

of Consumer and Corporate Affairs investigated whether any such losses are reflected in the prices of 1969 coloured TV models now on sale in Canada?

7. Have either or both the Consumer and Corporate Affairs Branch or the Restrictive Trade Practices Commission of the Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs reviewed recent developments in the television manufacturing industry and, if so, has either Branch taken any action in regard to safeguarding Canadian purchasers of coloured television sets in 1969?

No. 1,479—Mr. Fortin

1. Did the City of Montreal make any proposals concerning "Man and His World" and, if so, what was the federal government's response?

2. Has the government estimated the number of persons who will be unemployed following the closing of "Man and His World" and, if so, what is such estimate and, if not, will such an estimate be made?

3. Has the government evaluated the beneficial effects of "Man and His World" on the balance of payments and, if so, what was the result of such evaluation and, if not, will such an evaluation be made?

4. How much has the local problem of coal-mining in Nova Scotia cost the government since the creation of the Cape Breton Development Corporation?

5. How much does the government spend for maintaining the various Canadian monuments in Canada and abroad?

6. How much will the Canadian participation in the Osaka Exposition cost?

7. Has the government studied the possibility of creating a tripartite corporation to administer "Man and His World" and, if so, what are the conclusions of this study and, if not, for what reason?

8. For the past ten years, how much money has the federal government spent for federal parks and of this amount, how much was spent in the Province of Quebec?

No. 1,614—Mr. Paproski

1. How many persons are currently being held in the Don Jail in Toronto on federal government deportation charges?

2. How many persons are being held in jail across Canada on federal government deportation charges?

3. How many persons facing federal deportation charges are out on bail?

4. How many persons on deportation charges and currently in detention without bail have been in jail for (a) more than one month (b) more than two months (c) more than three months?

No. 1,785—Mr. Paproski

1. How many low rent housing units were built under NHA financing in each of the following years: 1965, 1966, 1967 and 1968?

2. For the periods indicated above, in what cities were such units built and how many in each city?

3. Have any low rent housing units been built directly by Central Mortgage and Housing or have they in each case been partly financed by provincial and municipal governments and what is the general proportion of such financing?