

| Atooi. | English. | Atooi. | English. |
|------------------|---|---------------|---|
| Taboo, or tafoo, | Any thing not to be touched, as being forbidden. This is an example that shews the transmutation of the H, F, and B. into each other. Thus at Otateite yams are oohe, at Tonga oofe, at New Caledonia oobe; and here taboo is tafoo. | Henecoolie, | An instrument made of a shark's tooth fixed on a wooden handle, to cut with. |
| | | Eea, | An adjunct, as at Otateite, to give strength to an expression. |
| Maooa, | I, first person singular. | Pao roa, | Quite done; finished. |
| Heno, | Little rods, about five feet long, with a tuft of hair on the small end, | Ec, | At. |
| | | Taira, | That; the other. |
| Patae, | Salt. | Ahoo aura, | Red cloth. |
| Aheia, | A round pearl-shell. | Henaro, | A fly. |
| Teanoo, | The cold arising from being in the water. | Ehateinoa, | What is the name of that? |
| Tammata, | The sense of taste. | Heweereweere, | An outrigger of a canoe. |
| Ootoo, | A louse. | Mawaihe, | The sail of a canoe. |
| Ehone, | To salute by applying one nose to the other. | Eheou, | The mast of a canoe. |
| | | Hetoo, | The yard of a sail. |
| | | Ooamou, | Fast; secure; sound; whole. |
| | | Hono, | To go; to move. |
| | | Matou, | Fear. |
| | | Pooa, | An arrow. |
| | | Teeto, | A bow. |
| | | Epaee, | Wooden bowls made from the Etotoo. |
| | | Ohe, | Bamboo. |
| | | Henaroo, | The swell of the sea. |
| | | Motoo, | Land. |
| | | Ehetoo, | A star. |
| | | Marama, | The moon. |
| | | Ouarneeta, | A man's name. |
| | | | Numerals to Ten, as at Otateite. |
| My, | A sore of any kind. | | |
| Oura, or ouraa, | Cured; recovered; alive; well. | | |
| Mango, | A shark. | | |
| Te and he, | The. | | |