THE THE QUESTION

An Alderman's Instituation Meets Flat Contradiction.

At the council meeting Monday night disposition to criticise City Engineer Graydon because he objected to the tile of the Hamilton and Toronto Sewer Pipe Company, one of the aldermen remarking that the tile was all right, the whole trouble resting on the fact that the local contractors had it "in" for the the local contractors had it "in" for the the local contractors had it "in" for the local contractors had it in the loca ompany. This insinuation is, however, contradicted by the experience of other places, such as Hamilton. The Spectator of that city says: "There is still complaint as to the quality of the sewer pipe being delivred to the city. Today the secretary of the sewers committee told of pipe that was all out of shape being desend teams to the works of the company to get pipe, the company failing
