GEN. STEWART'S SUCCESS NOT SO PRONOUNCED AS REPORTED.

Great Anxiety for the Safety of the Expedition-wolseley Hurt by a Fail from a Camel. London, Jan. 23.—The war office has received no news concerning Stewart's ad-vance since the account of Saturday's bat tle. The absence of news causes consider able anxiety. The heads of the war depart ment met at noon to consider the situation. It is asserted Wolseley fell from a camel some time ago and was injured so badly that he had to remain at Korti. The Times, Telegraph and Standard have not yet received their reports of the battle at Abu Klea, although they had special correspondents in the field. This increased the anxiety concerning the fate of Stewart. It is believed the battle at the wells was more severe than the govern-ment is willing to admit. There is an im-pression that the efficial reports were colored at the war office, and that special despatches were intercepted by the cen-sors because they contained information which would throw an objectionable light on the affair. on the affair

Surrounded in the Desert. LONDON, Jan. 23.-Advices received late this afternoon from Korti assert that the rebels have surrounded Gen. Stewart in the desert, where he has taken up an entrenched position to await reinforcements from Wolseley. Deserters from the rebel lines state that the mahdi's officers consider the affair at Abu Klea wells a drawn sider the analy at Aou Ales were neither battle. The Arabs were neither routed nor pursued, and fell back in an orderly manner and were not in the least demoralized by the outso quickly and effectively that Stewart dared not move and was compelled to entrench himself on the scene of conflict.
