

necessary alterations and with an additional ^{annual} actual sum to their present expenditure, say $25,000 a year, that one of the very finest Medical Clinics on the Continent could be equipped and organized, and it would naturally be the aim of both the Governors of the University and the Directors of the Royal Victoria Hospital to promote this end in every way possible.

BELL FAST BON

