IT will soon be time to settle definitely what form Watford's memorial to her war heroes is to take. The fund for that purpose is gradually increasing and will soon assume a substantial amount. The proposition that the memorial take the form of an imposing and substantial gate to the cemetery seems to meet with much favor. On the posts of the gate could be placed a tablet for each man who gave his life for the good of all.

A LARGE number of veterans of the Army and Navy in No. 1 Military District have sent in a protest to District Headquarters against the indiscriminate wearing of the King's uniform in public, also against the wearing of symbols of service, wounded stripes, etc., by those not entitled to wear them. Recently young boys, young girls and women have been wearing service badges, ribbons, etc., without realizing what these articles represent. The veterans say that the indiscriminate wearing of these badges of service tends to belittle the individual who alone may be allowed to wear them, and adversely reflects on the legitimate veteran. They ask that the attention of the public be called to this matter and their co-operation requested that the King's uniform be worn only by those who have authority to wear it and only; on suitable occasions, and secondly, that the wearing of services quarters against the indiscriminate wear and only on suitable occasions, and secondly, that the wearing of service badges, medal ribbons, wounded stripes, etc., by those who have not seen service, cease

At the probe into shoe prices at Toronto last week Colonel Price said that women are largely responsible for the women are largely responsible for the high prices they pay for their shoes—that they wont buy unless the price is ridiculously high. He also testified that one can get shoes at any price but a cheaper article does not appeal to the fair sex. If this is so, ladtes, do you not think it is high time to drop that rivalry that makes you pay more than you should and which benefits only the manufacturer and jobber and highest the pockets. turer and jobber and hurts the pockets of all buyers. Imagine a shoe jobber making $190,000 in one year chiefly bemaking $190,000 in one year thirty cause ladies like to boast of the high review they pay for their footwear. So cause latter like to boast of the high prices they pay for their footwear. So long as buyers are content to pay the big figure there will be no reduction. Why should there be? Manufacturers and jobbers naturally want to make all the money they can and shoe prices will not be lowered so long as buyers are willing to pay the fancy price. The dealer is to pay the fancy price. The dealer is not responsible for the high prices. Let him understand that you protest against the big price and ultimately those higher up will see that they must be content with a smaller profit.

The farmer who owns a farm is the particular person who is fixed. Banks may fail and factories close, workmen strike and mines suspend, merchants fail and towns burn, times may be particky and even crops may be short—but the farmer who owns his acres will get along. He will live in comfort and quiet with plenty to eat, drink and wear. He is the most independent man on earth. Yet there are lots of them who do not appreciate their situation. appreciate their situation.
