

THE 'EMPRESS' IN THE SHIPYARD AT MONTAGUE

cient cargo to have the vessel drift off at high tide—after which the Empress sailed for Halifax.

* * *

“Contrary Winds.” Reader, do you know anything about these?

* * *

Failure in our plans does not necessarily mean defeat. It may mean success—

“Not all who seem to fail have failed indeed;
Not all who fail have therefore worked in vain.”

What harbor are we making for? and what Captain have we on board? These are vital questions that interest you and me in the voyage of Life.

“I will not doubt though all my ships at sea
Come drifting home with broken masts and sails;

I will believe the Hand that never fails,
From seeming evil worketh good for me.