

Sparkles.

"I AIM to tell the truth." "Yes," said an acquaintance; "but you are a very bad shot."

A PHYSICIAN says: "If a child does not thrive on fresh milk, boil it." This is too severe. Why not spank it?

A Fearful Leap.

into the abyss of poverty, over the precipice of shortsightedness, is taken by thousands, who might become wealthy, if they availed themselves of their opportunities. Those who write to Hallett & Co., Portland, Maine, will be informed, free, how they can make from $5 to $25 a day and upwards. Some have made over $50 in a day. You can do the work and live at home wherever you are located. Both sexes; all ages. All is new. You are started free. Capital not needed. Now is the time. Better not delay. Every worker can secure a snug little fortune.

PROFESSOR—"Name an oxide." Student—"Leather." Professor—"Oxide of what?" Student—"Ox-hide of beef." The professor subsided.

"Do you think I'm a simpleton, sir?" thundered a fiery Scotch laird to his new footman. "Ye see, sir," replied the canny Scot, "I'm no' lang here, an' I dinna ken yet."

EVERYBODY SUFFERS PAIN.—It is the result of sin and violation of nature's laws. The great Creator of the universe in His infinite mercy has done much to allay the suffering of His people, by giving them out of nature's store-house a "balm for every pound." Such is the Pain Killer made by Perry Davis & Son; it stops pain almost instantly, is used both internally and externally, and is of all other pain remedies the oldest and best.

PHYSICIAN: "You are to take this mixture after meals." Poor patient: "But it's very seldom, doctor, that I get a meal." Physician: "In that case, take it before meals."

AN enthusiastic prohibitionist editor wrote: "The battle is now open." But, alas! the compositor spelt "battle" with an "o," and his readers say they have expected it all along.

THE EVIDENCE OF A JUSTICE.—Esquire Pelton, of Grass Lake, Michigan, a justice of the peace, was given up to die with malarial fever. He testified to a cure from Burdock Blood Bitters, after physicians' and other medicines failed.

A: "I thought you were a vegetarian, and now I see you eating mutton!" B: "Well, I am only an indirect vegetarian—I eat the meat of such animals only as live on vegetable food."

Mrs. Langtry, Sara Bernhardt, and Adelina Patti Revisit Toronto.

These celebrated artistes will arrive here in the coming season to give us pleasure during the dreary months. Some people, however, prefer a different kind of pleasure and that is to furnish a home of their own, and have music, cards and games to while away the hours. Jolliffe's is the place to furnish these homes, and 467 to 473 Queen Street West contains an enormous variety for you to choose from.

"THE poet is born, sir," said a man, haughtily, as he received a roll of manuscript from the editor, with a shake of the head. "Oh, is he?" replied the editor with a pleasant smile. "Well, when he gets old enough to write something, tell him to come and see me. Good-by." And he resumed his labours.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N.Y.

A GRANDFATHER, coming to read his paper, found that he had mislaid his spectacles, and thereupon declared: "I have lost my glasses somewhere, and can't read the paper." A little three-and-a-half-year old girl, desiring to assist him, answered: "G'an'pa, you go outside and look froo ze window, and I'll hold ze paper up so you can read it."
