STILL MORE ODORS IN WARD SEVEN

Garbage Piled Into Ravine dent, J. T. Robinson; Vice-Presidents, W. Foster and L. L. Jarvis; Sec.-Treas., W. R. Cowan; Auditors, Platt and Miller. Koad Residents.

There have been many complaints resently from residents in the neighborhood of Glendonwyhne road about the odors arising from the piles of garbage in the ravine on either sade of the road which the city is using to fid in and complaints. It is claimed that garbage and restale the manufacturers in build in the village artistic building possible. Altho, perhaps, they may not like the idea of the stables in their midst. If the property was not acquired by the city for that the chizens and is now being dumped there, and the emantations from the heap have become a misance to the entire neighborhood. Residents on the board of control and ask of the state agent he would say they would be hard to sell, the advised them to wait on the board of control and ask for full particulars before they opposed it.

It was decided to appoint a deputation to appear before the board of control and ask for full particulars before the board of control and ask for full particulars before the board of control to protest against the site.

The work on the sewer system is now being rushed towards completion in the southern district and the extensive damage caused by recent rainstorms at Bloor rand Woodville, Conduit street and Annette street is being repaired as rapidly as possible. The entire staff of engineers from the works department visited ward seven yesterday and, accompanied by Ald. Ryding, went over the various works at present under construction. The addituant the works department have decided to pump dry Catfish Pond, near: High Park, and clean and disinfect the bed and surrounding banks.

The Keele street firemen have again, with true horticultural zeal, exchanged their late spring flowers in the beds between their courtyard and the lawn of Station D for summer plants, flowers and foliage. A long, wide box has this year been constructed above the firehall doors, which has also been filled with plants, and the little Keele street square will doubtless bring forth admiration from a great many pedestrians this year as last.

WIFE OF RECTOR OF NORWAY CHURCH, DEAD

The death occurred yesterday at 1.30 p.m. of Mrs. Baynes Reed, wife of the rector of St. John's Anglican Church, Norway, at her residence, Kingston road. Mrs. Reed's death was not quite unexpected, as she had been ailing for about ten weeks.

She was born in Sherbrooke, and was the daughter of the late Dr. H. Gilbert of that town, and grand-daughter of the ate Rev. John Ambery, first dean of Trinity College, Toronto. The late Mrs. Reed was a well-known social worker in the district and was connected with the different societies of the church. She leaves one child, a girl, 3 years old. The funeral takes place on Monday afternoon at 3.30 to St. John's Cemetery, Norway.

CHATHAM. Ont., June 12.—The fourth day of the Chatham Driving Club meet passed off with only two events. The running race was called off, but the crowd was given value for their morey. The eniy real excitement of the day was caused when the driver of Daisy C. in the 2.16 pace, was called in to the judges' stand to explain why he did not drive his horse out according to the rule. He was given a stiff warning. In the free-for-all pace Greatest Heart had very little difficutly in taking the first three heats. In the 2.16 pace there was a struggle, Jack Johnson finally taking three heats in succession. The summary:

Toronto Board of Trade Members Charmed With Cleveland's Boulevards.

ARE OFFICIALLY DINED

Formal Welcome Extended by High Officials-Sights Are Shown.

By a Staff Reporter.

Chatham Free-for-All onto is picking up more than one invaluable lesson in park construction as the result of the board of trade tour. thus far. Incidentally a few ideas which have long been advanced by city council members the Toronto tourists say, have been quashed by the evidence of American experts who have made their cities blossom like the rose in great suburban stretches of recreation grounds for the tolling thousands of their inhabitants.

Cleveland an Authority.

Cleveland to date can speak with most authority on park and boulevard equipment, and this afternoon in a complimentary banquet given to the Toronto visitors by the board of commerce, people told the reason why. The boast of this great lake city in possessing 40 miles of boulevards and 2,000 acres of parks does not alone reflect credit on the pioneers. Time and flect credit on the pioneers. Time and again it was said that it was the broad vision and progressiveness of the citizens of today that made it possible and that herein lay Toronto's hope. The Strut slogan of Cleveland's municipal councils in outlining their park system was, "buy, buy, buy." If a 200-acre stretch was meditated they bought 300 acres and sold the resident acres and sold the residue at a profit of late, too, there has been no lack of legislation to back up the energy of the commissioners. The latest benture is a law which absolutely rules out anything in the nature of a sign-band in the park vicinity.

board in the park vicinity.

Political Home for Chamber.

The chamber of commerce building in Cleveland is a magnificent structure in marble and frescoe work, and re-flecting the importance vested in the institution. In the whole building two entire floors were maintained for the chamber work, and all facilities are provided.

Mayor Hocken and President Gundy replied to addresses at the banquet by Acting Mayor Stockwell, Lieut.-Governor of Ohia, Greenlund and Vice-President Little of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce. An automobile tour of the city boule-vards followed.
