

CHRISTIANS AND PHILANTHROPISTS, ATTENTION !

AN EXPERIENCE of more than thirty most active years has convinced me that the polity as exemplified in our Congregational Churches, is far and away the best form of denominational activity; a form calculated to promote the highest interests of humanity, and the triumph of Christian unity.

Congregationalism

Is Simply the Solvent of the Sects.

PRESBYTERIANISM without Church Courts.

ANGLICANISM without Episcopacy.

METHODISM without Ecclesiasticism.

BAPTIST without Close Communion.
