—A most interesting relic of the long ago has been in the hands of Mr. A. Tytler, grocer, for the last week or two. It is a copy of the Aberdeen Journal, published in Mr. Tytler's native city in 1780. The Journal, now a splendid daily paper, was then published once a week, and was a very insignificant sheet. It was mainly devoted to the chronicling of war news, for at that time Great Britain was at war with almost every nation in the old world and had not entirely settled up the war in America. The foreign news was in each case many weeks old, but what could be expected in an age when steamships and expected in an age when steamships ar electric telegraphs were unknown?

Young and Promising Life Saved by Paine's Celery Compound - Another Startling Proof of the Value of This Great Remedy-It Cures and Saves.

The grand work never ceases; wonders are being accomplished every day in all sections of this broad Dominion. Our people now recognize and appreciate the marvelous healing virtues of Paine's Colery Compound, and seem eager to make known the wonderful cures it effects. With the diseased, sick and afflicted, Paine's Celery Compound is a true talisman, a never-fail-Compound is a true talisman, a never-failing magical protector and renovator. Its fame has never been equaled in the annals of medicine, and no wonder it is that the medical profession look on with awe and astonishment. This grand, life-giving remedy boasts of its power to raise up and cure the people that some physicians pronounce incurable. It speaks words of cheer, comfort and hope to those who are far gone in disease, and honestly promises new life. Compound is a true talisman, a never-fail what other remedial power known to man can do the same work? Can any other agency known to medicine show such a record? We think not; the public well know that there is no other medicine that can work such wenderful results.

Paine's Celery Compound always pro-can work such wonderful results.

Paine's Celery Compound always produces the best character of approval and proof from amongst our own people; it does not require to deal with false or imaginary cures; it has an abundance of the most convincing letters and testimonials from Canada's own people, always fresh, crisp, strong and powerful in tone and feeling.

To-day we are enabled to give the public the testimony of a well-known young man of Clementsport, Annapolis county, Nova Scotia, Mr. William S. Roop. He suffered from a terribly dangerous, and often fatal, disease. He was treated by doctors, and consumed large quantities of medicines, but no cure came until the great modern remedy, Paine's Celery Compound, was used. Mr. Roop very recently wrote as follows:

"I would like to add my testimony to the effect of Paine's Celery Compound. For about four years I have suffered with neuralgia of the heart. Have taken lots of medicine from different doctors for it. Before I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound I could not sleep, was very nervous, had pains in my left side, shoulders and arm nearly all the time. It is gone now. I have used altogether about one dozen bottles. I send you my photo with this.

WILLIAM S. Roop. and can vouch for the truth of every statement made.

JAMES H. MERRITT, Clementsport, W. H. RICHAN, WILLIAM ROOP, Nova Scotia, afflicted with troubles which may prove fatal at any moment, should deduce this moral from the testimony given above: "Act promptly, by using Paine's Celery Compound when the first symptoms appear, and you will avoid suffering, anxiety and care."
