

The Bill was accordingly re-committed to a Committee of the Whole, again amended, reported, considered as amended, and agreed to.

And the question being again put,—that the Bill be now read a third time;

Mr. Patterson (Essex) then moved in amendment thereto, that the Bill be re-committed to a Committee of the Whole in order to amend the same, as follows:—

Provided that when under colour of any Provincial Law there are at the time of the passing of this Act more Licenses issued, than by the limit provided by this Act is permitted, the same number of Licenses may be issued until the 1st day of May, 1886, the limit not to exceed one for every full four hundred beyond one thousand of the population;—which was negatived on the following division:—
