THE annual meeting of the Camden (8th) and Tamworth congregations was held on the sath ult., the pastor, Rev. Mr. Smith, in the chair. The affairs of the congregation are in a prosperous condition. On the roll there is a membership of over ninety-two, an increase of over fifty since the present pastor's settlement.

REV. DR. BURNS, Ifalifax, recently lectured in Truto, N.S., on "Bohemia and Germany." The lecturer drew

N.S., on "Bohemia and Germany." The lecturer drew a striking contrast between the condition of Germany, the home of Lu her, and Hohemia, the country of Huss; the one a great and powerful country rejoicing and glorying in the past but also hopeful for the future, the other convent with its past achievements and apparently dead to the opportunities of the present, the difference between the two nations springing undoubtedly from their religions.

In the Maritime Presbyterian we find the following affecting incident respecting Dr. MacGregor: Not long before his death the Foreign Mission Committee was to meet in New Glasgow. His daughter was going to send by express the minute book in which the records of the Committee were kept. Taking the book to her father's bedside, he took it in his hand. For many years had he written its records. Clasping the book he seemed as if he could scarce part with it. At length he gave it to her saying: "I am giving it up for ever."

At the annual congregational social of Knox Presbyterian church, Montreal, the paster, Rev. James Fleck, delivered a short address, in the course of which he referred to the progress made by the church during his ten years' pastorate. When he assumed the charge of the congregation in 1876 the church had a membership of 224, which had now increased to 405. In 1876 the mis sionery offerings were $606, and in 1885 they amounted to $1,613. In 1876 the amount collected for all purposes was $4,122, and last year it was $6,500. During the ten years he had officiated at 90 marriages, 210 haptisms and 146 buriale.

James Mills, Hugh Walker and James Law sang solos that were well received by the audience. Miss Jessie Walker played the accompaniments. Dr. Lett, managing physician of the Homewood Retreat, read a very able address on "Inelvicty resulting from physical causes."

In the Evening Journal of Jersey City, of March 26th we notice an account of a social given by the ladies of the Scotch Presbyterian church, the new pastor, Rev. D. Dr. Imbie congratulated the conand the doxology, Rev. 17th Imbrie congratulated the central gregation on the auspicious circumstances under which they were met. He had known their paster many years, and said he could not but anticipate a bright tuture for the church. A quartette of ladies sang a beautiful anthem, and Rev. Mr. Biddle followed with a brief but happy address of welcome. Mr. Holmes, precentor, rendered "Scots wha hase" in grand style. Tea was serued. A speech was made by Rev. Mr. Hathaway, who enjoined the minister not to preach too well, as there were some who might take him warmly by the hand and were some who might take him warmly by the hand and say, "What a fine sermun," and they would be so full that he would not see them for six weeks. "Two students from Queen's College, Canada, Messrs. McLaughlin and McNaughton, spoke kindly of the Rev. Mr. Mitchell and his work in Canada, and predicted a successful pastorate. Mrs. Masson sang so well that she received a hearty encore, after which Rev. J. Carmichael, M.A., of Norwood, Ont., stated that Mr. Mitchell was one of his warmest friends, and there was no man for whom he had a greater respect. He then delivered a thoughtful and telling address upon "Order," in which he commended this principle for successful church work.

Anaddress of welcome was read by Mrs. Donald Campbell, of Lucknow, and replied to by Mrs. Graham, of Brussels. The President gave an excellent address on "The Needs and Aims of our Special Work."
