

till the middle of May. In the middle of April the spring showers begin. In the end of May the weather becomes warm and every one leaves Teheran and goes into the mountains except those who can't afford to. The hot weather continues till the end of August, and is followed by a beautiful autumn which lasts till December, after which snow sometimes falls.

THE END.