

...rity, to the char-
...of our race, and
...If these measures
...me inevitable, we
...with one heart
...d go into it with
...nacious rectitude,
...nspire a man or a
...s the sympathies
...all, we might de-
...od of battles in a
...thing to provoke,
...ible means to avert.
...remedy for wound-
...ll rally to the res-
...s its wrongs. And
...nd, I will venture
...ll be found at the
...y] as cold-hearted
...ay of trial. No,

...their breath
...root of death.