

6. The xv. Bookes of P. Onidius Naso, entytuled Metamorphosis, translated oute of Latin into English meteer. [Dedicated to Robert, Earl of Leicester, from Barwicke, the xx. of Aprill, 1567; printed by Willyam Seres, London, 4to., 1567. Reprinted in 1575, 1576, 1584, 1587, 1593 (by two different publishers), 1603, 1612.]

7. John Caluin his Treatise concerning offences, whereby at this day diners are feared, & many also are quite withdrawn from the pure doctrine of the Gospell. transl. out of Latine. [London, 8vo., 1567.]

8. A Postill, or Expositions of the Gospels read in the Churches of God on Sundayes & feast days of Sainets. Written by Nich. Heminge. [Dedicated to Sir Walter Mildmay, and printed in London, 4to., 1569, 1574, 1577, 1579.]

9. A Postil or Orderly Disposing of certeine Epistles vsually red in the Church of God vppon the Sundayes & Holydayes throughout the whole yeere. Written in Latin by Daud Chytræus. [Dedicated to Sir Walter Mildmay, from 'Powe Belechamp,' on March 31, 1570; and printed in London, 4to., 1570, 1577.]

10. The Psalmes of Daud and others. With M. John Caluins Commentaries. [Dedicated to Edward de Vere, Earl of Oxford, and printed in London, 4to., 1571, 1576. A copy of the first edition is in the Newberry library, Chicago. The dedication is strongly antipapal.]

11. A Booke of Christian Question and Answers. Wherein are set forth the cheef points of the Christian religion in manner of an abridgement. Written in Latin by the lerned clarke Theodore Beza Vezelius. [Dedicated to Henry, Earl of Huntingdon, and printed in London, 8vo., 1572, 1577, 1578, 1586. The volume contains 90 leaves besides the dedication.]

12. A Confutation of the Popes Bull which was published more than two yeres agoe against Elizabeth the most gracious queene of England, Fraunce and Ireland, and against the noble Realme of England. By Henry Bullenger the Elder. [A translation from the Latin, printed in London, 4to., 1572.]