Mercantile Summary.

IN ENGLAND and Wales, there were 60,029
acres devoted to the growth of hops last year, of which 36,672 acres are in Kent County alone.
There was a decrease in four years of 4,500 acres.

THERE is a bill before the Legislature requiring any person who carries on business under the name of a firm or company and who has in fact no partner, to register a declaration to that effect, with a penalty of $200 for non-compliance. This bill is intended to supply an important deficiency in the act passed two years ago for the registration of co-partnerships.
It is certain to become law.

AN INTELLIGENT and substantial business man, writing from Kincardine, states a local grievance in the following terms:—"The estate of the late W. S. Small, agent of the Merchant's Bank here, is likely to realize the handsome dividend of about 15c. in the dollar. Let us hope for the credit of that institution and its customers, that they will send a solvent agent next time. Yours, &c. ONE OF THE 20 CREDITORS." Such a case affords just ground of complaint, and we give it publicity so that the hint may be conveyed to those specially interested.
