The Prime Minister—IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE—The following Resolution:—

Resolved, That it is expedient to present a Bill respecting payment of sessional allowances to Senators and Members of the House of Commons during the present Session and payment of their usual moving, transportation and living expenses, in the event of adjournment of Parliament for more than one week and subsequent resumption of its sittings.

The Prime Minister—That when this House adjourns on completion of current business of the session it stand adjourned until February 14, 1951, provided always that if it appears to the satisfaction of Mr. Speaker, after consultation with His Majesty's government, that the public interest requires that the House should meet at an earlier time during the adjournment, Mr. Speaker may give notice that he is so satisfied, and thereupon the House shall meet at the time stated in such notice, and shall transact its business as if it had been duly adjourned to that time.
