OLYMPIC TROOPS REACH EXHIBITIO

Fifty-Three Officers and 1,411 Other Ranks Welcomed Home.

Troops from the Olympic arrived at the Exhibition Camp on three trains at 5.15, 7.15 and 8 o'clock light night. Altogether there were 53 officers and 1,411 other ranks and a large and enthusiastic crowd of relatives and friends were assembled in the grounds to greet the men as the trains pulled

Included among the home-coming reterans was the 4th General Hospital, who came as a complete unit. A number of the members of this unit me on the first train, but the majority arrived on the second, which also carried Col. W. B. Hendry, O.C., who was warmly welcomed by civic and military officials as he stepped off the train. Major G. Hyland and Major T. A. E. World, both of the 10th Field Ambulance, met the colonel at the train. Mayor Church, Col. Gibson and arty handshakes ensued. Col. Hendry, whose home is at 181 Carlton street, has seen four years' servicetwo years at Salonica, and two years at Basingstoke. Before enlisting he was colonel of the old 10th Field Ampalance, and is well known as a member of the medical profession here. A reception for the boys of this unit has been arranged for this afternoon in Convocation Hall at the University of Toronto. This reception was to have been held last night, but on account of the delay it was postponed until today. The remaining troops who arrived were composed of drafts and details of various overseas units and included a' number of men for outside points, who were transferred to soldiers' hos-tels for the night, before resuming strategically situated," for binding their journey to their
