Large Houses and Elaborate Meals Are Not Necessary.

By JULIA HOYT. The question of how soon it is permissible to extend an invitation to a new acquaintance depends entirely on whether or not you like the person enough to invite her or him to your house, and whether you feel that mer, Forward avenue. there is that certain spark of sympathy between you to warrant it. street is a guest with her sisters in Naturally, people who have very large Hamilton and Linden. houses, and who entertain in a very general manner do net, I imagine, pay particular attention to these ers, but if one entertains in a mail and consequently, rather intite manner, they are important. It is curious, that little spark of mpathy. There are people to whom you may say only two words and yet instinctively know that you ould like to invite them to your house, and that they would like to need of worrying about needless forwhether or not such light acquaintance permits an invitation. Go right ahead and invite them to tea, lunch or dinner. people hesitate to ask new acquaintances to a meal which is perce informal because they live in a Il way. They are foolish to feel There is nothing more charming informal entertaining, provided the hestess is not attempting to make formal, or is not attempting a form of entertainment beyond capacity of her household. No one ever needs to feel apologetic for hospitality simply and unostentatiously offered; it is only those who attempt an estentation which is false who have cause to be worried and who. may say, are usually shown up as The average person today looks forward with dread to formal enter-tainment, and is invariably delighted to go to a home of the simplest kind. The garnishings and style are quite mportant; the only important hings necessary to make people glad to be invited are a post or hostess daughter, Miss Mary Beattle are who have the faculty of making their visiting with Mr. and Mrs. G. Kenny, genial in atmosphere, and the knowlif others are there they will be people we will be glad to see n or be interested in meeting. opyright, 1925, in U. S. and Canada lorth American Newspaper Alliance.

PILLOW NOW PART OF HER COSTUME

Hostess Arranges Cushions To Tone In With Her Prettiest Frock.

BY AILEEN LAMONT.

of the season, which happen to be pillows. For pillows, sofa and otherwise, are being used not only to sit on, but, to set off and accentuate nearly every costume at present. No thoughtful hostess greets her guests these days without at least one nook.

Lake Rosseau, Muskoka.

Mrs. George Powell, of Hamilton, has returned home after a delightful ten days' visit with her cousin, Mrs. L. Charlton and Mrs. Charlton, at the rectory at Onondaga, and with Mr. A. B. Charlton and Mrs. Charlton, in Windsor.

Rev. A. W. George Powell, of Hamilton, has returned home after a delightful ten days' visit with her cousin, Mrs. L. Charlton and Mrs. Charlton, at the rectory at Onondaga, and with Mr. A. B. Charlton and Mrs. Charlton, in Windsor.

Rev. A. W. George Powell, of Hamilton, has returned from a visit with his sisters, Mrs. Gill in preston and Mrs. Clarkton and Mrs. Charlton, it is the rectory at Onondaga. The rectory at Onondaga, and with Wr. A. B. Charlton and Mrs. Charlton, in Windsor.

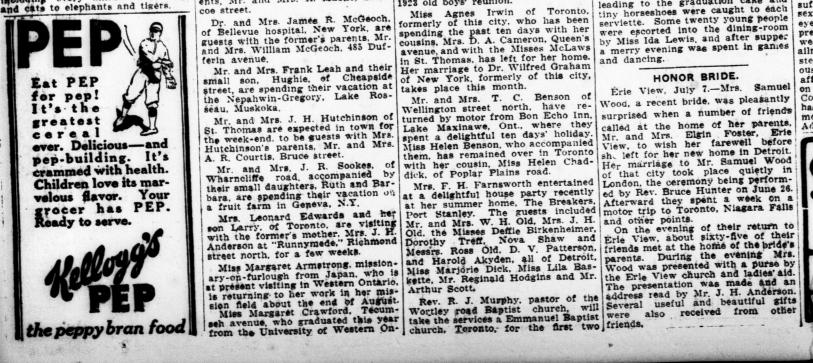

Rev. A. W. George Powell, of Hamilton, has returned from a visit with his sisters, Mrs. Gill in preston and Mrs. Clarkton and Mrs. Charlton, at the rectory at Onondaga, and with Wr. A. B. Charlton and Mrs. Charlton, it is the rectory at Onondaga. The rectory at Onondaga, and with Wr. A. B. Charlton and Mrs. Charlton, it is the rectory at Onondaga.

Rev. A. W. George Powell, of Hamilton, has returned from a visit with his sisters, Mrs. Gill in preston and Mrs. Charlton are leaving shortly to spend a month with their sons, Rev. H. K. L. Charlton and Mrs. Charlton, it is the rectory at Onondaga.

Rev. A. W. George Powell, of Hamilton, has returned from a visit with his sisters, Mrs. Gill in preston and Mrs. Charlton are leaving shortly to spend a month with their sons, Rev. H. K. L. Charlton and Mrs. Charlton are leaving shortly to spend a month with their sons, Rev. H. K. L. Charlton and Mrs. Charlton are leaving shortly to spend a month with their sons, Rev. H. K. L. Charlton are leaving shortly to spend a month with their sons, Rev. H. dalously guarded and supplied with belorful pillows, which will bring out and individualize the points of her matches had so far forgotten them-selves as to throw their cushions as some baseball crowds have been Bend.

cushion has become as prevalent at the summer sports as the ubiquitous coenskin coat and the yellow oilskins at the autumn football games. Cushtill affairs with daintily appliqued this result of the state of the and cats to elephants and tigers.

Social and Personal

Mrs. Beams, of Toronto, has been visiting with friends in the city. Miss Lillian Anderson, Cheapside street, is spending the week in Detroit.

Miss Callen of New York is a guest with the Misses Hardy, Dufferin

Mr. Arthur McGay of Detroit spens the week-end with Mr. Gordon Guy-

Miss Ethel Lewis of Erisbin

Mrs. Wilfrid W. Wing of Kitchener is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Routley, Waterloo street.

Mrs. Wilson and children of Ayr. are spending a few days with Mrs. Webster, Queen's avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Tem Nichol of Toronto are guests with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wigle, College avenue. Miss Jean Watt, of Wellington street, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. J. Watt. in Wallaceburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dalton of De troit are spending their vacation with relatives and friends in London.

Mrs. J. G. Boucher and her young daughters, Mary and Margaret, are visiting in Toronto for a few weeks. Miss Phyllis M. Cooper, of Oxford street, is spending her vacation with friends at Pinedale, Gull Lake, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Maine and their little son, Jack, are spending a couple of weeks at Wauketa Lodge,

Mrs. Bruce Taylor and her two daughters of Montreal are guests with the former's aunts, the Misses Hardy, Miss Mae Borden of Detroit recently spent a few days in the city, the guest of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Borden, Dorinda street. Miss Eunice Freeland and Miss M. Freeland are spending their vacation at the Nepahwin-Gregory, Lake Rosseau, Muskoka. Mrs. R. Beattle of Londesboro and Euclid avenue. Miss M. Fleming of North London s spending her vacation at Muskoka ssembly, the Canadian Chautauqua, Lake Rosseau. Mrs. May Copperfield of Les Angeles, Cal., has arrived in the city and is a guest with Mrs. C. H. Firth, Princess avenue. Miss Theda Guymer of Forward avenue, is leaving shortly for Crand Bend to spend a short time with her aunt, Mrs. Follick.

Miss Hilda M. Hooke of Burwell street is leaving shortly for Charlton, Kentucky, where she will spend a and Mrs. Richard Ivey at their sumtwo weeks' vacation.

Miss Ruth Adams of Woodstock is Bay. arriving in the city this week to be Waterloo street north.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, of 130 Horton street, have left for Kincardine, where they are spending the summer months at their cottage.

Miss Ida Cole, of the office staff of in business.

Miss Audrey Percy, Miss Marion Donaghy and Miss Audrey Hogg spent a delightful week-end as guests at the Clifton Cottage, Port Stanley.

knewn to do, the referee would have been buried under a multi-colored shewer of silk and feathers.

In fact, the custom of carrying a present time are Dr. and Mrs. David processors.

Mrs. H. B. White and her daughters down the St. Lawrence to Quebec, and from there will go up the Sauge-nay. On their return they will spend the remainder of the summer at their present time are Dr. and Mrs. David

Miss Hazel Currie of King street tario, is taking a special summer course at the University of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Farrow and small daughters, Helen and Jean, accompanied by John and Henry Farrow, all of Windsor, were recent guests with Mrs. F. MacBain, Moinnon Place.

Mrs. A. MacEdwards left last with the Misses Hardy, Dufferin avenue.

Miss Mary Hepburn, of Springbank drive, has left for New York city on a business trip.

Mrs. A. MacEdwards left last night for Manitowoc, Wis., to spend the balance of the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Tiegent. Returning to the city, Mrs. MacEdwards will visit in Milwaukee and Chicago.

Mr. J. Ferguson and Miss Helen Ferguson, of Waterloo street north, left last week for a month's visit in the west, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ferguson in Dummer, Sask,

Miss Ella Watts, nurse-in-train-ing at Victoria hospital, has re-turned to her duties after spending the past two weeks with her parents, Rev. G. T. Watts and Mrs. Watts, at the parsonage in Strathroy. Mrs. R. Macfie, Briscoe street, has left for Detroit, where her sister, Mrs. Hurley, will join her on a trip to the Pacific coast. While in the west they will visit their brother, Mr. John Mc-Intosh at Olympia, Washington. Mrs. W. H. Watson, of Princess venue, has as her guests Mrs. Mc Laren of Calgary, representative to the Presbyterial in Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. James Craig of Toronto, and Mrs. C. A. Murray, also of Toronto. Mrs. Harold F. Clarke has received word of the success of the following pupils in voice culture, trying recent examinations of the Toronto Con-servatory of Music, and all receiving Miss Margaret Liberty, Miss Margaret Alford and Miss Janet Son-Mrs. Bennie Ware of Indianapolis who is spending the summer at the home of her uncle, Mr. Neil Gray, St. James street, and with her sister, Mrs. E. H. Nugent, Erie entertained informally at bridge

Rev. A. Burgess, pastor of the Egerton street Baptist church, and Mrs. Burgess, will spend the month of August at Schomberg. They will also visit Toronto, Hamilton, Niagara Falls and Muskoka before returning to the city.

terloo street north, spent the weekend with them, where Mr. Zil Mc-

Mr. Lorne C. MacCallum of the Bank of Commerce, Windsor, Mrs. MacCallum and baby daughter are guests with Mr. MacCallum's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lawson of Woodholme left this morning for Muskoka, where they will spend the coming week. Before returning to London home at Magnetewan, Georgian guest with Miss Agnes McKay, dernedy, have returned to the Ula Kennedy, have returned to the control of her mother. Mrs. Timothy Eaton at Oakville, today, when Mrs. Burderloo street north.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Granam, nee Mrs. et al. of her mother. Mrs. Timothy Eaton at Oakville, today, when Mrs. Burderloo street north. honeymoon at the Nepahwin-den Gregory, Lake Rosseau, Muskoka tive. They will take up residence in Wat-ford, where Mr. Graham is engaged

Rev. T. J. Charlton, rector of St.

Craw will arrive in the city about mr. and mrs. J. r. Maine or Byron Kidd and daughter of Mount avenue and their daughter, Miss Helen Maine, have left for a trip and sons of Brantford.

Mrs. H. B. White and her daughters down the St. Lawrence to Quebec, and Mrs. Samuel Richmond the remainder of the summer at their cottage, Wauketa Lodge, Port Stan-

Nichol.

Miss Mabel Hynd of St. George as the ubiquitous of the yellow oilskins ootball games. Cushow, have been flower a daintily appliqued as predominating in S. The newer cushoa whole zoo, the list a whole zoo, the list a minual from dogs thants and tigers.

Nichol.

Miss Mabel Hynd of St. George St. George Street secretary to the dean, college Street Secretary to the

Dr. and Mrs. James R. McGeoch, of Bellevue hospital, New York, are guests with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McGeoch, 485 Dufferin avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leah and their small son, Hughie, of Cheapside street, are spending their vacation at the Nepahwin-Gregory, Lake Rosséau, Muskoka.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hutchinson of St. Thomas are expected in town for the week-end, to be guests with Mrs. Hutchinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Courtis, Bruce street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bellow of Wellington street north, have returned by motor from Bon Echo Inn, Lake Maxinawe, Ont., where they spent a delightful ten days' holiday. Miss Helen Benson, who accompanied them, has remained over in Toronto with her coursin Miss Helen Chad-has written an open letter to she disturbed Frau Olszewska during Vienna performance of Die Walkure causing the latter to retaliate in such a manner that she earned the name of the 'Spitting Diva."

MARIE JERITZA,

weeks in August. Mr. Murphy, Mrs. Murphy and family will then go on to Mr. Murphy's brother's home in Troy, New York, where they will spend the remainder of the month.

Mr. Reuben E. Short, of Beacons field avenue, was the host of a weekfield avenue, was the host of a weekend house party, the guests including Mr. and Mrs. C. Weigman, Miss Marion Partridge, Miss Dorothy Kean, Miss Freida Mayer, Mr. Harry Daniels, Mr. Edward Mayer, Mr.
Frank Mayer and Mr. Richard S.
De Coursey, all of Detroit.

Miss Vera Moseley-Williams, secretary of St. Andrew's United church, leaving shortly for the Elmwoo manse. Maxwell, whtre she will spend several weeks with Rev. F. W. K. Harris and Mrs. Harris, formerly of this city. Miss Moseley-Williams will go up the Ottawa river by boat ornwall, and is returning by way

Miss Louise Steel, of Boise, Idaho who spent almost a year with her aunt, Mrs. C. R. Eberhar, Dufferin avenue, has ourse at an Idaho university and is Mr. and Mrs. J. B. M. Ferguson and family, of Victoria street, are summering at their cottage at Grand Bend. Miss Agnes McKay, of Wa.

Rev. Angus A. Graham, Mrs. Gra-Bank of Commerce, Windsor, Mrs.
MacCallum and baby daughter are guests with Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Graham, Perry street. Mr. D. A. Graham, Perry street. Mr. D. A. Graham is the chief of the clan, and Mrs. A. D. MacCallum, Craig street, and his sister, Mrs. W. L. Denney, Central avenue, for a holiday.

Members of the Graham clan, are guests with Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Graham is the chief of the clan, and Mrs. A. D. MacCallum, Craig while Rev. Mr. Graham is in the city plans will be made for the 100th anniversary of this clan, to be held and sprang up the steps.

She gave him a faint smile and her eyes told him that she knew he came ham is the chief of the clan, and his sister, Mrs. W. L. Denney, Central avenue, for a holiday.

Denney, Central avenue, for a holiday. ham and their daughter Katherine, of Moose Jaw, Sask., distinguished in 1928.

Mrs. F. J. Greenaway, who attended the executive of the National I. O. D. E. in Toronto on Friday, spent the week-end with Mrs. Rhynas at Bur-Mrs. Greenaway will be lington. among the guests at the social gath-Mr. and Mrs. E. Graham, nee Miss den of Toronto at the country home

South London, entertained recently in honor of her daughter, Mrs. L. Stanley Coyle of New York. The house was prettily decorated with roses of different red shades. American Results in a large either house was pressed in a large either house was pressed in a large either house was pressed. Chariton are leaving shortly to spend a month with their sons, Rev. H. K. L. Charlton and Mrs. Charlton, at the rectory at Onondaga, and with Mr. A. B. Charlton and Mrs. Charlton, in Windsor.

Rev. A. W. Craw, B.A., and daughter, Miss Dorgthy Craw, of Woodbridge, are guests with the former's sister, Mrs. Uren, and Rev. H. J. Urén, at the Colborne street United parsonage. It is expected that Mrs. Craw will arrive in the city about the spending of the spending of the spending of the same flowers in a large silver bowl centered the table, the same flowers being used in silver corner vases, while flame-colored ribbon streamers stretched from corner to corner. The guests included Mrs. Harold Interval Mrs. William Gale, Mrs. Zoeller, Mrs. George Jones, Mrs. Herbert Black, Grave will arrive in the city about the former's part of the same flowers and such that the table, the same flowers being used in silver corner vases, while flame-colored ribbon streamers that the cremony the guests and down to a dainty dinner served by a few girl friends of the bride. On the bride's table a linen cloth was laid sent from Dunfermline, Scotland, Centered by the bride's cake, and decentered by the bride's cake, and decentered by the bride's cake, and decentered by the bride was a member.

After the ceremony the guests faw down to a dainty dinner served by a down to a dainty dinner served by a few girl friends of the bride was a member.

After the ceremony the guests included Mrs. Harold Jen-miss of Brantford, Mrs. Harold Jen-miss of Brantford, Mrs. F. Somer-will and Mrs. Harold Jen-miss of Brantford, Mrs. F. Somer-will and Mrs. H. Smith. ville and Mrs. H. Smith.

No guest fails to take the precaution to avoid the nest of down which will need thermonize with the celor sheeme of her own frock. Invite a sign for a fivire in a zippy open road-sign on a zippy open road-sign on a zippy open road-sign on the road sign for a fivire in a zippy open road-sign on the road sign for a fivire in a zippy open road-sign on the road sign for a fivire in a zippy open road-sign on the road sign for a fivire in a zippy open road-sign on the road sign for a fivire in a zippy open road-sign on the road-sign of the summer on the road-sign of the summer at the clay about the end of the month.

Among those who were soests at Maple Leaf cottage, Port Stanley.

Among those who were soests at Maple Leaf cottage, Port Stanley of the plant of the moth.

Among those who were soests at Maple Leaf cottage, Port Stanley, the holiday and week-end were: Mr. In the end of the month.

Among those who were soests at Maple Leaf cottage, Port Stanley, the holiday and week-end were: Mr. In the end of the month.

Among those who were soests at Maple Leaf cottage, Port Stanley, the holiday and week-end were: Mr. In the summer of the wellington at the clay watts, of the well and Mrs. Milss Milss Milss Milss Milss Mars Willson and Mrs. Malles of the form the clay watts, of the well in the end of the month.

Among those who were soests at Maple Leaf cottage, Port Stanley, the holiday and week-end were: Mr. Milss Milss Milss Milss Milss M

Adelaide street, were the host and hostess of a school graduation party recently, when they entertained in honor of their daughter, who is entering the collegiate in the autumn. Gay flowers and the Aberdeen school colors of black, yellow and red made effective and appropriate decora-tions, and the supper table was most tions, and the supper table was most attractively done with baskets of howers, over which hung a big horseshoe. A dainty kewpie in the centre of the table held rainbow streamers leading to the graduation cake and tiny horseshoes were caught to each serviette. Some twenty young people gare escorted into the dining-room were escorted into the dining-room by Miss Ida Lewis, and after supper a merry evening was spent in games and dancing.

HONOR BRIDE. Érie View, July 7.-Mrs. Samuel Wood, a recent bride, was pleasantly surprised when a number of friends

STARVED HEARTS

There was no fire on the hearth, but Barbara walked over to it and stood looking down at the empty grate. It was as though she sought to warm herself at a flame that had died-or

When Masters brought in the tea-

"Would you rather have a high-

He motioned toward the tea urn.

"Aren't you-imbibing-today?"

"A little."
There was silence for a minute

She made a little restless gesture.
"I think I shall be going away

"I think I shall be going away soon. Florida, perhaps, or Califor-ous! He was very near to loving at that moment. Worshipping her, renunciation.

He held out his hand and his eyes cart, she motioned Farley to a chair had never been kindled.

her slim, white hands.

that ball?" she asked colorlessly.

hands folded in her lap.

She shook her head.

'Tired?"

you tomorrow, maybe.

fill her small, oval face.

gently.

By MILDRED BARBOUR.

herself into a loveless marriage, opposed his brother's marriage ome twenty years before and now resents the guardianship of his beautiful orphaned niece.

DUANE FARLEY,, he has already

ANN ORDWAY, lifelong family friend befriends Madelon, and is approved

CHAPTER IX.

A Woman's Courage.

Barbara stood in the great Gothic doorway of the entrance hall looking down at Duane Farley, bare-

She looked very slight and frail, despite her enveloping furs, in contrast with the great iron-studded door behind her. Farley's ready imagination caught at the sugges-

"You're quite sure you won't come

Her voice was even, but her great

"I-that is-I have an early dinner pitied her with all his heart.

engagement at the club," stammered

And he admired her and respected her as no man could help doing in the face of such pathetic loveliness, such

So he temporized, made excuses

"I can give you tea." her voice tion of the lovely captive prin returning to the ogre's castle after a little space of freedom.

purple-black eyes implored headed on the steps below.

broken up, with the result Farley turns to Barbara whose boy-and-gir

London Women Tie With CONCERNING THE ACTION AND under the sombre--shaded lamps. THE CHARACTERS Hostesses in Closely Con-STEPHEN LANE, wealthy, middletested Match. aged, despotic, who rules with a BARBARA, his young wife, who sold affair with sympathy while

An interesting match was played at Stratford yesterday afternoon between the ladies' golf team of that city and the ladies' golf team of the Highland Golf club of this city. The match was very closely contested and London team included Mrs.

The London team included Mrs.
Archie Macpherson, who lost to Mrs.
Kopus; Miss Anne Ross, who lost to Mrs. Whitman; Mrs. J. Rogers, who lost to Miss MacHattie; Miss Pauline habited with Mrs. Fitzgerald, who halved with Mrs. Tom Brown; Mrs. W. E. Green, who Tom Brown; Mrs. W. E. Green, who lost to Mrs. Meakins; Miss Pope, who lost to Mrs. Rankin; Mrs. Enterson Nicholls, who lost to Miss Meakins; Mrs. George McLachlan, who halved with Mrs. Babb; Mrs. C. Windsor, who halved with Mrs. Gregory; Mrs. A. M. Jarvis, who halved with Mrs. Rutherford; Mrs. Nelson George, who won from Mrs. halved with Mrs. Rutherford; Mrs. Nelson George, who won from Mrs. Silcox: Mrs. Milton Jackson, who won from Miss Davidson; Mrs. A. Calder, who won from Mrs. Orr; Mrs. C. E. Morris, who won from Miss Clark; Mrs. Walter Shaver, who lost to Mrs. Martin; Mrs. J. Dewan, who won from Mrs. MacHattle; Mrs. C. Russell, who won from Mrs. Parker. Russell, who won from Mrs. Parker; Miss Amy Bartram, who lost to Mrs Simpson; Mrs. A. C. Hunt, who won from Miss Rempie, and Mrs. Glenny Wilson, who won from Mrs. Me-

Following the games the London team was entertained at dinner by the Stratford team at the clubhouse. On Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock the Highland women are making the draw for the two-ball foursonie, which will be played off later in the

WEDDINGS

ROE-DEWAR.

and he knew the dangers.

And deep in his heart, hidden by Stratford, July 7.—A quiet wedding was solemnized in the vestry of Knox church, when Miss Annie D. Dewar, love for Madelon which had never died. his laughing, tawny eyes, was his of Wellesley, became the bride of Mr. Stephen T. Roe, of Atwood. Rev. A. So he temporized, made excuses which he knew that she knew were cifully he hid the pity in his eyes.

"I see, he allowed the pity in his eyes.

"I see, he allowed the pity in his eyes.

"How proud she was! How courage." G. McLachlin officiated. only excuses G. McLachlin officiated.

After the ceremony the young couple motored to the bridegroom's farm in Elma, where they will be at home to their friends after the first Tan give you tea, her volume at that moment. Worshipping her, at that moment was some strange at that moment was some strange elusive quality about her that seemed to remove her from earthly passions.

Perhaps it was the dignity of her but there must be no further meet- Perhaps it was the dignity of her of August. but there must be no further meetings. It wouldn't be fair to her. Soon people would begin to talk about their innocent friendship, the heen a cad and a fool to let them both drift. "You tempt me too far, fair lady," the searcely more than a whisper, "Goodwar was united in marriage to Mr. James Roy Douglas Petrolia.

Thouglas Petrolia.

She gave him a faint smile and her to her. She gave him a faint smile and her to her. When he had gone, she stood where the difference in the control of the him the she knew here are the difference in the control of the him the she knew here are the first to her. The held out his hand and his eyes meet her friendship, the met hers frankly. "If you ever need me, a word will been a cad and a fool to let them both drift. "You tempt me too far, fair lady." She gave him a faint smile and her when the stood where the first to her. The held out his hand and his eyes met hers frankly. "If you ever need me, a word will been a cad and a fool to let them both drift. "You tempt me too far, fair lady." "Thank you." she said, her voice was united in marriage to Mr. James her friendship of two lonely hearts. He'd so were need me, a word will been a cad and a fool to let them both drift. "You tempt me too far, fair lady." "Thank you." she said, her voice was called him the she when the said and her will be the mean the her friendship. The held out his hand and his eyes met hers frankly.

The held out his hand and his eyes met her friendship, the held out his hand and his eyes met her friendship. The held out his hand and his eyes met her friendship. The held out his hand and his eyes met her friendship. The held out his hand and his eyes met her friendship. The held out his hand and his eyes met her friendship. The held out his hand and his her father, looked charming in a lovely gown of pink silk crepe, trimouvely gown of the government of the press a shudder. It seemed drearier than even the twilight warrantees. med with ecrulace and satin rosettes and carried a shower bouquet of than even the twilight warranted, and (Copyright, 1923, Metropolitan News-paper Service, New York.) gift, a pearl necklace with diamend clasp. The bridesmaid, Miss Evelyn Lecocq. wore a gown of peach silk crepe, and carried a bouquet and white carnations. was attended by the bride's youngest brother, Mr. Roy S. Hunter.

Joyce Kathan, dressed in white med with blue, and little Hazel Jean, dressed in white with pink trimmings, nieces of the bride, made sweet little flower girls, carrying a basket of cities, the bride travelling in a dress ready. A joint meeting of the mission hand was to have been held in July but has been postponed until a later but has been postponed unit a leason date. A paper was given on the leason by Mrs. McCallum. Readings were given by Miss Ethel Philips, Miss Bilyea and Charlle Philips. Bilyea and Charlle Philips. A duet was given by Miss Helen McCallum and Miss Helen Lawson. Other readings were given by Miss Mildred Thomas, Miss Elsie Millard and Ronald Campbell.

Premature Old Age of Women

It is no secret that so many women suffer from ailments peculiar to their sex. Dark circles appear under the sex. Dark circles appear under the eyes, a pale, drawn, haggard expression to the countenance, and the weakness which accompanies such ailments is evidenced by the lagging step, headache, backache and nervous conditions. Every woman who is afflicted in this way should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for half a century has been overcoming some of the has been overcoming some of the most stubborn ailments of women.

LONDON WOMEN ENJOY BOWLING

Enthusiastic Sports Women Enjoy Community Games at St. Mark's.

There is plenty of proof that London can boast many women sports-men as well as the men, but the golfers are not the only persons who enjoy exercise out-of-doors. are ladies' bowling clubs, and they and began to strip the gloves from are playing an important part in the community life of the city, with the St. Mark's club as an outstanding

For some years the community "Thanks, no," his voice attempted about St. Mark's Anglican church has cheerful lightness. "Tea, as you enjoyed social games, and the men as brew it, is nectar enough for me." well as the women have benefited by the community spirit the team work She made no answer, silently preinspires. So popular paring a cup which she handed. Then becoming that Dr. McGhie of Westshe leaned back in her chair, her minster hospital has instituted the game out there, and this afternoon the St. Mark's club has been invited to play a friendly game with the new team, which is, as yet, in its

She shook her head.
"What is it—Barbara?" he asked infancy.
The St. Mark's club is flourishing condition, and the new members are fast enterng their names apon the roll. All are very enthusiwhile he stirred his tea, miserably conscious that he should say something, and not daring. The atmosphere was too tense for reveiled kept greens in Pottersburg at the real sphere was too tenge for persifiage, and yet the silence was unbearable.

He swallowed his tea hastily and ose.
"I've got to be off if I'm going to keep my appointment," he said with has been extended to all surrounding an effort of ease. "Awfully good of you to give me the cheering cup. See greens to enter. Entries are to sent to Mrs. George Arms, Hale street. Barbara rose, too. Her pallor was It is expected that players will startling even in the subdued light and her purple-black eyes seemed to ford, Brantford, Woodstock, All Saints', this city: St. Matthew's, this gallant loyalty to a terrible bargain. He knew she was trying desperately Duane, because—I don't think I shall about 20 rinks. city, and Ailsa Craig. There will be

Meals at this time are being proto snatch a moment's happiness from youth and life, and he would have given it to her gladly; but he was wiser than she, despite his years, and he knew the dangers.

be seeing you again,"

He locked at her intently, so intently that she averted her own wided by the members of the ladies and of the Trinity (Hale Street) United church.

"Why?"

DELIA SLOAN, S. YARMOUTH, DIES IN HER 67TH YEAR

Avlmer, July 7 .- Delia Doan, wellknown resident of South Yarmouth, died on Monday afternoon, following an illness of one month. She was in her 67th year, and was born in Yar-mouth township, and had lived all her life there. She was a member of the Orwell United church. Deceased is survived by one brother, Peter Doan, at home, and ters, Mrs. S. P. M. Bancroft, Mapleton, and Mrs. George Covill, St. Thomas. The funeral will take place from her late residence on Wednesday at 2

The car that put the War in Warren

JIM WARREN bought a car-the "Ginger" bread Six."

Never heard of it before, but he happened to stumble into it, and during a lapse moment his foot slipped.

"Nifty boat," said the salesman.

"Not bad," said Jim, as paint and doo-dabs got in their hypnotic work.

"But why isn't it advertised?" asked Jim. "Don't need to advertise a job like that," was the forearmed reply. Sounded logical.

But-Six months later Jim had a collection of bolts and grease-cups and broken springs and disjointed steering mechanism and a motor that almost ran. "Never again!" said Jim. "The car that's little known and never advertised hasn't much responsibility; little to live up to. Before I buy another car-or another any= thing-I'm going to get the facts. I'm going to read the advertisements about automobiles -or whatever I'm buying."

'Advertisements are an invaluable guide to intelligent buying. Read them regularly