

SALLY'S PRAYER.

Oh! please God, grow me fastly.
So, as I to work can go,
Cause when we're cold and hung'ry,
Ma cries and worries so.

An' when the rent-man comes around,
His face is red and long,
He shouts an' swears an' ses things,
Ma shivers; she aint strong.