The addresses were all marked by much feeling, as if the speakers were in earnest in recommending their several Resolutions. Injustice has hitherto been done to this valuable Society, on which the future prosperity of our Church mainly depends, by not giving to its meetings in Kingston sufficient publicity, and the non-attendance of gentlemen connected with the press to report its proceedings. It is highly probable that this has arisen from their not having been specially invited. I am persuaded, their not having been specially invited. NOVA SCOTIA.

(From the Halifax Times.) VISIT OF THE LORD BISHOP TO SHERBROOKE, IN THE COUNTY OF LUNENBURG.

On the 17th August his Lordship the Bishop of Nova Scotia visited this settlement, accompanied by the Rev. Dr. Shreve, of Chester, and the Rev. Mr. Filleul, of Mahone Bay. Although the weather was very unpropiand the meeting being imperfectly known, the attendance was not numerous, and yet sufficiently so to be encouraging to those interested in the welfare of the Church of England. luring which seven children and two adults were admitted into the Church by baptism. His Lordship the Bishop then preached a very impressive sermon on Confirmation, from the 8th chapter of the Acts of the Apostles,

> My Lord,—We, the undersigned, Churchwardens and Parishioners of the parish of Trinity, in Sherbrooke, beg leave to congratulate your Lordship on your arrival once more among us. We hail the event with a greater degree of satisfaction, as, at this advanced period of your life, we had hardly dared to hope that your Lordship would venture to attempt a journey over such a very rough road > as the one leading to this settlement is.

> We look upon your visit to this remote portion of your diocese as another proof, if any were wanting, of your paternal care of the diocese over which your Lordship

> Convinced of your zeal in the cause of your Divine Master, we humbly trust that your Lordship's activity may be always imitated by the Clergy under your charge, and that the Church of our fathers—that Church which we have been taught to love and revere—may never want pious active men to attend to its spiritual wants, until from every town, village, and hamlet of this our native land, the beautiful and comprehensive service of our Church may be heard rising like a sweet incense to the throne of grace, and our people be in the happy case of those "who have the Lord for their God."

In conclusion, we beg to assure your Lordship that it gives us sincere pleasure to see you bear so lightly the hand of all conquering time, and walk with such an erect bearing and firm step, and with a fervent hope that your Lordship may be long spared to perform the necessary duties appertaining to your diocese,

We beg leave to subscribe ourselves,

Your Lordship's humble servants, [Signed by the Churchwardens and Parishioners.]

To which his Lordship was pleased to reply as follows:

To the Churchwardens and Parishioners of Trinity Church, at Sherbrooke.

I return to you, my Christian friends and brethren, my warm thanks for your kind welcome on my present visit your settlement and its Church.
I receive it as evidence of your affectionate regard for the Church in which we are enrolled, and for her offices and her ministers and their ministrations.

In return for the personal regard which may have prompted some portion of your congratulations, I offer you my sincere affection. you my sincere affection.

It is your happiness to be surrounded by Clergymen of tried zeal and devotion, and it is a delightful engagement for their Bishop to be united with them in their labour of love. The chief subject of our regret is their distance from this remote settlement in the wilderness; but the Missionary, to whose immediate care you are committed, has long been anxious for your spiritual improvement, and he has long been seeking for such help as will secure has long been anxious for your spiritual improvement, and he has long been seeking for such help as will secure to you and all other portions of the flock in his extensive charge large increase of pastoral attention. Let it be our prayer that God, in His goodness, will accelerate the attainment of his fervent desire, and of your earnest wish, that expert town and village, and every compling in the that every town and village, and every opening in the forest, may be blest with the pure and holy teaching of the Church you love.

I cannot be too thankful for the measure of health and strength which has been continued to me through a period that has nearly brought me to the full age of man; but I cannot hide from myself, nor should I wish to conceal so important a truth, that it would be presumptuous at my time of life to count upon its long continuance. It is my time of life to count upon its long continuance. It is my heart's desire and prayer that I may be inclined and enabled to devote whatever portion may yet be allotted to me to the glory of God and the welfare of His Church. VISIT OF HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL TO -FA NIAGARA.

His Excellency the Governor General, accompanied by the public Countess of Elgin and Suite, have for several days past been at | cours the Falls, and although the weather was far from propitious, the vice-regal party had sufficient opportunities to survey and appreciate the magnificent scenery in that vicinity.

His Excellency yesterday visited Thorold and St. Catherines, we m

Dickson, Esq., M.P.. several District Magistrates, such members of the Municipal Council as had not left town, the President and Members of the Board of Police, and a great number of the inhabitants. The attendance would have been much larger, but nobody knew until he came whether His Excellency would visit the town or not. The Earl and Countess having been ushered into the Court Room, the Warden of the District read and presented the following ADDRESS:

To the Right Honourable JAMES, EARL OF ELGIN and KIN-CARDINE, K. T., Governor General of British North

May it please Your Excellency :

We, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the magistrates and municipal bodies of the Niagara District, beg leave to ap-proach Your Excellency with heartfelt assurances of our devotion to Her Majesty's person and government, and to express the high gratification we feel in welcoming among us, as the tive of our gracious Queen, a nobleman of high and representative of our gracious Queen, a nobleman of high and honourable lineage, whose personal qualities have gained for the affectionate esteem of the people over whom he rules.

The only exception to the general welfare of the inhabitants of the Niagara District is witnessed in the condition of many of our fellow subjects recently arrived from Ireland, amongst whom prevail penury, disease and death. Aware of the car-nestness with which Your Excellency has applied yourself to the consideration of the peculiar character of this year's emi-gration, and its unhappy consequences to Canada, we feel per-suaded that the interests of the country are placed in hands

This is the more to be regretted, because many of our farmers have taken great pains to improve their stock since the establishment of this society, and could therefore have brought forward excellent specimens of these animals, had the weather been more favourable. The exhibition was your allowed. lent specimens of these animals, had the weather been more favourable. The exhibition was very creditable to the county notwithstanding, and the show of sheep and pigs was really good. We understand that the handsome sum of 10 dollars was offered by Mr. Sheriff Foott to Mr. Edward Smith, of Harwick, for a lamb the birth of this year; and that a bull, the property of Mr. R. K. Payne of the same township, and only 19 months old, weighed 1180lbs. These facts alone shew that there is a disposition on the part of our farmers to acquire the best stock. Some of the samples of grain, root crops, and seeds were superior to any we have ever seen in the country, and prove what splendid crops the soil of this District is capable of producing splendid crops the soil of this District is capable of producing by proper cultivation. The beautiful rolls of butter, as well as the substantial webs of home made cloths, exhibited, were also of the best quality, and the taste, intelligence, and industry, displayed in their manufacture reflect great credit on the ladies.

We notice with great pleasure that a premium has been given this each for flay aged, an article that it extensively and rought

It does not impoverish the land, as is generally sup-posed, and we are confident that a knowledge of the mode of posed, and we are conducent that a knowledge of the mode of raising and preparing is all that is required to make its cultivation both general and lucrative to the Canadian farmer. This knowledge could be obtained with little expense, on application to a society formed in the north of Ireland for its cultivation.

A premium of four dollars was awarded to Mr. Joseph Slagg, of this town, for a fine 500 lbs. parcel of hops; but this having been the only parcel shown, Mr. Slagg very liberally waved his claim to the premium, and desired that it should be applied to the general fund of the Society.

We regret to find agricultural implements excluded from the catalogue of prizes, especially the plough and waggon; yet nothing could be more judicious, in our opinion, than the awarding of premiums for aticles that are in such general use that cost so high, and that are of so much importance (the former at all

NIAGARA AGRICULTURAL FAIR.-There was held at Queenston on Wednesday the 13th inst., the first Cattle Show and Fair of the agricultural Society of the Township of Niagara. THE UNIVERSITY.—We have no desire to see one penny of the King's College funds expended out of the City of Toronto. There the institution was commenced, and there we hope to see it, one day, flourish. But this can only happen, if the endowment be maintained in its integrity. Whether the Episcopal Chapel be kept up or not, we regard as a question of little importance. The expense of it is very trifling; and while we have that practical liberality in the management, which admits students, and even professors, of all creeds, we do not sympathize with those, whose tender consciences are scandalized because a form of worship different from their own is celebrated, for those who like it, at the expense of the Col-
