

THE AWAKENING OF HELENA RICHIE

BY

MARGARET DELAND

Author of "Old Chester Tales,"
"Dr. Lavendar's People," Etc.

MARGARET DELAND

*M*R. DELAND has wrought a tale of intense emotional heights and depths that dwarfs by comparison her former stories. The same delightful Old Chester people are here, entering into a profound drama of which Helena Richie, a beautiful young woman and a newcomer to Old Chester, is the centre. It is the story of the awakening of her nobler self, her renunciation and turning from the past, through the unconscious influence of a little boy whom Dr. Lavendar and Willy King interest her in adopting.

With illustrations by WALTER APPLETON CLARK.

Frontispiece in four colors.

Price $1.50.

EVE'S DIARY

By MARK TWAIN

You may be sure Adam never got a glimpse into this interesting journal that Eve kept in the Garden of Eden. She has a lot to say about him, but after all her naive confidences about herself are the most delicious.

Illustrated. Price $1.00.

R. HOLMES & CO.

By JOHN KENDRICK BANGS

The hero is the son of Sherlock Holmes and the grandson of Raffles; the laughable result can be imagined. In his amusing adventures he manifests characteristic but conflicting traits inherited from both famous progenitors.

Illustrated. Price $1.25.

THE DOOMSMAN

By VAN TASSEL SUTPHEN

A fantastic romance of New York in 2025 A.D., when our present civilization is conceived of as entirely wiped out. A stirring tale of love and adventure.

Illustrated. Price $1.50.
