

THE CHANGE.

A brief announcement was made in Sunday morning's issue of the change that had taken place in the proprietorship of this journal. Our evening contemporary, the Times, in a complimentary reference to the new management, has fallen into the same error that many of our good friends of the Colonist have been guilty of—that of assuming that the change was merely nominal and of temporary convenience...

THE FINANCE MINISTERSHIP.

The Times is nothing but authentic. It told its readers on Saturday that a member of the house, in a complimentary reference to the new management, has fallen into the same error that many of our good friends of the Colonist have been guilty of—that of assuming that the change was merely nominal and of temporary convenience...

Fresh Fashion Notes.

High collars are again displayed, which show skirts of broad striped materials, to be worn under bodices and tunics of plain textures in monochrome.

THE MEMORIAL COLONIAL EXHIBITION.

After years of abeyance the scheme of an Imperial exhibition, to be held in London in 1930, has been revived. By making it a memorial to the British Empire, the promoters have given the people of the whole wide world an opportunity of contributing to its establishment. The promoters of the exhibition have adopted the most likely plan to secure a successful result.

A MYSTERIOUS RING.

Until August 11th this ring had been the subject of a long and carefully conducted investigation. It was a ring of men, and it was a ring of men who were engaged in a business of a very peculiar nature.

Johnson Street Bridge.

To the Editor:—The proposal of Mr. Johnson for the widening of Johnson Street will not meet with the approval of the ratepayers of Victoria on account of its proximity to the business district.
