DOORS OF WINTER FAIR TO SWING OPEN TODA

Show, in Both Quality and Quantity, Best in Thirty-Five Years.

Guelph, Dec. 8.-When the doors of he Ontario provincial winter fair open to the general public on Monday norning, there will be found on exhibition the finest galaxy of live slock of all kinds which has ever been housed under one roof in Canada. The fair this year is unquestionably the largest and the best in the 35 years of the show's existence, both in ing at $4 to $7.50 per case, the lower cattle, dairy cattle, sheep and swine to be found in the country, to say nothing of the magnificent poultry show and the splendid exhibit of all sorts of seeds. The judges have been busy with the poultry and seeds during the past two days and have almost completed their work, but the judging of the live stock will not start until Monday morning and will continue until Thursday night. There arrived from Chicago today several cars of sheep, beef cattle and horses, and these animals, which took many of the big prizes at the international live stock exhibition, will add greatly to the interest in the judging here, as there are a humber of vell-known owners and breeders who did not show at Chicago, who are confident they have just as good, if not better, stock to exhibit. A number of the prize winners a; the Toronto show of last week are here.

The dairy test, which has been in progress since Thursday night, closed at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results are expected to be announced at nine o'clock tonight and the results and the results a show and the splendid exhibit of all sorts of seeds. they were again brought in in very large quantities.

At the opening of the market trade was slow and draggy, chiefly because buyers thought the prices too high, but when prices were lowered later in the day trade became fairly brisk, and the market was cleaned up earlier in the afternoon than for the past two weeks.

Butter brought unchanged prices, ranging from 60c down to 50c per lb., one vendor again receiving 65c per lb. for all she had, but it was a slow sale, and there was a larger quantity sold at the lower prices.
