SCOTCH WOMAN AT HEAD OF BETHESDA

Comes To City Directly From Penetang Hospital.

vation Army Hospital staff has been hat, and bought a small one. Since greatly changed within the last few indications seem to point to smaller fur reeks, with the result that several new collars, collars which are not volumin and interesting women have come to the city to carry on the greatly-increased work here. At their head is Miss Reekie, the superintendent, who comes directly from Penetang Hospi tal, and is a Scotch woman of great ability. Miss Reekie has had a wide experience in hospital work, having been engaged in staff work at Regina, Guelph, Toronto, New York and other places. Bethesda is the first Salvation places. Bethesda is the first Salvation Army Hospital with which she has been connected, and she considers it a very splendid institution. Miss Reekie came about the middle of August directly after Miss Marshall, the former super-

Others who are new to the work here, are Miss A. Hunt, the night sup-ervisor, who comes from Hamilton; Miss D. L. Dickinson, from Fort William, who is the day superintendent; Commandant M. L. Adams, who is in charge of the Salvation Army Home, and Miss G. H. Fisher of who is at the head of the office.
