

WOODS' FAIR BIG NOVEMBER CHINA SALE

Beginning Wednesday, November 11, and Ending Saturday, November 28. A Chance to Buy China for Christmas at a Bargain.

Every lady in London should attend this big fifteen days' sale.

Every piece of china in our basement reduced, excepting stock patterns.

This is not an auction sale. You have a chance to see what you are buying. Our china stock is too large. We need the room. It will save you money if you buy now.

All goods marked in plain figures. You may see the regular price and then the sale price also on every piece.

Some articles will be marked as low as 25 per cent off, but everything in china marked down.

Make a deposit on a piece of china and we will keep it for you until December 1 and give you the advantage of sale prices.

Our stock never looked better. Our art room is a perfect dream of fine china.

Don't forget the date, November 11, the sale starts, and back to regular prices after November 28. Everybody come.

Security

Whatever amount of money one puts by in an investment—whether it is $10,000 or $100—the first consideration is the security of the investment.

If added to the security there is a profitable dividend, the investment becomes an ideal one—exactly the kind that the saving people of Ontario most desire.

The Debentures of this Company are such an investment, safe beyond question. Assets totalling over $10,000,000 are pledged to their redemption. Thus their security is absolutely safeguarded.
They pay 4 per cent. per annum.
Put your savings into this safe and profitable form of investment.

Pay as You Enter Street Cars May Be Tried by London Company

Toronto St. Ry. Company Are Now Experimenting With the Boxes.

The Toronto street railway are installing the "pay-as-you-enter" system on their cars, and it is expected that the cars will be so equipped if the present experiment is a success.

A dispatch from Toronto describes the Toronto system:
The new pay-as-you-enter fare boxes have arrived at the offices of the Toronto Railway Company, and R. J.
Fleming sees at last the end of all bargains on the part of those conductors who are so inclined.

The man after the fares hasn't a chance now to get them out once they are deposited in the slot.

The boxes will be suspended to the guide rail at the entrance to the car on the rear platform. They are of metal, and are about two feet high and ten inches square. At the top is a slot of intricate design, made of wired glass, which cannot be smashed in. There is a sliding or rather a dropping bottom to the slot, which empties into a box underneath. It is a curious box. It only can be taken out from the front and cannot be removed without emptying the slot above it. Then it has a mechanical lock, which cannot be opened while the box is out of its place.

The box is locked by a key before it is put into place. When in place it unlocks and opens itself, so that the fares can fall in, but if you try to remove it it locks up again.

The inventor, William Cox, is a lock-smith in the employ of the Toronto Railway Company, and next week he is going to explain how everything works to the general manager, who has promised to admit the press.

Canadians Object to American Flag Vaudevillian Warns Other Acts

Local Theatrical Managers Say
They Have Little Trouble
On This Score.

The use of American flags on the stages of Canadian theatres is creating considerable discussion in many cities, and in some instances steps have been taken to have the matter stopped.

In local playhouses there has been little trouble on this score.
"We do not allow the flaunting of American flags unnecessarily on the stage of our theatre," said Manager Driscoll, of Bennett's. "We know it is not in good taste, and we do not allow it. In some theatres it is allowed, but we have made it a practice not to permit it here. We will not offend our patrons in that way. We go a step further. Supposing we find an act that is weak, and is attempting to use the Canadian or British flag for the purpose of applause, we cut it out. We realize that the Canadian people will not respond to any such thing, and we save not only the house, but the act itself, the humiliation of being greeted with silence on such a manifest attempt to get applause for mediocrity by using the flag. We have few complaints on the American flag. It is never used except with the British flag above."

At the Grand.
"We have little trouble with that," said Manager McLeish, of the Grand.
"We strive to please our patrons, and we allow no unnecessary flaunting of the American flag. Of course, all our plays, or at least the majority of them, come from the American side, and must of necessity be of American flavor. The Canadian people appreciate that, and make allowances. We have little or no difficulty, and no complaints have reached us that the American actors abuse their rights in this matter."

New York Telegraph Speaks.
That the matter is creating some discussion in the United States among actors is borne out by the following extract from the New York Telegraph, a journal devoted to theatrical news:

The heavy duty on theatrical printing and scenery has long been standing evidence of Canadian antipathy to the American performer. And now comes an editorial writer to rail against waving a flag on which the duty has been paid.

Charles Leonard Fletcher writes, apropos of this, as follows:

Montreal, Oct. 26, 1908.

"Dear Mr. McKee,—Here's a bit of interesting news. It has come to pass that an American actor playing a Canadian city must cut out any reference to the Stars and Stripes if he wants to avoid offending the sensibilities of the Canucks—at least, the feeling exists here in Montreal, according to the following editorial I have clipped from the Montreal Star. Read it and give it publicity, thus putting the vau-devillians wise who are booked for Montreal:

"It is, indeed, extremely regrettable that theatrical organizations should have the taste to flaunt the Stars and Stripes before the Canadian theatregoer upon every possible occasion, and to the uninformed there is no apparent reason for their doing so, unless it be that the sporting instinct that moves a man to wave a flag in front of a bull is strong in them, and that the management of these attractions court trouble as an advertisement to their shows. And, in point of fact, there is not a single instance where the waving or bearing of that, or any other emblem, is necessary in either drama, melodrama or vaudeville, and there is no excuse for the ever-recuring introduction of the flag into the principal scenes of plays in theatres devoted to these forms of amusement."

"It is the mission of every vaudeville artist to adapt his material to the localities he appears in. If one persists in playing to the kind applause of an audience he must do so with an alert eye as to what they like and what they detest. It is evident that the HON. MR. AGNEW DEAD

Manitoba's Provincial Secretary Succumbs to Appendicitis.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 9.—Hon. J. H.
Agnew, provincial treasurer, who was operated upon for appendicitis on Monday morning last, died this morning.

The doctors in attendance upon Mr.
Agnew gave up all hope of his recovery early last week, but Mr. Agnew took a sudden change for the better, and for some days it was thought he would come around all right. A relapse came yesterday, however, and Mr. Agnew could not rally from it.

Mr. Agnew was 45 years old, having been born at Prince Albert, Ont., in 1862. He was first elected to the Manitoba Legislature in 1903, and was appointed provincial treasurer in the same year.

This is the second death in Premier Roblin's cabinet within twelve months, the Hon. S. W. McInnis having died under exactly similar circumstances at his home in Brandon last winter.

WILLIAM AIRTON DEAD.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 9.—Charles H.
Airtion, a noted electrical engineer and inventor, died here today. He was born in 1847.

"So be careful when you enter Canada, and if you must use a flag in your act be sure and bring along the Union Jack with you, and you will avoid being the subject of adverse criticism.
The audiences here are critical, but appreciate real merit. Don't offend them. Yours, Charles Leonard Pletcher."

Only a Common Cold, BUT IT BECOMES A SERIOUS MATTER IF NEGLECTED.

Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh or Consumption is the result. Get rid of it at once by taking Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

Obstinate coughs yield to its grateful soothing action, and in the racking, persistent cough, often present in Consumptive cases, it gives prompt and sure relief. In Asthma and Bronchitis it is a successful remedy, rendering breathing easy and natural, enabling the sufferer to enjoy refreshing sleep and often affecting a permanent cure.

Mrs. Henry Smallpiece, Brudenell, Ont., writes:—"I was always subject to a cough and could get nothing to relieve me until I saw an advertisement of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and thought I would try a bottle, and when I had taken a few doses I found I was getting relief, and when I had finished it I was cured. I procured a bottle for my baby, who had a cough, and a few doses cured him. I would advise anyone having a cough, to give Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup a trial, and I am sure they will never be without it."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup 25 cts. per bottle at all dealers. Put up in yellow wrapper, and three pine trees the trade mark. Refuse substitutes. There is only one Norway Pine Syrup and that one is
"Dr. Wood's."

A Surprised Minister

"For many years I have been a sufferer from bronchial catarrh, and had despaired of anything like a cure. Judging of my pleasant surprise, when I first used Hyomel, which brought complete relief. Hyomel has been a veritable Godsend."—Rev. Charles Hartley, Sardinia, Ohio.

Thousands of catarrh sufferers have given up in despair. They have tried stomach dosing, snuff, sprays, and douches without success, and now believe catarrh to be incurable.

But W. T. Strong, the druggist, holds out hope to all distressed. He sells a remedy called Hyomel which is guaranteed for catarrh, colds, coughs, bronchitis, asthma and croup.
Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel) is medicated air, full of the healthy virtues of the mountain pine. You breathe in the delightful antiseptic air, and as it passes over the inflamed and germ ridden membrane it allays the inflammation, kills the germs and drives out the disease.

A complete Hyomel outfit, including a hard rubber inhaler, costs but $1.00, and an extra bottle of Hyomel, if afterwards needed, costs but 50 cents.
See W. T. Strong about it today.
