HOME RULE.

Designation of the Proposed Irish Legislature 1 What's the Matter With Dister?"

T. W. Russell, Unionist, remarked that after the bill had passed, the Trish could call their legislature Parliament or any.

G. Lawson, Conservative M.P. for Thirsk created roars of laughter by pronouncing the Celtie word for "Commons," and any gesting its adoption as the designation of the Irish lower house.

The amendment was rejected by a vote of 482 to 34.

The chairman ruled that the motion was o-day to the commander of the Alliance, at ian Francisco, directing him to proceed at mos with his vessel to a point on the West coast. The Alliance will probably make as headquarters at San Juan del Sur. No rawe fears are entertained in official quarters that trouble will result from the possession of the Nicaragua canal by the savel-tionists.
