IMPERIAL BURLESQUERS AT STAR
Big houses and good shows are the rule at the Star Theatre, and next week which Manager Star confidentially expects to be a record-breaker on account of the unusual strength and popularity of the attraction, the well-known "Imperial Burlesquers," will offer two new burlesques entitled "Night in Paris" and "Off to the Front," two great laugh-creators. The first scene is laid in Paris, and the scenery and costumes are the finest that money can procure, and the same applies to a battlefield and is a satire on a popular war drama. "Off to the Front" is a farce to amuse and interest in the two comedies, bright lines with repartee, ludicrous situations and a wealth of melody and feminine charm. The costumes and scenery are in keeping with the general tone of both comedies, and many beautiful stage pictures will be presented during the progress of the two skits. Larry McAle, Ben Cook, Harry Bentley, Bert Wiggins and George Brennan will have charge of the comedy, while Misses Ida Strugias, Julia Heitzman, Margie Hilton and May Belmont will attend to the principal female roles backed by a chorus of twenty regular girls.

Plain Talk From the Doctor
A prominent physician, famous for his success in the treatment of kidney and bladder troubles, stated that to the following prescription is due a great deal of his success:
One ounce fluid extract dandelion;
Four ounces compound syrup sarsaparilla.
Mix and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime, drinking plenty of water.
This mixture will, he says, positively cure any diseases arising from weak, clogged or inactive kidneys, and will assist these organs to cleanse the blood of the poisonous waste matter and acids, which, if allowed to remain, cause lumbago, lame back, rheumatism and sciatica, and at the same time will restore the kidneys to healthy normal action. The ingredients, which are purely vegetable and entirely harmless, can be procured from any good druggist and mixed at home at very little cost.
This advice will undoubtedly be much appreciated by many readers.

POLICE ARE ON TRAIL OF A HEARTLESS WOMAN
May Be Able to Find Mother Who Deserted Babe—A.O.F. Celebration.

HAMILTON, Aug. 29.—(Special.)—This morning Robert Merigold pleaded guilty to doing an atrocious business last Saturday night. He was out on the street himself, and meeting the license inspector, invited him to make a call at his hotel. He told the magistrate this morning he was greatly shocked to find his bartender serving drinks to about ten men. He was fined $20.
Miss Mabel Hanes, Dundas, an 18-year-old girl, disappeared mysteriously last Saturday and has not been seen since.
Hugh McNeilly, Bartonville, started the police yesterday by requesting that they should hang him. He was allowed to go home this morning after he had sobered up.

The police talk as tho they were hot on the trail of the heartless mother who left her infant babe in an ash-heap in A. Simpson's woodshed last Thursday. In order to give them time to follow up their clues, Crown Attorney Washington this evening asked Coroner Woolverton to adjourn the enquiry, which was done, until Monday, Sept. 3.

John Patterson told the finance committee to-night that he would be ready to start active building operations on the Hamilton, Waterloo and Guelph Railway early next spring. The committee instructed the city solicitor to draw up the necessary by-law.

NICHOLAS MURPHY DEAD HAD A NOTABLE CAREER
Was One of the City's Best Known Members of the Criminal Bar.

One of the oldest and best known members of the legal profession in Toronto passed away yesterday when Nicholas Murphy, K.C., died in St. Michael's Hospital. His life had been slowly ebbing away for the last three weeks from continued hemorrhages.
Mr. Murphy was 65 years of age, and was born on a farm near Brantford, his father (having come to Canada from Ireland) in 1842.
Nicholas Murphy was educated at Carleton Place Academy, in Middlesex County. Sir Wm. Meredith being one of his schoolmates. He completed his education at St. Michael's College, Toronto, and St. Hyacinth College, Montreal. He then took up the study of law, and in 1864 was called to the bar.

Many years ago his name was prominent in the conduct of criminal cases in the local courts. His knowledge of law was keen and accurate, and several points that he raised during the hearing of cases were carried before the English courts. He acted for the defence in several murder cases during the '80's. In the trial of a man named O'Rourke, at Milton, he raised a constitutional point which attracted much attention. It was as to the power of the Ontario Government to say how a jury should be called. In the McHolmes extradition case, the prisoner was brought up on a writ of habeas corpus before Chief Justice Cameron, and Murphy succeeded in having him discharged, on the ground that he could not be held unless the warrant was there. In consequence of his decision on a new point the law was amended in England.
In the trial of one Hall, a New Jersey forger, which was talked of all over America, Mr. Murphy fought a boneless case, which he did with persistence and determination. He raised point after point, and altho the
