Miscellaneous Games Played by the Soldiers

The latest Y.M.C.A. sports among the soldiers resulted as follows:

—Soccer Football—

Some difficulty is being experienced in running off the third round of the league. Among the difficulties are—bad weather conditions, which compel games to be postponed—one or both of the competing teams being out on route marches—Christmas holidays, also close competition, resulting in the games, which have to be played over. The latter applies particularly to the 48th Highlanders of 19th Batt. and the "2d" Co., 20th Batt. These teams have met twice and each time the score has been 1-1. They are very evenly matched, and some fine football has been played, even though the boys have had to play in the snow, where the footing has been very uncertain.

The match today between "H" Co., 20th, and "C" Co., 19th, had to be postponed on account of route marches.

—Athletics—

100 yards open to all who have not won a lot of yards open—1. W. Laft, Van Cycle Corps; 2. D. Murray, Van Cycle Corps; 3. F. Hemming, "C" Co., 20th. Time 11 secs.

220 yards dash, open—1. R. Lee, 15th Battery; 2. W. Laft, Van Cycle Corps; 3. M. Smith, 5th Field Amb. Time 28 1/2 secs.

18 yard dash, open to men 165 lbs. and over—1. D. Murray, Van Cycle Corps; 2. F. Hemming, "C" Co., 20th; 3. N. Baskett, 19th transports. Time 3 1/2-4 secs.

Two mile run, open—1. L. Pomeroy, Van Cycle Corps; 2. C. Litherland, 15th Battery; 3. F. Crossley, Van Cycle Corps. Time 19 52.

CONTRACT, NOT RESERVE RULE, SAVES J. THORPE

Jim Thorpe, champion athlete of the world, isn't a champion ball player by a long shot, but he's drawing pay as such because he was wise enough to get an ironclad contract from the New York Giants.

When Jim's professionalism was uncovered a couple of years ago, several big league managers made tempting offers for Thorpe. They believed he would develop into a good player and also be a big drawing card.

Thorpe worked McGraw for a five-year contract with the Giants. The document is drawn up in such a manner that the Giants can't do anything with him except pay him his salary until the contract expires.

As a player Thorpe is a flat failure and as a drawing card he's worse.

SECOND DAY AT DUFFERIN PARK

Tonoco and Alcy D. Win Unfinished Races—Also Hal Chief and Brown Hal.

The attendance was again good yesterday at the second day of the Dufferin Driving Club meeting. It was expected after the heavy rain that there would be no track left. However, the weather changed in the morning and the result was that the track was again fast, and the two unfinished events as well as the races carried for the day were pulled off.

The first race was the unfinished 2.35 pace. Only four horses started, Tonoco, Brown Hal, Alcy D. and Billie Brino, one heat. There was no delay in getting them away. When they got the word they were again started, better than the pole. Billie Brino made a vain bid for it at the first turn. Then he took in behind with Maggie C trailing the Brown Hal. Red Wing was taking the overland route and raced well to the half when he was compelled to fall back in the same pace as the other three. The other three raced in the same position down the back, and when entering the stretch Alcy D. made another bid, but Tonoco had the Indian sign out and won easily in 2:18 1/2.

Next in order was the first heat of the unfinished 2.30 trot. Alcy D. had the pole going away, but Nat Ray took Sarah out in front. Donnie was trailing. Alcy D. and Effie Wright were next. At the half Alcy D. was second. Effie Wright third. Down the back stretch Alcy D. challenged Nat Ray, went to a slight break but came on again. As they entered the home stretch Alcy D. came very fast and looked like he would win, but made another break, recovered and was just nosed out by Sarah in the fastest mile of the race. Time, 2:21 1/2.

The second heat Alcy D. won handsily with Sarah second. Donnie was third. The third heat, 2:20. This finished the 2.30 trot.

The 2.15 pace was the first race on the card. Daisy C. b.m., b.p. Chimes, seemed to be the favorite of the majority of the players, but Hal Chief, owned by Ovide Colombe of Yorkton fame, better known as "Blow Back" was fancied by some of the real wise ones. Spec Broome of Brandon, N.Y., a very capable driver, had the mount and drove Hal a good drive. In the first heat Hal was out in front all the way. After entering the stretch he made a break. Daisy C. who was right there, came from behind and won pulled up in 2:18 1/2 with Hal Chief second. Jimmie Direct third. Hal Chief won the next three heats comfortably, with Daisy C. second and Frankie second in each of the heats. "Blow" received the congratulations of his host of friends on his win and was busy for some time shaking hands.

The 2.15 pace was next carried, with the starter, Brown Hal, owned by W. B. Williamson and driven by Nat Ray, won in straight heats. It was a fight for the place in every heat, three different horses getting a second. Time for three heats 2:21, 2:20, 2:18. There will be two good races on today, entries enclosed, summary follows:
