

CANADA

COMMUNIQUÉ

No. 86

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DECEMBER 16, 1970

ACL

The Hague Conference on Hijacking was convened under the auspices of the International Civil Aviation Organization, a body of the Federal Aviation Administration, to discuss hijacking and related matters. The final text of the Convention on Offences and Certain Other Acts Committed on Board Aircraft was adopted by the plenipotentiary conference on 14 December 1970. The Convention will enter into force on 26 January 1971.

The Convention on Offences and Certain Other Acts Committed on Board Aircraft was adopted by the plenipotentiary conference on 14 December 1970. The Convention will enter into force on 26 January 1971.

THE HAGUE CONFERENCE ON HIJACKING
DECEMBER 1-16, 1970

The plenipotentiary conference on hijacking was held in The Hague, The Netherlands, from December 1 to 16, 1970. It was convened under the auspices of the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO), a body of the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA). The conference was attended by 37 plenipotentiaries from 37 States and the Holy See. The final text of the Convention on Offences and Certain Other Acts Committed on Board Aircraft was adopted by the plenipotentiary conference on 14 December 1970. The Convention will enter into force on 26 January 1971.

The Convention on Offences and Certain Other Acts Committed on Board Aircraft was adopted by the plenipotentiary conference on 14 December 1970. The Convention will enter into force on 26 January 1971.

DEPARTMENT OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
MINISTÈRE DES AFFAIRES EXTÉRIEURES