HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

SKATED ONTO CHANNEL
CUT IN ICE OF THE BAY

One and May Be Two Victims
Lost in Burlington Bay.

HAMILTON, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Burlington Bay claimed one more victim this afternoon on the morning. Fred Smith, 80 East Wood-street, skated into a channel from which ice had been taken by Dewey & Child, ice merchants, and his companion, Albert Smith, who lives at Brantford, had not since been heard of. Fred Smith's body was found later.

Prof. Halyntine of Knox College addressed a men's meeting at Knox College this afternoon on the subject of "The Church Opposed to the Workingmen." He objected to the church's championing the particular causes of the workingmen, and stated that there should be no class distinctions in churches such as there were now, the presence of which he thought might explain the alienation of the poorer classes from the institution.

The Senior Hamilton Y.M.C.A. basketball team defeated Niagara Falls last evening by 41 to 28. The line-up was as follows:
Hamilton (41)—Madgett, Bainbridge, Steinhilber, Johnson, Webster.
Niagara Falls (28)—Bowman, Butler, Henderson, Hedley, Ridley.

A SIGNIFICANT FACT.

It is a significant fact well known among our best people and musicians that in homes of refinement the Gerhard Heintzman piano is quite frequently seen and heard. There are good reasons for this. Its construction appeals to the reason, assuring purchasers of long service. Its appearance appeals to their sense of beauty. Its tone satisfies their musician's instinct. Newest designs of the Gerhard Heintzman piano can be seen at the firm's new salesrooms, 41-43 Queen-street west, opposite city hall, or a line will bring you their latest catalogue showing all new models.

TIME RIPE FOR A CHANGE DECLARES MR. BOURASSA

Nearly Five Hundred Present at Le Devoir Love Feast—Mr. Monk on Reciprocity.

MONTREAL, Jan. 29.—(Special.)—Henri Bourassa, M.L.A., at the Le Devoir anniversary dinner at Windsor last evening, declared before five hundred of his compatriots that the time was now ripe for a change of regime, both at Ottawa and Quebec, and his sentiments were cheered to the echo.

Yesterday 486 bankers, business men and professional men and clerks sat down after paying $2 apiece for the pleasure of having the Nationalist leader, all showing what a hold he has obtained upon the people.

Le Devoir was founded a year ago and now Mr. Bourassa announces that its future is assured, also stating that before the advent of Le Devoir there was not an English or French newspaper in Montreal that discussed public questions with absolute freedom. He declared that the paper was absolutely free from every sort of control, and, except in the interest of good government and purity in public affairs, no pact had been made with the church or any other body, and any priest could have an opinion contrary to that of Le Devoir, without being suspected of being sold or bought. He said that no government should be in power too long.

F. D. Monk, M.P., was present, but did not intimate what attitude he would take in the Washington arrangement. He said, however, that its adoption would endanger our relations with the motherland, which all wished to remain in statu quo. The schedule, however, should be carefully considered for there were many defective spots. For instance, he said, the interest of the market gardeners on the Island of Montreal had been completely sacrificed, when they had been told that they would not be interfered with a year ago.

A strong feature of the evening was a very eloquent speech from John Boyd, who, while declaring his firm adherence to Mr. Ender and the Conservative party, gave very great credit whatever to Anglo-Saxon interests in this country by the success of the Nationalist movement.

MRS. WARD IS DEAD

Well-Known Author and Lecturer Succumbs to Illness.

NEWTON, Mass., Jan. 28.—Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Ward, author and lecturer, died at her home at Newton Centre last night, after a short illness at the age of 67. Her husband, Herbert D. Ward, was in the south when she was taken ill, and reached home only to-day.

Mrs. Ward was born in Boston Aug. 31, 1844. She began to write for the press when but 13 years of age. She was the author of "The Express" series of four volumes appearing in 1865. From that time until very recently, hardly a year passed that a book from her pen was not published.

Public Amusements

Terry in Repertoire.

The week's engagement at the Royal Alexandra Theatre of the distinguished English comedian, Mr. Edward Terry, who will during his visit, present a number of delightful comedies, will commence to-night. His first offering will be that charming play, "Sweet Lavender," by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero. Mr. Terry will be seen in the role of Dick Phenyl, a character he has played with much success over 4000 times. He brings with him his own company, direct from Terry's Theatre, London.

Mr. Terry's engagement in Toronto has the aspect of being somewhat of a social event, as already reservations have been made for a number of large theatre parties. This is no doubt due, in a measure, to the attention shown this noted actor by their Excellencies Earl and Countess Grey, during his visit to Ottawa last week. At the Wednesday matinee Mr. Terry will present "The Toy-maker of Nuremberg," and in the evening R. C. Carton's well-known comedy, "Liberty Hall."

"The Jolly Bachelor."

Pleased at the reception accorded his presentation of Marie Dressler in "Tillie's Nightmare," at the Royal Alexandra two weeks ago, Lew Fields is sending his largest and most expensive show, "The Jolly Bachelors," to that playhouse next Monday, for a week's engagement. Some of the social surprises promised in the course of this somewhat widely diversified entertainment are: a large and pretty chorus and an extra added party ballet of "Ju-Ju."

Tom Miner's Burlesquers.

Andy Gardner, known throughout the country for his interpretation of the role of "Fatsey Bolivar," is still the principal comedian with Tom Miner's Bohemian Burlesquers. Gardner is seen to greater advantage this season than he has been for some time. As usual, he sings a funny topical song that is good for seven and eight scores at every performance. "The Bohemians" will be at the Star all this week.

The Second Chance.

College-street Methodist Church is to be congratulated in having secured the clever young artist, Miss Maude E. Gilman, A.T.C.M., to give the recital entitled "The Second Chance" (Season of "When Sweet Sixteen") on the evening of Feb. 2. This charming tale could not be more beautifully told. The public kindly invited.

College of Music.

On Saturday afternoon the following program was given by pupils of Dr. Torrington, in the hall of the Toronto College of Music, Pembroke-st: Piano, Chopin "Polonaise"; C sharp minor, Clara Cann; Kathleen "Song time"; Op 59, No. 12, Violet Harris; Wollenhaupt "Le Ruisseau"; Helen Sullivan; Hummel "Rondo" E. B. and Chamblade "Air de Ballet"; Eva Gaskin; vocal, "I'll know a Lovely Garden," and "Rose in the Bud"; Clara Jeffery; Granler, "Hossanna"; Penelope Young; Handel, "I Know This My Redeemer Lived"; vocal, "Campanella"; Ed Backe; Olive Casey; Chopin, "Fantasia Impromptu (piano)"; Chopin Prelude in G Op. 28, No. 3; Mrs. Mortimer; Staub; vocal, "The Mountains"; "Campanella"; Chopin Valse; Marlon Porter (piano).

"When Sweet Sixteen."

The latest musical success of the season, "When Sweet Sixteen," written by a noted composer and the distinguished writer, George V. Hobart, will be the attraction presented at the Princess Theatre this evening, and for the entire week. Much interest has been evinced here in the presentation of "When Sweet Sixteen," for it not only marks a departure in the matter of musical attractions, but it also proves that the public taste demands plays that are thoroughly coherent, liberally sprinkled with musical gems. The name of Victor Herbert is in itself sufficient guarantee of the excellence of the music of "When Sweet Sixteen" and the name of George V. Hobart is also a guarantee of the merits of the book of lyrics.

"When Sweet Sixteen" has met with flattering receptions in the large cities, where it has been heard, and it goes to Chicago after this week for an extended engagement at one of the leading theatres of that city. The cast of artists to be heard in "When Sweet Sixteen" is a notable one, and includes such favorites as Eugene Cowles, Scott Welsh, Frank Doane, Harriet Standon, Florence Nash, Gipsy Dale, May McCabe, Louis Franklin, R. M. Dolliver and Frances Gordon.

The "Sweet Sixteen" chorus is composed of young and pretty girls, and a lavish stage production is promised by the management. An augmented orchestra, including soloists from the Victoria Herbert Symphony Orchestra of New York, will be used for the entertainment. The direction of Augustus Kleinsch.

Al. H. Wilson at the Grand.

Al. H. Wilson, the German dialect comedian, will be seen as Metz von Arheim, in his latest play, "A German Prince," at the Grand Opera House this week. Like good wine, his reputation improves with age. He does also his wonderful singing voice, which will be heard to advantage in several songs that were written and composed especially for this play, among the most notable of which is probably "My Queen of Dreams" and "Love Thoughts." Of the play itself much of interest can be said, for it contains so clever a blending of mirth, humor and pathos that it is sure to please the most exacting of amusement seekers. The comedy element is mostly supplied by the star in the character of the German prince, who, to escape from the clutches of an aged admirer, assumes the disguise of a courier, and meets with many humorous adventures while guiding a party of American tourists thru the Austrian Tyrol.

Gus Edwards' "Song Revue."

Gus Edwards' Song Revue heads the bill at Shea's Theatre this week. This company numbers 39 youngsters, headed by Gus Edwards. The act occupies almost an hour. Its success has attracted producers of musical comedy, and Mr. Edwards had two handsome offers to convert the act into a full production.

The special extra attraction is Bert Levy, the cartoonist of New York. Other features included in this week's bill are Wilbur Mack and Nella Walker in their musical flirtation, "Uncle Lem's Dilemma"; Fred St. Onge and Company; Michael E. Fitzgerald and his

Sam Howe's "Lovers." Sam Howe and His Lovemakers are the attraction at the Gayety Theatre this week, presenting the two-act burlesque, "Love Makers in Africa," which is replete with gorgeous ballets, interesting specialties and brilliant spectacular effects. Of course, Sam Howe is the feature and his leading fun maker, the number of other entertainers, all unexcelled in their field, have been engaged by Sam Howe to support him. Some of them are Sam Howe's old minor, Bob West, Oscar Sydney, Lippon and Lanier, De Wolfe, Vera Desmond, Libby Blondell. The four Harmonists and the Dudna Sisters, and a large and pretty chorus and an extra added party ballet of "Ju-Ju."

KING WILL BRING LIBEL ACTION AGAINST MYLIUS

Determined to End Once For All Slandereous Rumors Circulated For Years.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—The News of the World says that King George's advisers have instituted criminal libel proceedings, with the object of ending once for all rumors which have been freely circulated for years that his majesty, when Prince of Wales, was morganatically married to a daughter of an admiral at Malta.

The defendant in the case is Edward F. Mylius, who is said to be connected with the paper, The Liberator, published in Paris, which printed the statements on which the libel charge is based. Mylius was arrested some weeks ago, charged at Bow-street, committed for trial and sent to jail.

In the ordinary way the case should be tried in the central criminal court, but on application of the crown it will be brought up in the high courts of Wednesday next, before Lord Chief Justice Alverstone and a special jury.

According to a statement in The Liberator, the defendant intends to file a plea of justification and also subpoena the King as a witness. The constitutional law, however, makes it impossible for his majesty to give evidence in his own courts, notwithstanding that he may be anxious to do so.

Practically all of the London morning papers publish stories of the intention of the King's advisers to carry the case to the courts on the charge of criminal libel. It is noteworthy that The Morning Post, referring in a recent article to the arrest of Mylius, on Dec. 28, said that he was charged with being concerned in the publication of seditious statements, but the paper made no reference to the alleged morganatic marriage, merely saying that the alleged seditious statements referred, among other things, to the policy followed by this country in Egypt and India.

The Post also published a long article on the constitutional law in such an unusual case, saying that as it was during a legal vacation, the advisers had abstained from charging Mylius in a police court according to the usual procedure. Application was made to the vacation judge in chambers, who issued a writ of habeas corpus, and then committed him to custody, fixing bail at $100,000, which the prisoner was unable to furnish. The result of this action by the police was that Mylius was legally committed without publicity, and until recently the London papers have made but brief reference to the case.

It is understood the proceedings in the suit are brought under a statute 200 years old.

No. 4 About the Flexotype— Part Three—The Flexible Form

THIS is the vital feature of the Flexotype— the flexible, tempered steel form, in which the type is placed line by line as it is set up. It is only a quarter of an inch thick when filled with type.

THIS feature of the detachable flexible form is alone sufficient to place the Flexotype out of reach of comparison with any other office printer.

THE form can be filed away, if desired, like a letter. Any number of forms may be used. A set goes with the machine. To detach one form from the printing cylinder and put on another is the work of a moment. Set up half a dozen letters if you wish; run what you need of one, then slip on another form.

THE Flexotype is a machine of unites—the printer, the type-setter and the flexible form. This rational principle gives it the widest possible range of uses.

SAMPLES of Flexotype work and booklet describing the machine in detail, sent upon request to the Flexotype Department.

We have no particular objection to taking a Flexotype right down to your office and showing you.
