICE.—A meeting of the Creditors of William Brownlow, will be held at the Law Office of the undersigned on TUESDAY, ELEVENTH FEBRUARY, at Two o'clock, p.m., for the purpose of instructing the Assignees as to the disposal of the property, and the winding up of the Estate.

Creditors who have not already done so are requested to send a statement of their claims to Messrs. Harman and Day on or before the date of the meeting. Those who fail to do so may be excluded from participation in the Assets.

Dated 20th January, 1873.
GUTHRIE, WATT & CUTTEN, Solicitors for the Assignees. 42e-w2

TOWN OF GUELPH.
Notice to Tavern Keepers.

Applications for Licenses for the present year must be left with the Town Clerk on or before the 1st day of February.

JOHN HARVEY, Town Clerk, Clerk's Office, Jan. 29, 1873. dtf

STORE AND DWELLING FOR SALE OR TO RENT. The subscriber offers for sale on reasonable terms, or will rent for a period, the store and dwelling at Bristol, formerly the site of the present occupied by Mr. Mackenzie, Postmaster there. The store is situated in a good locality, on the gravel road between Guelph and Erin. This is an excellent opening for a party with a limited capital, as a good business can be carried on, and arrangements may be made to continue the Post Office in connection with the store. For particulars apply to JAMES MASSIE, Guelph, Nov. 5th, 1872. dw

Mr. A. McLeod, V.S.

Bees to notice that all parties indebted to him must pay up before the 10th of February, as he leaves Guelph at that date.
JOHN SPATES, V.S., Guelph, Jan. 18, 1873. dw

VALUABLE BUSINESS PROPERTY FOR SALE.

When Tenders are invited for the purchase of that now valuable Block of Buildings on Douglas St., corner of St. George's Street, Guelph, lately erected by William Brownlow, and finished by his Assignees.

The buildings are well and substantially built, and are not only ready for occupation, but are in a most desirable situation, well suited for business purposes. A portion of the premises is now under lease, particulars of which will be given on application to the advertiser.

The lot is 67 feet front, running back 167 feet to the front.

A new title will be made, and immediate possession given.

Terms—All over $200 cash upon delivery of deed and possession, $5000 to remain on mortgage for a term of years at 8 per cent. interest.

Tenders to be sent in to John Harman, Esq., on or before Tuesday, 11th February, at noon.

For further particulars, apply to Messrs. John Harman, William Dry, or to the undersigned.

Dated 30th January, 1873.
GUTHRIE, WATT & CUTTEN, Vendor's Solicitors.

Guelph Academy.

Re-opens Thursday, Jan. 9th, 1873.
REFERENCES KINDLY PERMITTED
To Mrs. Jas. Webster, Dr. Col. Hall, Capt. Gordon, N. Higginbotham, M.P., John Horsman, Esq., John Mickle, Esq., H. J. Vincent, Esq., Thomas W. Saunders, Esq., P.M., Hugh Walker, Esq. 12-dim

Guelph Evening Mercury

FRIDAY EVENG, JAN. 31, 1873

Town and County News.

Mr. W. Johnston, of Goderich, has purchased the Drayton Enterprise. 'Twill need all his enterprise.

GREAT CLEARING SALE. Messrs. Hefferman Bro. announce today their great annual clearing sale, the nature of which, and the splendid bargains to be given, may be learned by carefully reading their advertisement.

COMPLIMENTARY SUPPER.—The members of the Speed Lodge of Instruction intend to entertain Mr. Wm. Anderson this evening at the Queen's Hotel, previous to his leaving Guelph for Toronto. Members of the craft cordially invited.

SOCIALS—and neck-tie ones at that—are all the vogue in Peel and Maryboro'. The marriageable girls say these entertainments are jolly, as they give them the long coveted opportunity of capturing some of the most obdurate.

THE LATE ACCIDENT AT ROCKWOOD.—Dr. Clarke informs us that Mr. Daniel Moore, who got his legs broken by the falling of a tree near Rockwood, is progressing as well as can be expected, and that he will recover without the necessity of having the limbs amputated.

TWO WEEKS LONGER.—Mr. George Jeffrey, of the Bradford House, announces in our columns today that he will continue his great clearing sale for two weeks longer. Splendid bargains will be given in all classes of goods, and remnants will be sold at almost any price.

GERMANS are proverbially early risers, and in some cases, it is well that they are. A little before daylight 'tother morning, Conrad Swartzentruber, Pusslin, heard a noise in his stable, and was just in the nick of time to prevent a couple of young men from giving their sweethearts a morning drive.

ACCIDENT IN GUELPH TOWNSHIP.—A young man named William Murphy, residing in Guelph Township, met with an accident on Tuesday last, at a threshing bee, on the farm of Mr. Edward Pasmore. It appears that he was cutting the bands of sheaves, and, unfortunately, stepped down from the stand for a moment, when his overcoat was caught in the spindle, and he was dragged underneath it in a moment. His leg was broken in three places, and he now lies at St. Joseph's Hospital here, receiving all the attention and medical care that this institution is so famous for.

THE HERMANS.—This popular troupe played the beautiful and thrilling drama, "Out of the Fire," last night, to a large and enthusiastic audience. Mr. Healy, as the poor mechanic and victim of false friends and dissipation, was well chosen, and his acting received several encores. Mrs. Herndon, the faithful wife, by her goodness of heart and kindness of manner toward her poor husband, had the effect of inducing him to take the pledge and become a man again. Mr. Ryder, as Richard Harding, the false friend and confidential clerk, acted his part splendidly, and received, with uncommon unanimity, the scathing lecture given him by the poor mechanic's wife. Little Nellie, as Alice, although but six years of age, acquitted herself admirably. Mr. Ward, as Tim Tooley, and Mrs. Miller as Nancy Nolan, the wild Irish girl, were the life and soul of the evening, and were warmly and repeatedly encored in their song and dance. Mrs. Miller is a rat fishwoman, and kept the house in roars of laughter during the evening, when Mr. Ward ably assisted her in doing that same. To-night the company will have the honor of presenting Mrs. Wood's sublime illustration of Woman's Trials, Sufferings and Repentance, entitled "East Lynne, or the Elopement." At the particular request of a number of the people of Guelph, the manager has consented to play this splendid drama to-night. Let all who wish to enjoy a real intellectual treat, and to pass an evening pleasantly and profitably, not fail to be present in good time.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular monthly meeting of the Association was held last evening. There was a large attendance, of which the ladies formed a part. After the meeting was opened, Mr. Wm. Strong was called upon to give an account of the meeting held in Ferguson on Tuesday last, to which a donation was sent. In doing so he stated that although it was a bitter cold night he thought all who went were well repaid for going; that all got good or perhaps had good; that his opinion was, that more visits of the same nature between neighboring Associations, would do great good in encouraging one another in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was greatly pleased to see the Association in such a praiseworthy condition, and if instigated only as a moral and literary institution it was a great benefit to those who took part in the meetings, but he was glad that the Association not only attended to the mental culture but also to the moral growth of the young men who came asking it, in the work which all are striving to accomplish. Mr. W.S. Jones also made a few remarks on the visit to Ferguson. Mr. Jones also gave a recitation. The Rev. Mr. Mackie, being present, was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he