

- ownership of rail-
and shipping trade
to electrical sup-canals 505—6;
534; in relation
; in relation to 608—9, 855—6;
and Adam Smith
- n.; ore and coal
ool 785—6; hops
and eggs 796—7
n) 258—62, 275—
urchasing power stic demand for Diagram of mean Indian prices of and marketing Wheat)
or Department
ous raised to 299 contrasted with tion and coopera-
- ists and factory
- a stock watering
entralized admin-s 364; on State
imports 707 n.
- a distribution of way 469 n., 477 n.
hine work com-
prices 261, 731 n.
- ization in Britain
s of obtaining
n.
al passages from Artificers 721 n.
and purchase of n 798 n.
- 51;
- Holland, Appendix B, 3; anticipated
modern technique 33, 678—9
Hooker, on wheat prices 261 n.
Horizontal and vertical, expansions
215—16; in the steel industry 218—21, 528—31, 559—65; in the cotton industry 230—2; in relation to Britain's prosperity 590
Household or "homely" industry 48,
276, 699—702; in Tyrolese villages
698 n.
Howard, Ebenezer, and "Garden
Cities" 802 n.
Hoxie 373 n., 385—6, 391 n.
Huber 668 n.
Huet, and Dutch trade 676 n., 678 n.
Hume, on money 707 n., 713—14 n.;
and the "Economists" 725, 727 n.
Huskisson, his fiscal policy 81 n.
Hutchins and Harrison 73 n.
- Ideals, and national life 3—4, 647,
650—1, 846—9; and cooperation
291—2
Ideas, their application to practice 172
—3, 203, 206
Iles 203 n.
Increasing Return 187; in the field of science 133; and elasticity of supply 188 n.; and monopoly price 404, 405;
and taxation 405 n.; and patents
407; and Protection 744—6, 763 India, and Protection 653 n.; fluctuations of wheat prices in 780—1 n.; influence of custom in 781—2 n.
Individuality, versus massiveness of production in France 116—20; a British characteristic 580; its strength and its weakness 583—4; in the steel industry 588—9; as an element of national wealth 583; in furniture 792
"Indivisible" industries 770
"Industrial atmosphere," of Sheffield and Solingen 284, 287 Industrial Commission, its scope and authority 259 n.; its investigation of Trusts 523—4, 539—40 n.
Industrial fluctuations, as affected by Trusts 540—3; by cartels 573—4, 629—35
Industrial leadership I, iii—viii, 3—4, 9—11; and foreign trade 14—16, 26
—7; and education 95—9; speculation as to future 159—62
"Industrial Revolution," merely one stage of Evolution 9; in limited sense of term 71
Industrial technique II, ii—iv; its progress formerly dependent on custom 197—200; later on records and standards 201—2, 466; methods of it, advance 203—5; its debt to engineering 206—8; and the working classes 212—13
"Instruction card," its place in Scientific Management 372—4
Insurance 251; against opposite risks
255, 259—60
Interchangeable parts, anticipated by Holland 33, 678—9; in aeroplane engines 227—8 (See Standardization) Interest, rate of, in relation to well-being 408; and growth of capital 691—
5 n.
Interlocking directorates 344—6, 540
—3; provisions in Anti-trust Act against 542 n.
Internal economies 167 International Harvester Company, its exclusive dealing 536
International trade (See Foreign trade)
Interstate Commerce Commission, principles governing 468—9, 477; on railways 466, 477—8, 480—1, 822, 826—7; and "dumping" 522, 824
Invention, in textile industry 58 n.; characteristic of English 61—2, 101 n.; methods of 203—4, 207—10;
triumphs of 210—12; and patents 244 n., 714 n.; ever-widening scope for 242; social gain from 325 (See Industrial technique)
Ireland, her relations with England 54,
717—18; her cooperative dairies 54,
292 n.
Iron, and English leadership 60—1;
European sources of 126; German production of 95, 557 n. (See Steel)
Jacob, on wheat supplies in 1826—7
739 n.
Januet, M. 540 n.
Japan, her education by foreign trade
22; her industrial characteristics 161
Jenks, J. W. and Kemmerer, E. W., on "securities of industrial combinations and railroads" 540 n.
Jevons, H. S., on State management
852; 267 n., 586 n.
Jews, characteristics of 48, 54, 247 n.;
and financial activity 103 n., 680;
their value to Germany 582; Sombart on 680
Joint Committees of Employers and Employed 392
"Joint products" 181, 192—3, 413,
790; railways as illustrating 467—
71
Joint Stock Companies II, viii—ix; origin of 35, 36, 68 n., 311—12, 675, 696—8; successors to Regulated Companies 36, 312, 703—14; drawbacks to 317—18, 321—4; and the