

FRIDAY MORNING
SUPPLEMENTARY ESTIMATES
PRESENTED TO LEGISLATURE

More Than $700,000 Additional To Be Voted, Including $25,000 for Exhibition Buildings, Retiring Allowances, Colonization and Other Public Works.

Further supplementary estimates, amounting to $768,740.25, were brought down in the legislature yesterday afternoon.

The determination of the government to develop Northern Ontario is shown by an item in these estimates for $182,104 for colonization roads in the northern division of the province. Of this amount $15,000 has been set aside for Tisdale Township, where the Porcupine Goldfields are situated. The sum of $1400 has been provided for a second assistant engineer for the good roads department, and an additional grant of $1000 for the good roads branch of the public works department.

That the new regulations of the revised Public Health Act will be enforced, without delay, is shown by an item of $35,000 to provide for ten district officers of health at $2500 each. An additional $10,000 is provided for the expenses of these district officers at $1000 each.

In the legislature department $100 is provided to the clerk of the clerk assistant and clerk of routine. An additional allowance of $500 is made to Crown Attorney Corley for City of Toronto communication of fees.

Patriotism and pride in the throne is to be fostered and encouraged by having portraits of Their Majesties King George and Queen Mary given to the schools. To cover this expense $1500 has been provided.

Halleybury High School.

The importance of knowledge of minerals to the rising generation of residents of the north country is indicated by an additional grant of $1000 for the mining department of Halleybury High School.

To assist in agricultural training in high schools, $7400 additional estimates have been set aside.

Well done and other societies of a kindred nature suffering loss thru rainy weather will be protected by a grant of $100,000 as insurance. The sum of $250 has also been provided to increase the grant to the Ontario Plowmen's Association.

The sum of $7000 has been provided for contingencies, rental, etc., of a temporary residence for the lieutenant-governor during the present year.

Indications are that some of the hydro-electric equipment and underground service in the parliament buildings is going to be placed under ground, and an item of $2000 will provide for these improvements.

Exhibition Buildings.

A grant of $25,000 to the Industrial Exhibition Association, Toronto, is made towards principal buildings. The salary of the mining commissioner in connection with crown lands has been increased to $3000.

Among the miscellaneous items included in these additional estimates are: a grant of $200 to James L. Hughes towards the erection of a monument to Alexander Muir.

A grant of $1000 to the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress of Canada for their meeting at Guelph, 1912.

A grant of $2000 towards expenses of police convention.

A grant of $1000 to the Canadian Mining Institute.

A grant of $200 towards a Hanlan Monument.

A grant of $300 to the Ontario Curling Association towards the expenses of entertaining the Scotch curlers.

B. Wilkinson, Toronto, allowance extra services, and J. Clancy gets $1000 for the same reason.

The Ontario Technical Education Society $1000 of special services.

C. C. James, the ex-deputy minister of agriculture, is given a retiring allowance of $4000 by the government.

For the "expenses of elections" a sum of $15,000 is provided, and a sum of $10,000 to cover the expenses of R. R. Gamble's exploration party in New Ontario to choose the route of the T. & N. C. Railway thru Manitoba to Hudson Bay.
