The St. Paul's Fabric Fund.

It will be remembered that last year it was pointed out to the Members of the Order that the very existence of the Cathedral depended upon immediate action being taken to strengthen the great piers which support the Dome. Nor is St. Paul's an isolated case. We hear on all sides of the anxiety of Chapters of Cathedrals for their edifices. At this time St. George's, Windsor, Lincoln Cathedral, Salisbury Cathedral, and others, are being carefully treated, and at great expense.

The facts about the necessary work at St. Paul's are as follows:

The whole of the first great section of the work, namely, the strengthening of the South Transept, is completed after ten years' unbroken labour, and the girders and scaffolding have been removed.
