

PREFACE.

In preparing this brief history of New Brunswick, the aim has been to make the language simple and natural, and to create an interest not only among children but among grown people in the natural features and the people and events of this province. The author acknowledges his indebtedness to the historical works of Dr. James Hannay, and to the several monographs on New Brunswick by Prof. W. F. Ganong. To Rev. Dr. W. O. Raymond and Janes Vroom, Esq., he is indebted for assistance in reading proofs; and to the courtesy of many ladies and gentlemen who have loaned photographs for illustrations.
