OLYMPIC CLUB BOUTS

Smith Knocks Out Christie, Other Three Going the Limit.

Four bouts were decided before the members of the Olympic Athletic Club at Agnes-street Theatre last night. The main bout, between Hilliard Lang and Battling Jack Kelley of New York, went the limit of ten rounds at 145 lbs. I nthe first two rounds it looked as tho it was only a matter of how long Lang would let his man stay, but in the third the battler began to fight back, and made things interesting all the way, altho Lang had a margin in every round, with the possible exception of the sixth, when Kelley uncorked a couple of left jabs and put a right over on the jaw, he could not land the sleep-producing punch.

Tommy Sturch and Scotty McEwen went eight rounds at 118 lbs., with Sturch having a slight margin.

Harry Westerby spoiled another reputation when he met Tommy Jones of Buffalo in their eight-round affair at 125 lbs. Westerby put his man down for the count of six in the first, and opened his eye up in the second and kept it bleeding thruout. In the fifth he had his man on the ropes with his hands hanging at his sides when the gong sounded, and Jones was lucky to last thru the sixth and seventh. In the eighth he came back strong and put up pthe best round of the fight.

When Herman Smith of Buffalo lined up with Charlie Christie he looked like a joke. He is about 3 inches taller than Christie and has several inches on him in reach, but in the first two rounds looked like a big, awkward kid, and Christie had the better of the argument, but in the third he began to let out his long reach, and Christie could not reach him, while he was landing repeatedly with both hands, and i nth efourth a series of rights and lefts to the jaw sent Christie down and out.

TIM JORDAN'S SINGLE DROVE IN WINNING RUN

Leafs Got an Early Lead, But Skeeters Tied It Up—Eleventh Innings' Rally Won Game.

The Leafs won the third game from the Skeeters after an interesting eleven-innings battle, by 7—6.

Tesreau and Jones were the opposing pitchers, and for five innings the big Toronto pitcher only allowed one hit, that by Abstein in the first innings. In the sixth the Skeeters started a batting rally, a double, two singles and a home run netting four. In the seventh a single, hit by pitcher, followed by a sacrifice and a two-bagger, scored two more runs, and Mueller replaced Tesreau. Mueller only allowed two singles during the balance of the game.

The Leafs touched Jones up freely and had the score 6—0 at the end of the fifth. He, however, pitched a good game and fielded his position in clever style.

Toronto scored two in the third, on singles by Delahanty and O'Hara, and an error by Doan. In the fifth, with two out, Shaw singled, going to third on Jordan's single to right. Shaw scored on a passed ball, and Jordan reached second. Bradley was safe on Jones' error, Jordan reaching third. Kocher then hit a homer to centre field, and four runs counted for the innings.

Jones tightened up, and the Leafs were unable to score until the eleventh, when Delahanty singled, but was forced at second by O'Hara. O'Hara stole second and reached third on Shaw's out to Abstein. Then Timothy Jordan hit one on the nose to right field, scoring O'Hara with the winning run.

The Skeeters were easy picking for Tesreau up to the sixth, when Deininger doubled to right, Breen and Abstein singled, and Jake Gettman put the ball in the bleachers for a home run. The batting rally scored four runs. They got two more runs off Tesreau in the seventh and tied the score, but Mueller, who replaced the big pitcher, held them safe.

Bill O'Hara's work in the field was of a high order, he having six put-outs, several of them being excellent catches. Jimmy Mullen also had a couple of hard fielding chances.

Wells, the Skeeters' outfielder, who went behind the bat after Ryan was hurt, grabbed a couple of foul flies in sensational style.

Charlie Tonneman was put out of the game for talking to the umpire, and Jack Ryan had to retire with an injured thumb.
