

Weekly Colonist

FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 1887.

OUR MARINE INTERESTS.

We are glad to find that Mr. Turner has given notice that he will move, on Monday next, that a respectful address be presented to his honor the lieutenant-governor requesting that he will be pleased to represent to the Dominion government...

CIVIC LEGISLATION.

Twice have the council met on their regular Wednesday evening meetings since the meeting of the 17th inst. On the 17th inst. the council met on the 17th inst. and on the 24th inst. the council met on the 24th inst. and on the 31st inst. the council met on the 31st inst.

WHEAT CONSUMPTION IN GREAT BRITAIN.

England is the great wheat importing country of Europe. The following figures as to the consumption of wheat per capita will be of interest for the wheat farmer and wheat dealer in this country.

TO CARRY THE FLAG.

Many naval officers and shipping merchants have recently expressed themselves in favor of subsidizing a fleet of American built steamers.

Diago for a seahunting trip off the coast, she being the first vessel sent on such a trip from the coast since the late Mr. Diago. On her first trip, this pioneer hunter succeeded in capturing between 400 and 500 seals.

THE PORTLAND TRAGEDY.

A Maniac Attempts to Cut His Wife's Throat. He is Prevented by Being Knocked Senseless by a Blow from a Club-Taker His Own Man.

TERMINABLE FIRE.

A Buffalo Hotel Burned to the Ground—Serious Loss of Life—Shocking Details. The fire broke out at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 21st inst. at the Buffalo Hotel, situated on the corner of Washington street and the fire department promptly responded.

CONDEMNED DISPATCHES.

Mrs. Washburne, wife of Sir John Washburne, United States minister to France, died on the 18th inst. John W. Mackay denies that he is in any way connected with the Baltimore and Ohio telegraph case.

THE DEATH WOUND.

No one seemed to pay any attention to the wound which was inflicted on the face of the man who was killed by the bullet which struck him in the forehead.

MR. ELWANGER'S WOUNDS.

After being carried into the drug store, Mr. Elwanger's wounds were dressed by the doctor and he was taken to the hospital.

PERSONAL.

Julius Wagon and Supt. Reynolds arrived in Victoria on the 21st inst. T. C. Atkinson, police magistrate in New Westminster, is in town.

DANGER.

To the Editor.—I trust that you will allow me to say in your paper to call the attention of the public to the following facts, and one that is rapidly gaining importance.

OUR SEALERS.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

Particulars of the Portland tragedy, to which reference was made in yesterday's issue, have been published in such a manner as to lead to the belief that the tragedy was made in yesterday's issue.

The fire broke out at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 21st inst. at the Buffalo Hotel, situated on the corner of Washington street and the fire department promptly responded.

Mrs. Washburne, wife of Sir John Washburne, United States minister to France, died on the 18th inst. John W. Mackay denies that he is in any way connected with the Baltimore and Ohio telegraph case.

No one seemed to pay any attention to the wound which was inflicted on the face of the man who was killed by the bullet which struck him in the forehead.

After being carried into the drug store, Mr. Elwanger's wounds were dressed by the doctor and he was taken to the hospital.

Julius Wagon and Supt. Reynolds arrived in Victoria on the 21st inst. T. C. Atkinson, police magistrate in New Westminster, is in town.

DANGER.

To the Editor.—I trust that you will allow me to say in your paper to call the attention of the public to the following facts, and one that is rapidly gaining importance.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

Particulars of the Portland tragedy, to which reference was made in yesterday's issue, have been published in such a manner as to lead to the belief that the tragedy was made in yesterday's issue.

The fire broke out at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 21st inst. at the Buffalo Hotel, situated on the corner of Washington street and the fire department promptly responded.

Mrs. Washburne, wife of Sir John Washburne, United States minister to France, died on the 18th inst. John W. Mackay denies that he is in any way connected with the Baltimore and Ohio telegraph case.

No one seemed to pay any attention to the wound which was inflicted on the face of the man who was killed by the bullet which struck him in the forehead.

After being carried into the drug store, Mr. Elwanger's wounds were dressed by the doctor and he was taken to the hospital.

Julius Wagon and Supt. Reynolds arrived in Victoria on the 21st inst. T. C. Atkinson, police magistrate in New Westminster, is in town.

DANGER.

To the Editor.—I trust that you will allow me to say in your paper to call the attention of the public to the following facts, and one that is rapidly gaining importance.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

Particulars of the Portland tragedy, to which reference was made in yesterday's issue, have been published in such a manner as to lead to the belief that the tragedy was made in yesterday's issue.

The fire broke out at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 21st inst. at the Buffalo Hotel, situated on the corner of Washington street and the fire department promptly responded.

Mrs. Washburne, wife of Sir John Washburne, United States minister to France, died on the 18th inst. John W. Mackay denies that he is in any way connected with the Baltimore and Ohio telegraph case.

No one seemed to pay any attention to the wound which was inflicted on the face of the man who was killed by the bullet which struck him in the forehead.

After being carried into the drug store, Mr. Elwanger's wounds were dressed by the doctor and he was taken to the hospital.

Julius Wagon and Supt. Reynolds arrived in Victoria on the 21st inst. T. C. Atkinson, police magistrate in New Westminster, is in town.

DANGER.

To the Editor.—I trust that you will allow me to say in your paper to call the attention of the public to the following facts, and one that is rapidly gaining importance.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

Particulars of the Portland tragedy, to which reference was made in yesterday's issue, have been published in such a manner as to lead to the belief that the tragedy was made in yesterday's issue.

The fire broke out at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 21st inst. at the Buffalo Hotel, situated on the corner of Washington street and the fire department promptly responded.

Mrs. Washburne, wife of Sir John Washburne, United States minister to France, died on the 18th inst. John W. Mackay denies that he is in any way connected with the Baltimore and Ohio telegraph case.

No one seemed to pay any attention to the wound which was inflicted on the face of the man who was killed by the bullet which struck him in the forehead.

After being carried into the drug store, Mr. Elwanger's wounds were dressed by the doctor and he was taken to the hospital.

Julius Wagon and Supt. Reynolds arrived in Victoria on the 21st inst. T. C. Atkinson, police magistrate in New Westminster, is in town.

DANGER.

To the Editor.—I trust that you will allow me to say in your paper to call the attention of the public to the following facts, and one that is rapidly gaining importance.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

Particulars of the Portland tragedy, to which reference was made in yesterday's issue, have been published in such a manner as to lead to the belief that the tragedy was made in yesterday's issue.

The fire broke out at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 21st inst. at the Buffalo Hotel, situated on the corner of Washington street and the fire department promptly responded.

Mrs. Washburne, wife of Sir John Washburne, United States minister to France, died on the 18th inst. John W. Mackay denies that he is in any way connected with the Baltimore and Ohio telegraph case.

No one seemed to pay any attention to the wound which was inflicted on the face of the man who was killed by the bullet which struck him in the forehead.

After being carried into the drug store, Mr. Elwanger's wounds were dressed by the doctor and he was taken to the hospital.

Julius Wagon and Supt. Reynolds arrived in Victoria on the 21st inst. T. C. Atkinson, police magistrate in New Westminster, is in town.

DANGER.

To the Editor.—I trust that you will allow me to say in your paper to call the attention of the public to the following facts, and one that is rapidly gaining importance.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

Particulars of the Portland tragedy, to which reference was made in yesterday's issue, have been published in such a manner as to lead to the belief that the tragedy was made in yesterday's issue.

The fire broke out at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 21st inst. at the Buffalo Hotel, situated on the corner of Washington street and the fire department promptly responded.

Mrs. Washburne, wife of Sir John Washburne, United States minister to France, died on the 18th inst. John W. Mackay denies that he is in any way connected with the Baltimore and Ohio telegraph case.

No one seemed to pay any attention to the wound which was inflicted on the face of the man who was killed by the bullet which struck him in the forehead.

After being carried into the drug store, Mr. Elwanger's wounds were dressed by the doctor and he was taken to the hospital.

Julius Wagon and Supt. Reynolds arrived in Victoria on the 21st inst. T. C. Atkinson, police magistrate in New Westminster, is in town.

DANGER.

To the Editor.—I trust that you will allow me to say in your paper to call the attention of the public to the following facts, and one that is rapidly gaining importance.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

Particulars of the Portland tragedy, to which reference was made in yesterday's issue, have been published in such a manner as to lead to the belief that the tragedy was made in yesterday's issue.

The fire broke out at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 21st inst. at the Buffalo Hotel, situated on the corner of Washington street and the fire department promptly responded.

Mrs. Washburne, wife of Sir John Washburne, United States minister to France, died on the 18th inst. John W. Mackay denies that he is in any way connected with the Baltimore and Ohio telegraph case.

No one seemed to pay any attention to the wound which was inflicted on the face of the man who was killed by the bullet which struck him in the forehead.

After being carried into the drug store, Mr. Elwanger's wounds were dressed by the doctor and he was taken to the hospital.

Julius Wagon and Supt. Reynolds arrived in Victoria on the 21st inst. T. C. Atkinson, police magistrate in New Westminster, is in town.

DANGER.

To the Editor.—I trust that you will allow me to say in your paper to call the attention of the public to the following facts, and one that is rapidly gaining importance.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

An industry of comparatively recent date and one that is rapidly gaining importance and assuming large proportions on this coast, is the one of seal-hunting.

Published every Friday morning by W. H. Bell, at the Victoria Weekly Colonist Office, No. 111, Water Street, Victoria, B. C.

Subscription rates: Per Year, $10.00; Per Month, $1.00; Per Week, $0.25. Single Copies, $0.10.

Advertisements: Per Line, $0.10; Per Column, $1.00; Per Page, $5.00. Long term rates on application.

Local and Provincial: At Christ Church cathedral, on the morning of the 21st inst., the Rev. Mr. Taylor, of the Rev. Mr. ...

A Race For Blood: A large crowd was attracted to the hill yesterday afternoon for the five-mile race between Sully and ...

The News Letter: With last Saturday's S. F. News is the first of a series of articles by the beautiful homes of the bay ...

Miscellaneous: That it is reported that Senator Blake has gone to Ottawa to help ...

Advertisements: Per Line, $0.10; Per Column, $1.00; Per Page, $5.00. Long term rates on application.