Mexico.

New Orleans, June 24-Advices from Queretaro to the 8th via Galveston, report that when Marquez was assured of the loyalty of Queretaro by Lopez he proceeded to open the documents left with him by Maximilian and found one on the abdication signed by Maximilian in favor of young Iturbider. Marquez thereupon proclaimed Iturbider Emperor of Mexico under the regency of the Empress Carlotta, and also arrested 30 of the most noble Liberals of the capital and held them as hostage for the safety of Maximilian and his companions. The last report from the City of Mexico say that Mendoza has commenced executing the hostages seized by him and some of them have already been shot.

New York, June 28-Advices from San Luis Potosi of the 11th inst. say Maximilian's trial began that day.

The Herald's special says the Emperor of Austria having been informed of the capture of his brother immediately instructed his Minister here to renew his request before made to this Government, and take other measures in behalf of Maximilian. An interview occurred, May 29, between Seward and the Austrian Minister, Count Wyndebook. Seward manifested a readiness to comply with the wishes of the Austrian Count, and resolved to entrust Minister Campbell with the mission. In the course of the following day the Russian, English and French Ministers received from their respective courts telegraphic instructions to apply to the Secretary of State requesting the United States Government to exert its good offices once more to save the life of Maximilian. These gentlemen executed the mission so confided to them with great zeal and ability, and received from Secretary Seward assurances that all should be done which was possible to secure the object desired.

DYSENTERY, CHOLERA, FEVER, AGUE, &C CHLORODYNE.

R. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE. Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated publicly in court that Dr J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been worn to. See the Times, July 13th, 1864.

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—The Right Hon Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physie-ians and JT Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service for Chol-era was Chlorodyne. See Lancer, Ecc. 31, 1864.

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—Extract from MEDICAL TIMES, Jan 12th, 1866— Is prescribed by scores of orthodox medical practioners. Of course it would not be thus singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place.

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne is the best and most certain remedy in Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Con-sumption, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, &c.

NO MORE COD LIVER O

GRIMAULT'S SYRUP OF IODIZED HORSH RADISH

The syrup is employed with the greatest success, in place of Cod Liver Oil, to which it is infinitely superior it cures diseases of the chest, scrofula, lymphatic disorders, green sickness, muscular atony and loss of appetite. It regenerates the constitution by purifying the blood, and is, in a word, the mort powerful deparative known. It never fatigues the stomach and bowls, and is administered with the greatest efficacy to young children subject to humors or obstruction of the gland. At last, it is very efficacious in the diseases of the skin.

No More Consumption.

DRS LERA'S PHOSPHATE OF IRON.

This new ferruginous medicine contains the elements of the blood and bones, and iron in a liquid state. It is different from all hitherto offered to the public, is liquid, colorless and tasteless. It speedily cures chlorosis, pains in the stomach, difficult digestion, dysmenorrhea and anemia. in the stomach, unificult digestion, a substitution anemia.

The majority of the Academies of Medicine of Paris recommend the Phosphate of Iron to lacies of delicate constitution suffering from anema, and other persons ia tigued from over anxiety, nervous emotions, over work, general debility and poorness of blood.

It is the only preparation which never causes constition and can be borne by the most delicate stomachs.

Nervous Headaches and Neuralgias,
