

Seattle Man Is Found Dead

George B. Cliff one of the Most Prominent Railroaders in the West.

Remains Discovered in Slough Believed His Canoe Upset.

Seattle, Aug. 18.—At the bottom of Sunk slough, about 300 yards from Lake Washington, the body of George B. Cliff was found yesterday morning. The body was found in the slough since the boat in which he had been seen, and finally the dead body.

There were no bruises on the corpse, but from his position it was evident that he had made it through the slough. The hands were clenched. The thumb of the right hand was clenched between the second and third fingers. When taken from the water blood flowed freely from his mouth and nose.

The body had been caught by a three-toothed grappling hook, which had been used by the searchers to drag the boat from the slough. At the time a half-dozen boats containing nearly 100 men were working at points in the slough up as far as Swamp creek.

Various theories are advanced concerning the way in which the superintendent met his fate. Some believe he capsized while rowing in the open slough. Others think that he struck a snag, and the canoe filled and went down. The theory that he was struck by a boom of logs which was near the mouth of the slough and which obstructed the channel. To have gained the lake Mr. Cliff had either to pole his boat around these logs or drag it over them. He was not a swimmer, and those who were in the search from the time he was reported missing believe that he fell into the slough while getting out of the boat as he encountered the logs.

Several holes had been torn in the bottom of the boat, and it is possible that the canoe was released from the logs, and that it shot to the surface. The body was found farther down the stream a short time later.

Howell street in this city with his father and 17-year-old daughter. His father, Cliff, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mabel Cliff, who is an accomplished pianist, is in Chicago with her mother left for the east a week ago last Wednesday. A brother of the dead man is connected with a South American commercial house.

Mr. Cliff was born in Galeburg, Ill., December 9, 1862. He spent the first twenty-five years of his life there. For four years he was connected with the Oregon Short Line at Pocatello, Idaho, and at Ogden, Utah. Thirteen years ago he came to Seattle, and has lived here ever since.

CZAREVITCH DISMANTLED.
Tsingtau, Aug. 16.—The Russian battleship Czarevitch and three torpedo boat destroyers, now in the hands of the local government for repairs here, have been dismantled.

SAY JAPANESE SANK.

Chefoo, Aug. 10.—A telegram just received from Tsingtau says that the officers of the Russian battleship, the Czarevitch, which was sunk in the night of August 10th.

U. S. GUNBOAT LAUNCHED.
New York, Aug. 18.—The United States gunboat Libagua was successfully launched today from the yard of the Gas Engine & Tower Company at Morris Heights.

CONTINUAL SKIRMISHING.
Liaoyang, Aug. 14.—Delayed in transmission.—The Japanese outposts from the village of Hungniaotzen have driven in the Russian outposts and are close up to Peshih, where there are continual picket skirmishes and firing across the Tsutse valley.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Ottawa, Aug. 18.—From the Canadian commercial agent to Sweden and Norway, the department of trade and commerce has just received a most valuable report from the crop prospects of the various countries the agent summarizes. After quoting reports from the various countries the agent summarizes that there will be a heavy demand from all over Europe for grain and foodstuffs and that Canada gets good crop this year a good price ought to be paid for the surplus.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier will probably open the Toronto exhibition August 22nd.

THE ROYAL CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Serious Shooting Accident at Mud Bay—Col. Whyte For Ottawa.

From Our Own Correspondent.
New Westminster, Aug. 15.—A serious shooting accident occurred at Mud Bay on Sunday, when the youngest son of Mr. Huntley, a farmer in that portion of the country, had the inside of his left thigh blown away and was seriously injured. Young Huntley was evidently clambering over a fence when he dropped his gun, a single-barreled shot, 10-bore and loaded with No. 9 shot. The trigger must have caught on something and the charge exploded, his left thigh being the large part left thigh and laying bare the large artery there, while the other portion of the charge entered the lower abdomen and the privates. The wounded man walked a mile to his home and Mr. Kendall, who is a local physician, and Mr. Kendall, assisted by Dr. Dray, performed an operation this morning. The patient is still in a critical condition.

The Reliance baseball team, of Vancouver, was defeated here on Saturday afternoon by the local team in a game where hard hitting was the feature. The score was 15 runs to 12. J. J. Holst, the Reliance pitcher, was in the box for the first time in his career. He pitched well, but in spite of this fact the Westerners pounded him out of the lot. The attendance at the game was small.

Lieut. Col. J. C. Whyte will leave on Tuesday to take charge of the British Columbia rifle team at the Ottawa meet. From this city there will also go Lieut. Cunningham, Lieut. Champlin and Capt. Hahm. Capt. M. J. Miller, whose presence on the team was promoted by Victoria, and who resigned from first place, will accompany the team.

Salmon Industry And Big Dredge

Hon. Mr. Prefontaine Hints at New Hatches and Other Things.

Mr. MacPherson Sees Visions of the Largest Dredge That Has Been.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Vancouver, Aug. 15.—Hon. Mr. Prefontaine was interviewed here today. He stated that he was aware that there was much excitement in the fishery industry. He stated that the fisheries would no doubt be built on the Fraser, as it would be necessary to measure to preserve the industry from extinction.

He intimatedly denied that any fisheries in Victoria. He stated that the fisheries had been shown in a regular legitimate way. He, however, stated that he had been driven to the deed because he could not get work and had little to eat. He is a man of indignant-looking man and does not look to have the sun in him to make a successful highwayman. He is being carefully watched to prevent his committing suicide.

When the charge was read to him, he said he was guilty, and he was asked if he was guilty or not. He said with a smile, "Why, I'm guilty." Asked if he had anything to say, he replied that he had nothing to say, and he was guilty. The magistrate asked him if he was responsible for the other hold-ups which had taken place, and the prisoner replied, "I guess you have enough against me now."

He was told that the extreme penalty was life for his offence. "Well," replied the prisoner, "if that is the case, all right. Whatever you give me I got to take it; that's all." He was then sentenced to ten years, walked into his cell. He will be 45 years of age, so all right and in about years when he gets out.

The history of the crime is as follows: About 1 o'clock Sunday morning along Thurlow street, and when about opposite to B. T. Tilt's residence a man with his hat over his eyes put two revolvers up his hands and told him to comply with the request and the highwayman pushed the revolver against his face and repeated, "If you don't turn up your hands, I'll shoot."

Mr. Brehaut put up his hands and the man behind the guns then told him to turn around. He did so. From where he stood Mr. Brehaut heard the man behind him, and judging his distance by that, he whirled around quickly and seized the man's arm. Both picked the hat and frayed his cheek.

Whereabouts of Ships a Mystery

Russian Authorities Have No Information of Position of Scattered Fleet.

Admiral Brezobrazoff Critically Ill and Alexieff Goes to Vladivostok.

Another Accounted for.

Tokio, Aug. 18.—Admiral Togo reports that the vessel of the type of the protected cruiser Pallada was torpedoed and sunk in the engagement of August 10.

police were telephoned for. Among the crowd was Mr. Boyle, who examined Brehaut's wound and found it was much deeper than it appeared. He then suggested that the man be taken to a hospital. The man was taken to a hospital and the police were telephoned for. Among the crowd was Mr. Boyle, who examined Brehaut's wound and found it was much deeper than it appeared. He then suggested that the man be taken to a hospital.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 15.—It is reported that Vice Admiral Alexieff has left Midden hurriedly for Vladivostok on receipt of the news that the illness of the Russian fleet. The Russian fleet has taken a serious turn and that the Admiral was not expected to recover.

The exact whereabouts of the Russian fleet is still a mystery. It is believed that the fleet is scattered and that the Russian authorities have no information of its position. The fleet is believed to be in the vicinity of the Japanese fleet, and that the Russian fleet is in a state of confusion.

Vice Admiral Togo's report of his own damage mentions only a few ships, which is believed to indicate that the others have not rejoined his fleet. It is more than probable that the Russian fleet is in a state of confusion and that the Russian authorities have no information of its position.

THE TRAPPING OF PIRATE CRUISERS

Brief Account of the Last Raid of the Unfortunate Skyrold.

Washington, Aug. 15.—The Japanese legation today received a despatch from the foreign office at Tokyo saying that Admiral Kamimura reports that at dawn on August 14th his squadron discovered the three vessels of the Vladivostok squadron off Ulan, southern coast of Korea, steaming northward. The Russian vessels, on sighting the Japanese squadron, attempted to escape northward, but were prevented, and fighting commenced at 8:25 A.M.

The history of the crime is as follows: About 1 o'clock Sunday morning along Thurlow street, and when about opposite to B. T. Tilt's residence a man with his hat over his eyes put two revolvers up his hands and told him to comply with the request and the highwayman pushed the revolver against his face and repeated, "If you don't turn up your hands, I'll shoot."

Mr. Brehaut put up his hands and the man behind the guns then told him to turn around. He did so. From where he stood Mr. Brehaut heard the man behind him, and judging his distance by that, he whirled around quickly and seized the man's arm. Both picked the hat and frayed his cheek.

Whereabouts of Ships a Mystery

Russian Authorities Have No Information of Position of Scattered Fleet.

Admiral Brezobrazoff Critically Ill and Alexieff Goes to Vladivostok.

Another Accounted for.

Tokio, Aug. 18.—Admiral Togo reports that the vessel of the type of the protected cruiser Pallada was torpedoed and sunk in the engagement of August 10.

police were telephoned for. Among the crowd was Mr. Boyle, who examined Brehaut's wound and found it was much deeper than it appeared. He then suggested that the man be taken to a hospital. The man was taken to a hospital and the police were telephoned for. Among the crowd was Mr. Boyle, who examined Brehaut's wound and found it was much deeper than it appeared. He then suggested that the man be taken to a hospital.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 15.—It is reported that Vice Admiral Alexieff has left Midden hurriedly for Vladivostok on receipt of the news that the illness of the Russian fleet. The Russian fleet has taken a serious turn and that the Admiral was not expected to recover.

The exact whereabouts of the Russian fleet is still a mystery. It is believed that the fleet is scattered and that the Russian authorities have no information of its position. The fleet is believed to be in the vicinity of the Japanese fleet, and that the Russian fleet is in a state of confusion.

Vice Admiral Togo's report of his own damage mentions only a few ships, which is believed to indicate that the others have not rejoined his fleet. It is more than probable that the Russian fleet is in a state of confusion and that the Russian authorities have no information of its position.

THE TRAPPING OF PIRATE CRUISERS

Brief Account of the Last Raid of the Unfortunate Skyrold.

Washington, Aug. 15.—The Japanese legation today received a despatch from the foreign office at Tokyo saying that Admiral Kamimura reports that at dawn on August 14th his squadron discovered the three vessels of the Vladivostok squadron off Ulan, southern coast of Korea, steaming northward. The Russian vessels, on sighting the Japanese squadron, attempted to escape northward, but were prevented, and fighting commenced at 8:25 A.M.

The history of the crime is as follows: About 1 o'clock Sunday morning along Thurlow street, and when about opposite to B. T. Tilt's residence a man with his hat over his eyes put two revolvers up his hands and told him to comply with the request and the highwayman pushed the revolver against his face and repeated, "If you don't turn up your hands, I'll shoot."

Mr. Brehaut put up his hands and the man behind the guns then told him to turn around. He did so. From where he stood Mr. Brehaut heard the man behind him, and judging his distance by that, he whirled around quickly and seized the man's arm. Both picked the hat and frayed his cheek.

Whereabouts of Ships a Mystery

Russian Authorities Have No Information of Position of Scattered Fleet.

Admiral Brezobrazoff Critically Ill and Alexieff Goes to Vladivostok.

Another Accounted for.

Tokio, Aug. 18.—Admiral Togo reports that the vessel of the type of the protected cruiser Pallada was torpedoed and sunk in the engagement of August 10.

police were telephoned for. Among the crowd was Mr. Boyle, who examined Brehaut's wound and found it was much deeper than it appeared. He then suggested that the man be taken to a hospital. The man was taken to a hospital and the police were telephoned for. Among the crowd was Mr. Boyle, who examined Brehaut's wound and found it was much deeper than it appeared. He then suggested that the man be taken to a hospital.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 15.—It is reported that Vice Admiral Alexieff has left Midden hurriedly for Vladivostok on receipt of the news that the illness of the Russian fleet. The Russian fleet has taken a serious turn and that the Admiral was not expected to recover.

The exact whereabouts of the Russian fleet is still a mystery. It is believed that the fleet is scattered and that the Russian authorities have no information of its position. The fleet is believed to be in the vicinity of the Japanese fleet, and that the Russian fleet is in a state of confusion.

Vice Admiral Togo's report of his own damage mentions only a few ships, which is believed to indicate that the others have not rejoined his fleet. It is more than probable that the Russian fleet is in a state of confusion and that the Russian authorities have no information of its position.

THE TRAPPING OF PIRATE CRUISERS

Brief Account of the Last Raid of the Unfortunate Skyrold.

Washington, Aug. 15.—The Japanese legation today received a despatch from the foreign office at Tokyo saying that Admiral Kamimura reports that at dawn on August 14th his squadron discovered the three vessels of the Vladivostok squadron off Ulan, southern coast of Korea, steaming northward. The Russian vessels, on sighting the Japanese squadron, attempted to escape northward, but were prevented, and fighting commenced at 8:25 A.M.

The history of the crime is as follows: About 1 o'clock Sunday morning along Thurlow street, and when about opposite to B. T. Tilt's residence a man with his hat over his eyes put two revolvers up his hands and told him to comply with the request and the highwayman pushed the revolver against his face and repeated, "If you don't turn up your hands, I'll shoot."

Mr. Brehaut put up his hands and the man behind the guns then told him to turn around. He did so. From where he stood Mr. Brehaut heard the man behind him, and judging his distance by that, he whirled around quickly and seized the man's arm. Both picked the hat and frayed his cheek.

Chicago's Mayor To Take a Hand

Will Attempt to Settle Differences Between Strikers and Packers.

To Hold Conferences With Representatives of Both Sides Today.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Mayor Harrison will attempt tomorrow to settle the differences between the strikers and packers. He will meet tomorrow at one o'clock the representatives of the strikers and hear their side of the controversy. Later in the day he will have a meeting with representatives of the packers and listen to their statement. He will then undertake the task of reconciling the differences. There were a number of conferences during the day.

It is asserted that the alleged secret meeting between the packers and the strikers was arranged for by W. E. Skinner, assistant general manager of the Union Stock Yards and Transit Company. Skinner is said to have written a letter to the packers, suggesting that they should meet with the strikers and settle their differences. The packers are said to have agreed to this suggestion.

The numerous assaults that have taken place every day and night in the neighborhood of the stockyards has stirred the police to more energy than they have taken heretofore. Inspector Hunt today ordered that all men picket the yards should be arrested if they move on and should be arrested if they declined to do so.

William Madden, 22 years old, has been shot and killed in a labor quarrel with George L. Southem, conductor on a street railway. The two men were in a quarrel, and Madden was shot and killed. The police are investigating the case.

SCOTCH SABBATH OBSERVANCE.
Sir Archibald Geddie's examples of the rigid Sabbatarianism of the Highlands are interesting. One is of a lady who rose down on Sunday and carried her canny into the city to be seen by the first man she met. Another is of a young clergyman who was seen standing at his window on the Lord's Day "dandling his hair."

The first of these pictures, "The Old Man and the Sea," is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea.

The first of these pictures, "The Old Man and the Sea," is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea.

The first of these pictures, "The Old Man and the Sea," is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea.

The first of these pictures, "The Old Man and the Sea," is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea.

The first of these pictures, "The Old Man and the Sea," is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea.

The first of these pictures, "The Old Man and the Sea," is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea.

The first of these pictures, "The Old Man and the Sea," is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea.

The first of these pictures, "The Old Man and the Sea," is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea.

The first of these pictures, "The Old Man and the Sea," is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea.

The first of these pictures, "The Old Man and the Sea," is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea. The picture is a picture of a man who is old and who is struggling with the sea.

The

The

The

The

The

The

The

The

The

The

The

The

The

The

The

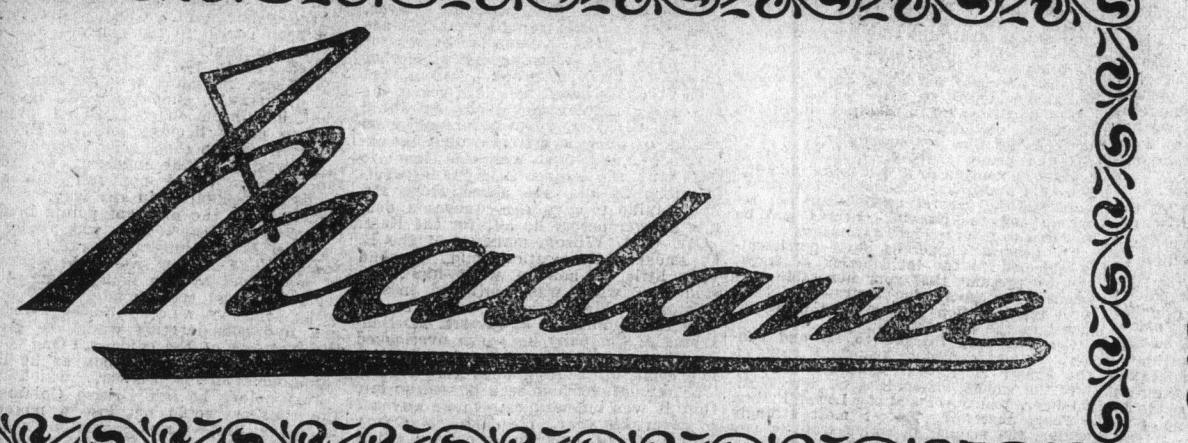

The

The

The

FREE OFFER

TO READERS OF THE COLONIST

One Year's Subscription Free of Cost to all and any readers of our paper who signs and sends in the coupon below at once.

MADAME brings a monthly message of culture to your home and contains all that is best in literature and art. It is endorsed by OVER THREE MILLION OF THE MOST CULTURED WOMEN OF AMERICA, being adopted by the National Council of Women of America, as their official organ.

With the August month starts a beautiful series of color covers by Howard Chandler Christy
The Greatest American Living Illustrator,
Entitled: "A CHRISTY COURTSHIP."

This first series consists of four beautiful color pictures.

No. 1. The First Meeting

No. 3. The Tiff

No. 2. In Love

No. 4. Mated

Let us send you a free sample copy so that you can see exactly what a beautiful magazine this is, or sign and return the following coupon and we will mail you the magazine for one year.

Sign and Send This Coupon TODAY

Daily Delivery.....$10.20
By Mail.....$5.00
Semi-Weekly.....$1.00

To The Colonist Printing & Publishing Co.,
Victoria, B. C.

Gentlemen: I agree to subscribe to the (DAILY SEMI-WEEKLY) Colonist for 12 months at the regular rates on condition that you send me Madame, post paid, every month for one year. Enclosed is $.....

Name..... P. O.

Address.....

Cash Must Accompany This Coupon.

Double Runner, a Pagan of the