- (c) The customs authorities of the country of temporary importation believe that the conditions stipulated by this Annex have been met.

ARTICLE 4

Unless the national laws and regulations of the country of temporary importation so permit, goods granted temporary admission shall not, whilst they are the subject of the facilities granted under this Annex, be loaned, or used in any way for hire or reward, or be removed from the place of the exposition.  - (ii) Are abandoned free of all expense to the Exchequer of the country into which they were temporarily imported; or
 - (iii) Are destroyed, under official supervision, without expense to the Exchequer of the country into which they were temporarily imported; as the customs authorities may require.

However, the obligation of re-exportation shall not apply to any goods whose destruction, required by the Section Commissioner General concerned, is effected under official supervision without expense to the Exchequer of the country into which they were temporarily imported;

- (b) Goods granted temporary admission may be disposed of otherwise than by re-exportation, and in particular may be taken into home use, subject to compliance with the conditions and formalities applicable under the laws and regulations of the country of temporary importation in respect of such goods imported directly from abroad.
