LEAD PIPE THIEF SENTENCED.

He Conducts His Own Case, and As a Result Is Convicted.

"Give me a chance to go to Kingston to learn a trade," was the request made by Edward Hamilton, alias Doyle, to Justice Street at the Assizes yesterday when His Lordship pronounced a sentence of 23 months in the Central Prison. Hamilton was placed upon trial on a charge of stealing a quantity of lead pipe from the house of Joseph Flavelle, 428 Sherbourne-street, in March last.

The prisoner declined the services of counsel and took his defence in his own hands, conducting it with a degree of intelligence above the average in the criminal classes.

box the prisoner rose in the dock and asked, "Is it permissible, Your Lordship, for a grand juryman to sit as prosecutor in a case when his own interests are con-

Mr. Flavelle explained that he had withdrawn from the grand jury while the case was up, and the objection fell flat. Hamilton also cross-examined the witnesses and made a short address to the jury. In the witness box he told of being given the lead by a friend named Thomas Walters, but admitted having served a term in jail at Windsor and a term in the Central Prison. The evidence was conclusive as to guilt.

His plea for Kingston in preference to the Central was not granted.

Action to Recover $27,000 Insurance. New York, May 8.—In the United States Circuit Court to-day Judge Lacombe granted a motion for a new trial in the action of the Thames and Mersey Marine Insurance Company of Liverpool, against the Continental Insurance Company, to recover $27,000 insurance on the cargo of the propellor H. C. Akeley, which was damaged on Nov. 15, 1883, on a voyage from Chicago to Buffalo. The report of the referee was set aside. Action to Recover $27,000 Insurance.

room, Leslieville. Many articles both useful and ornamental were on the table, and a good trade was driven by the youngsters. Rev. J. Usborne undertook the management of the sale.

The concert gotten up by the Y.W.G. of St. Matthew's will take place to-night in the schoolroom in De Grassi-street, Brotherhood met last evening in the church room in First-avenue.

Syracuse, N.Y., May 8.—Justice Wright this morning sentenced Charles F. Wilson to be elecotrocuted during the week of June 17, for the murder of Detective James Harvey.

Charged With Robbery.

Morris Scanlon, 162 Bathurst-street, walked into Police Headquarters last evening, and complained that while in a restaurant at 1561-2 York-street he had been robbed of 10. A warrant was sworn out for Billy Bittle and Robert Cairns, habitues of the place, and they were arrested by detectives Davis and McGrath on a charge of stealing the money.

There is danger in neglecting a cold. Many who have died of consumption dated their troubles from exposure, followed by a cold which settled on their lungs, and in a short time they were beyond the skill of the best physician. Had they used Blickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been spared. This medicine has no equal for curing coughs, colds and all affections of the throat and lungs.

Gone Down With 16 Men. Gloucester, Mass., May 8.—The schooner Mildred V. Lee was given up by her owners to-day. She sailed from this port on a halibut trip January 30. The vessel was commanded by Capt. William T. Lee, and manned by a crew of 16 men. This makes a total of 79 fishermen lost from this port since Nov. 1, 1894.
