EDUCATIONAL.

We perceive that the Rev. C. Dade, M.A., Georgetown, C. W., well known from his connection with Upper Canada College, has vacancies for a couple of pupils. Of Mr. Dade's scholarship, and success in preparing youths for university, army, or law examinations, it is unnecessary to say any thing. Parents anxious to have their sons thoroughly grounded in mathematics and the languages, and their principles and morals cared for, could not find a more suitable place than the quiet abode of this excellent scholar. The editor of the Church Chronicle will be happy to answer enquiries.

A married lady, competent to teach, and without family, residing in a healthy village in the Home District, is desirous of taking charge of two or three little girls to educate on moderate terms. Reference may be made to the editor of the Church Chronicle.
