WINDSOR GETS OUT OF GRAND CIRCUIT

President Hendrie Writes That Early Dates Allotted Are Unsuitable.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 80.—Notice of the withdrawal of the Windsor, Ont., track from the Grand Circuit, was re-ceived by Secretary Harry J. Kline to-day. The Grand Circuit this year will open at Cleveland, July 7 to 12, instead of June 30, at Windsor, and it will be composed of twelve clubs instead of thir-teen.

In his letter to Secretary Kline, President Geo. M. Hendrie of the Windsor Club, said that the dates awarded them by the stewards at the meeting in Pittsburg, Jan. 14, were not suitable, as a running race meet is to be held a short time before that, and the Canadian laws forbid holding two meetings so close together.
