THE WEATHER.

Toronto, Ont., can. 1-11 p.m.-The depression to the westward of the lake region last night has developed into an important storm, now central over Lake Michigan. High pressure in the Northwest has continued to develop, and is accompanied by very cold weather. Milder to re with local rains has prevalled in Ontario to-day, while in Quebec and the Maritime Provinces it has been fair and cold.

TORONTO, Jan 2-1 a.m.—The indications for the next 24 hours for the lower lakes region (covering the peninsula and as far east as Belleville) are: Gales, hifting to northwesterly; rain in morning Sliowed by weather turning decidedly older, with light local snows.

— Notwithstanding the dangerous condition of the ice yesterday at the Cove, a large number of skaters were attracted there. A calamity was narrowly averted when a group of 30 sank through the ice, no one being injured worse than receiving a very unwelcome ducking.

— The remains of the late Mrs. Fred Rowland were buried yesterday in Woodland Cemetery. The funeral, on account of Mr. Rowland's feeble condition, was private, being attended only by the relatives and a few intimate friends of the family. Among those present from a distance were Mrs. Mary Ure, of Chicago, Mr. Wm. Rowland, of Toronto; Mr. Edward Rowland, of St. Thomas; and Mr. H. Rowland, of Ingersoll. Rev. Canon Richardson, of Memorial Church, conducted the services at the house and at the grave, the pall-bearers being Mesars. Verschoyle Cronya, Frank Leonard, Samuel Soreaton, Thomas Smallman, James Fraser and Thomas Gubson.

Migpah's Concert.

Fred. Lawrason's phonograph was the chief contributor to the programme of the concert given last night by Mizpah Lodge, K. of P., in Duffield Block. Edison's invention in this line was rather a novelty and its performance proved thoroughly successful. The selections included songs choruses, music by the Marine Band of Washington, instrumental solos, etc., and all were heard with remarkable distinctness, though the hall is a large one. The concert, of which Dr. Jarvis was chairman was artistically excellent. Among those who assisted—were: Miss Pulland, Wm. Bryanton, Ed. Green, C. F. Warcup, J. E. Avann, Mr. Logan, Mr. Hargreaves, Harry Hogg, Mr. Hyde, Mr. Jackson and George Burrell. Messrs. Clinton, Kip, Liniman and Avann gave some very nice banjo quartets, and Harry Hogg sang comic songs and acted the simpleton quite naturally. The gem of the evening was a solo by Dr. Sippi, rendered with that gentleman's accustomed brilliancy of tone. The laughable farce, "A Doctor's Office," was produced as a finale by Messrs. Avann, Logan, Burrell, Hogg, Hyde and company, Atterwards a pleasant time was indulged in the rear hall.

London.

We commence from this date to clear out all woolen and winter goods. Let all remember that piles of the goods we will offer have been bought awfully cheap to clear. Our big lines of goods and thousands of dollars worth of our present stock has been bought at bankrupt prices. These two facts in relation to our goods should have weight with everybody, because we know no retail house in London will touch our prices, as goods can't be sold at half price unless they are bought at half price. We are always on the hunt for goods at half price, and strange as it may appear we can buy piles of goods at such prices, when we are prepared to clear big lots for cash, which we do. Let nobody forget that at Powell's we will clear out the following goods at desperate prices, viz:

Ladies' Mantles, Children's Jackets, Millinery and Millinery Goods, Black Henriettas, Celored Henriettas, all lines of Colored and Black Dress Goods, Colored Pongees and Silk Pongees for 25c.

Big lot of Ladies' Cashmere Hose bought from a Toronto wholesale house. Every pair will be sold at desperate prices. Big lot of Lade Curtains to be cleared out at bankrupt prices. In addition to the above we will offer piles and piles of desirable goods at half price. We ask you, if you don't want to buy yourselves, just come in and see our prices. We will save you a pile of money on what you want to buy.
