APPENDIX.

of Parliament, shall be and continue in force until the opening of the fupreme court instituted by virtue of this act, and no longer; and every fuit or complaint which shall at that time be depending in the faid court of civil jurifdiction, shall and may be proceeded upon in the faid fupreme court, in the fame manner as any fuit or complaint originally commenced in the faid fupreme court.

12. And be it further enacted, That No court, exit shall not be lawful for any court in the cept the fuisland of Newfoundland, or islands afore- iurrogate faid (except the fupreme court and the courts, to furne hold pleas of furrogate courts appointed by virtue of this a civil nature. act) to hold plea of any fuit or complaint of a civil nature, any law, cuftom, or ulage, to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided neverthelefs, that the court of Vice admiral. vice admiralty having jurifdiction in the ty court may faid island, shall and may hold plea of ma- maritime ritime causes (except only the wages of causes (except for wages), feamen and fishermen, which are to be and caules of heard and determined in manner herein- revenue. after directed), and caules of the revenue, as heretofore practifed and ufed : Provided Difputes realfo, that all difputes which shall arise con- spetting wages cerning the wages of any feaman or fifher- inay be heard, man, and all offences which shall be com- in the court of mitted by any hirer or employer of fuch fore two feaman or fisherman, against this or any justices. other act, relating to the island of Newfoundland, or the islands and feas aforefaid, or the fifhery thereof, shall and may be heard and determined, and the penalties [H]and

That rifen ifand it or reon years tion

That perpole, ower s of and fhall d of feas and, bate have y as That' rliag a d of hich rom lven ear, lion of cxiii