LOCAL DEATH ROLL

WM. R. PRINCE

Many will regret to learn of the death of William R. Prince who died at his home at Lawrencetown, on Thursday evening, February 28th, of pneumonia.

Ten years ago he suffered an attack of paralysis, which removed him from active life. His cheerful disposition enabled him to keep a smiling face and during all these years no one heard him speak a word of complaint or discontent with his lot. His kindness and consideration for others followed him to the end.

During his earlier life of great activity he was never too busy to lend a helping hand or speak a cheering word to one and all. Will Prince, as he was so well known, was highly respected and loved by all.

He is survived by his wife; Wilfred, of the United Fruit Co., Kentville; Ben and Eileen, of Mt. Allison, and Gordon at home; also two sisters and a brother: Mrs. Mary Wheelock, of Lawrencetown; Mrs. J. O. Marshall, of Gloucester, and C. A. Prince, of Lynn.

The floral gifts, at the largely attended funeral, were as follows:—Wreath, wife and children; Pillow, sisters May and Aggie; Sheaf of Wheat and Flowers, Charlie and Jennie; Wreath, Frank and Cora; Greenest, Dr. and Etta; Spray, Ted and Frank; Spray, Eleanor and Archie; Pillow, Citizens of Lawrencetown; Star, "The Girls"; Wreath, Methodist Auxiliary; Crescent, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Hall; Spray, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bent; Crescent, Mrs. and Miss Patterson; Cut Flowers, Mrs. D. Morse Balcom; Cut Flowers, Grace and Dot.

MRS. PHINEAS PHINNEY

Mrs. Phineas Phinney died very suddenly Tuesday evening, February 21st, at her home in Upper Granville, aged sixty-one years. She was a member of the Baptist Church and a regular attendant, always ready to help along the same. The deceased leaves to mourn their loss a devoted husband, three sons in the United States; one daughter, Mrs. M. A. Condon, in Kentville, and another daughter residing at home. She is also survived by two brothers, Wm. Poole, of Marlboro, Mass., and Watson Poole, of California. The funeral took place from her late home Friday, the services being conducted by Rev. C. W. Robbins, pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. J. H. Freestone, pastor of the Bridgetown-Gordon-Providence United Church. Interment was in Riverside cemetery, the pall bearers being three sons, two son-in-laws, and a cousin of the deceased. The floral offerings were beautiful.

MRS. MARY E. LONGLEY

Mrs. Mary E. Longley, widow of the late Deacon Wm. Longley, died at West Paradise, February 17th, aged eighty-eight years and eight months. She was a member of a large family of whom only one brother remains, Dr. N. P. Balcom, of Aylesford. She is survived by one son, Norman, of West Paradise, two daughters, Mrs. G. I. Balcom, of Lynn, Mass., and Mrs. E. M. Parker, of West Paradise, with whom she lived. She united with the Wilmot Baptist Church over seventy years ago and has adorned her profession with Christian graces. A large circle of friends attended the funeral on Sunday afternoon, the 19th, at her late home, Pastor W. S. Smith, of the Paradise and Clarence Baptist Churches spoke words of counsel and encouragement to the relatives and friends assembled.

MRS. EDWARD CALLAHAN

Middleton, Feb. 21—Mrs. Callahan took ill Tuesday, developed pneumonia, and passed away Saturday, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Howley. For several years Mrs. Callahan has been an invalid and for many months was confined to her bed. She underwent several operations. Lately she had been improving and was feeling encouraged until Tuesday when she developed pneumonia.

MRS. LOUISE J. SHAW

The death occurred at her home in Clementsport about noon on Wednesday, February 15th, of Mrs. Louise J. Shaw, widow of the late Captain Reginald Shaw, a highly esteemed resident of that village and well-known throughout the county. She had been

OBADIAH P. NEILY

Middleton, Feb. 21—Middleton people were saddened to hear of the sudden death at Port George, of Obadiah P. Neily, who for many years was a resident of Middleton. He had not been in the best of health for several years, and removed to Port George. He attended to his duties as usual Saturday, but on Sunday morning he dropped dead of heart disease.

He leaves a widow and three sons, Leslie, Clarence and Joseph, residing in United States. They are en route to Middleton to attend the funeral, which takes place Thursday, from his late residence, Port George. Burial will be in Pine Grove cemetery.

Say "Scotty" did you ever try those Repetti Cough Drops? You didn't? Well, golly, you want to get some. They are the best thing in the world for a cough or a tickling in the throat, fix you right up. "Spec" got some the other day and swears by them. I guess "MAXWELL'S" is the only place you can buy them. Don't get the Paragoric kind, I think they are doped, but the Menthol, Horshound and Eucalyptus are alright. You ask "Eddie".

MRS. EUPHEMIA MACRAE

(Annapolis Spectator)

The sad news was received here last Friday of the sudden death at her home in New York of Mrs. Euphemia MacRae, second daughter of Mrs. Griffin O'Dell, of Annapolis Royal, and wife of James MacRae, of New York. Deceased was one of the most popular of this highly respected family and her many friends were grief-stricken to learn of her demise at the early age of twenty-nine, this being the first break in the family circle since the death of her father.

Mrs. O'Dell left on Friday for New York, the funeral being held there. Besides her mother she leaves one little daughter, two sisters and four brothers.
